PRENTICE.

Or, Prentiss. This is an old English name. Rymer's Foedera mentions Thomas Prentiz, A.D. 1318, and there is also reference to William de Prentice de Leak, Eng., 1341. Peter Prentiz was a member of the House of Commons, from Derby, 1361-2. The name in America is believed to have been originally spelled Prentice. Some branches since spell it Prentiss, and some Prentis.

——— PRENTICE of Nazing, co. Essex, Eng., perhaps had three sons:

*1. Robert, m. Elizabeth ———.
*2. Capt. Thomas, b. 1621, m. Grace ———.
3. Valentine, came from Nazing, co. Essex, Eng., & sett. at Roxbury, Mass., in 1638. He was prob. a relative of Robert of Essex & of Capt. Thomas of Roxbury & Cambridge, Mass.

ROBERT PRENTICE (No. 1) m. ELIZABETH ———, and lived at Nazing, co. Essex, Eng. The old parish register at that place has this entry: "ELIZABETH PRENTICE, DAUGHTER OF ROBERT PRENTICE, AND ELIZABETH HIS WIFE, WAS BAPTIZED 20 APR. 1635." Possibly this may be the Robert who afterwards came to Roxbury, Mass. He was prob. a brother or other relative of Valentine Prentice of Roxbury, Mass., who also originated at Nazing, and prob. also a relative of Capt. Thomas Prentice of Newton, Mass., who Administered on Robert's estate in 1665. Savage thinks Robert and Thomas were brothers. On Aug. 31, 1645, Robert gave a year's subscription toward a free school in Roxbury. On Sept. 20, 1658, Sergt. John Ruggles' Inventory, Roxbury, credited Robert Prentice for work, and William Peacock's Inventory, Jan. 22, 1660, mentions him. On Oct. 25, 1664, Robert Prentiss and others signed the Roxbury Petition to the General Court about the infringement of their Patent. He was a member of the first Roxbury Church, the records of which say, "HE WAS BURIED FEB. 12, 1665." On Feb. 7, 1665, Thomas Prentice of Newton presented Robert Prentice's Inventory to Probate Couft, in which, on Probate Court records, Boston, is mentioned "A HOUSE AND 2 ACRES OF LAND, £50, DWELLING HOUSE AND ORCHARD £30," and other lands. He had 16 acres of land in Roxbury, and 48 acres near Muddy river. Also household utensils, "A BULL STAGGE," at Capt. Prentice's, &c.; total £174.15s. 6d.; debts £29 4s. 6d. Dr. John Alcock of Roxbury was his physician, and Apr. 26, 1665, Capt. Thomas Prentice swore to the Inventory. The name Robert was handed down in several families of the Newton Prentices. As James Savage supposed that Robert Prentice of Roxbury was the father of the brothers, James Sr., and Thomas the second of Newton, they are continued as sons of Robert.

1. James Sr. of Newton, b. abt. 1629, m. Susanna Johnson, dau. of Edward Johnson of Woburn, abt. 1655.
*2. Thomas II of Newton, b. abt. 1632, m. Rebecca Jackson.
3. Elizabeth, bp. Apr. 20, 1635, at Nazing, Essex, England.

CAPT. THOMAS PRENTICE (No. 2) was b. in England in 1621, and came to Cambridge, Mass., in 1648. Savage thinks he and Robert were brothers. The earliest record of his being in this country is the baptism of his two children, Thomas and Elizabeth, twins, Jan. 22, 1650. He and his wife joined the Church in Cambridge in 1652. They lived in the eastern part of Cambridge village, and later in Newton, Mass., where he d. from a fall from his horse, July 6, 1710, aged 80 years. He was appointed captain of a troop of horse in the Indian war, June 24, 1675 He was a terrible enemy to the hostile Indians, but ever a friend of the Indian converts. He m. GRACE ———, and brought her with him to this country with his eldest child. She d. Aug 9, 1692.

1. Grace, b. 1648, in England, m. Capt. Thomas Oliver in 1667.
*2. Thomas, and, m. Sarah Stanton (No. 10, Stanton Fam.).
3. Elizabeth (twins), bp. Jan. 22, 1650, m. Thomas Aldredge in 1675.
4. Mary
5. John, bp. in 1653; d. young.
6. John, bp. 1655, m. Elizabeth Jackson in 1677, dau. of Edw. Jackson & sister of Rebecca, wf. of Thomas Prentice II.
7. Hannah, b. 1661, d. Apr. 25, 1738.

THOMAS PRENTICE II (No 12) prob. son of Robert, of that part of Cambridge south of the river, now Newton, Mass., was b. in England in 1632 or 33. He with his brother James bought their farm together in Newton in 1657, and were among the first settlers there. He m. REBECCA JACKSON, dau. of Edward Jackson Sr., by his wife Elizabeth, [EDWARD JACKSON, A NAILER, WAS BP. IN ST. DUNSTANS CHURCH, STEPNEY, WHITECHAPEL PARISH, LONDON, ENG., IN 1604, CAME TO CAMBRIDGE, MASS., IN 1643 AND BECAME A FREEMAN IN 1645. HE PURCHASED LAND AT WHAT IS NOW NEWTON IN 1646, AND WAS A PROPRIETOR OF BILLERICA, MASS. HE D. AT NEWTON IN 1681]. Rebecca was b. in England, 1632-3, and bp. in London at Whitechapel Parish, Oct. 10, 1633. She was a sister of Elizabeth Jackson, thd first wife of John Prentice, son of Capt. Thomas the trooper, of Newton (No. 26). Thomas II d. in Newton at a great age, 90 or 91, in 1722. The date of his wife Rebecca's death is unknown. There is no record of him in Newton's births, deaths or marriages, or on probate records "ON THE FIRST DAY OF THE FIRST MONTH, CALLED MARCH, 1650, THOMAS DANFORTH, ATTORNEY FOR THOMAS PARISH AND WIFE MARY, OF NAYLAND, COUNTY OF SUFFOLK, ENG., DEEDS TO JAMES AND THOMAS PRENTICE, JR., BOTH OF CAMBRIDGE, MASS., 400 ACRES OF LAND IN CAMBRIDGE, WHICH WAS GIVEN TO PARISH BY THE INHABITANTS OF CAMBRIDGE." (per town books). Also in 1657, same to same, 100 acres of land, that farm that James Prentice now dwells on, John Jackson on the northeast; William Clement on the southwest, for £61. In the affadavit of Thomas Prentice II, in 1713, he says: "ABOUT 60 YEARS AGO (1653) I HELD THE END OF A CHAIN TO LAY OUT A HIGHWAY IN NEWTON," which would make him about 91 at his death in 1722. On May 13, 1713, Thomas Prentice (then called Senior), made a gift-deed to Thomas Prentice Jr., of "BURNT HILL IN NEWTON, ADJOINING THE NEW DWELLING-HOUSE OF SAID THOMAS PRENTICE, EXCEPT WHAT I HAVE ALLOWED TO MY SON-IN-LAW, JOHN HYDE, AND RESERVING 2/3D OF THE CEDAR SWAMP TO MY SONS, JOHN AND EDWARD PRENTICE;" acknowledged May 4, 1714, and recorded Jan 24, 1724. "WHEN HE [THOMAS II] CAME INTO THIS VILLAGE [NEWTON] HE WAS CALLED THOMAS, JR. WHEN CAPT. THOMAS PRENTICE'S SON THOMAS WAS GROWN UP HE WAS CALLED THOMAS PRENTICE WHILE CAPT. THOMAS, THE TROOPER, WAS CALLED AND WIDELY KNOWN BY HIS MILITARY TITLE." Mr. Edward Jackson, by his will, makes bequests to both these Prentices; the one he styles "Capt. Thomas Prentice," the other Thomas Prentice. Toward the latter part of his life he was called Thomas Prentice, Sen. He appears to have had a great horror of records, nowhere does his name appear except when he could not help it. He was a selectman four years, 1686, '90, '99, and 1700, and his son Ebenezer was Constable in 1687. The town clerk was obliged to record these notices. So also the register of deeds. There is not a scrap of record about him among the births, marriages, nor deaths, nor in the probate office. Had it not been for the deeds he could not have been penetrated. By Edward Jackson, Sen's will (1686) we learn that he m. Jackson's dau. Rebecca by his first wife, and that he gave her a gold ring with this motto, MEMENTO MOREX, and that he bequeathed to her husband, Thomas Prentice, 100 acres of land at the south part of the town near "BALDPATE MEADOW," (where he built a house and resided the latter part of his life), and two other tracts of land. In 1688 Thomas Prentice, Sen., son-in-law to Edward Jackson, consented that Jonathan Jackson of Boston might sell the lands bequeathed to him by his father (Edw. Jackson, Sen's. will). In 1694 Thomas Prentice, Sen., and Rebecca his wife conveyed land to Rev. N. Hobart. In 1706 he conveyed land to his grandsons, Thomas and Samuel. In 1714 Thomas Prentice, Sen., conveyed by deed of gift to his son, Thomas Prentice, jr., (after his decease), his homestead at "BURNT HILL," in Newton, adjoining to the new dwelling-house of said Thomas (except what he had allowed to his son-in-law, John Hyde, and reserving 1/3 of the cedar swamp to his sons, John and Edward). This deed was acknowledged May 1714, and recorded June 24, 1724, probably the year he died. He also conveyed land to his loving son John, a "CORDWAINER," in 1714. He lived to a great age, nearly 100, but the time of his death is unknown. His heirs, however, sold his dwelling-house and farm in June, 1728, and said, "OF THOMAS PRENTICE, LATE OF NEWTON." His wife Rebecca was bp. in London, Oct. 10, 1638 (per the parish register of Whitechapel). The time of her death is also unknown.

DR. AMOS PRENTICE (No 2231C) son of Dea. Samuel and Abigail (Billings) Prentice, b. Apr 24, 1748, d. suddenly, July 19, 1805, much beloved and lamented. He was a patriot of the Revolution, and suffered severe loss at New London when Benedict Arnold burned the place in 1781. He m. ANNA OWEN, dau. of Rev. Owen of Groton, Conn., a very accomplished woman, who d. Dec 7, 1815. Her father was a friend and contemporary of Jonathan Edwards. Dr. Prentice practiced his profession many years at New London, and then in 1797 came to Sayre, Pa. He moved into Elm Cottage at Milltown, a long, low building almost covered with vines, with a wide, brick floored porch running completely across its front, and stood on the northeast angle of Springs Corners. It was built by John Shepard for Dr. Prentice, who was his nephew. The building was erected sometime before 1800, and after Dr. Prentice's death it became a tavern and a store, and was the scene of many a grand supper after the annual hunt. Still later it became the residence of O.B. Spring—hence Springs Corners. Part of the house, in which O.B. Spring was born, is still in existance, forming part of the carriage house on what is known as the Cuyler place on the opposite corner, and was said to have been the first frame building in Milltown. Dr. Prentice was the first physician in this area, and he also had a drug store at his house, the first in Bradford county. He was also the first school teacher in this vicinity, having taught in the log school house in Rest cemetery. This school was the second on the Tioga peninsula, preceded only by one at Athens. The site was donated by John Shepard for school and burial purposes. After a few years it burned down, while Dr. Spring was the schoolmaster. Dr. Prentice and his wife are bur. in Rest cemetery.

He had been admitted to the Bar in New London & practiced there previous to his coming to Athens in 1798. In 1799 he was admitted to the Bar of Luzerne county, & after the organization of Lycoming county, which then included the area where he lived, he practiced in that county. Then when Bradford county was established, he enjoyed the distinction of being the first resident Attorney in that county. He was also the first postmaster at Athens, appointed in 1801. He wore his hair braided, hanging upon his shoulders, according to the custom of the times, & was a young man of excellent character & fine personal appearance. To the great sorrow of the family & many friends, he d. after a short illness of fever, ae. 41. He practiced law at Williamsport for some of this time also.

*6. Julia, m. John Frsnklin Satterlee of East Athens. (No. 22, Elisha Satterlee Fam.).

Speaking of the losses which Dr. Prentice suffered at the sacking of New London, Mrs. Perkins, in her Early Times On The Susquehanna, says: "THERE WAS NO PLACE OF RESORT THAT AFFORDED SO MUCH PLEASURE AS THE HOUSE OF DR. PRENTICE, ACROSS THE WAY, WHERE VISITORS WERE ENTERTAINED WITH BOOKS, INTERESTING STORIES AND ANCIENT CURIOSITIES. AMONG THE LATTER WERE THE BED CURTAINS, PAINTED BY MRS. PRENTICE HERSELF, ON PURE IRISH LINEN. ON THE HEAD CURTAIN SAT THE KING AND QUEEN, CROWNED WITH REGAL DIGNITY, WITH FRUITS AND FLOWERS SURROUNDING THEM. ON THE SIDE CURTAINS WERE LESSER DIGNITARIES, WITH VINES AND GRAPES AND FLOWERS. ON THE VALANCE WAS A VINE EXTENDING THE ENTIRE LENGTH, WITH CLUSTERS OF GRAPES, RIPE PLUMS AND PEARS. THE WORK WAS NEAT AND ELEGANT, AND THE DESIGN INGENIOUS. BUT WHAT WAS MORE THAN ALL, THEIR CROWNING VALUE WAS, THAT THEY WERE MUCH SCORCHED AND DAMAGED AT THE TIME NEW LONDON WAS BURNT BY ARNOLD, THE TRAITOR, DURING THE RDVOLUTION. THESE WERE BROUGHT OUT ONLY ON EXTRAORDINARY OCCASIONS TO ENTERTAIN VISITORS AND PARTICULAR FRIENDS. AN ELEGANT TOILET COVER, ALSO STITCHED WITH THE NEEDLE BY THIS INGENIOUS WOMAN, AND THE ANTIQUE SILVER CUP AND ELEGANT CHINA PUNCH BOWLS, WERE AMONG THE CURIOSITIES EXHIBITED, SAVED FROM THE WRECK OF ARNOLD'S DEPREDATIONS. These were handed down from generation to generation as heirlooms in the family.

*1. Levi, b. May 18, 1801, m. Mary Hartwell.

LEVI PRENTICE (No. 223-2811) son of Manasseh and Susan (Lathrop) Prentice, was b. May 18, 1801, at Cazenovia, N.Y., and came to Ohio with Dr. Tilden in 1817. He m. Oct. 13, 1824, MARY HARTWELL, who was b. in Clarksfield, Canada, East, Apr. 8, 1808. They began housekeeping in a log house that stood on or near the spot later occupied by the Thomas Neill house, in Mustcash, Erie Co. They made a business of raising cattle and horses, and fishing in Sandusky Bay on Willow Point. Game of all kinds that was natural to northern Ohio was plentiful in Mustcash at that time. Deer often went in droves of twenty or twenty-five head, and wild turkeys were also plentiful. Mr. Prentice spent but little time hunting. He would occasionally kill a deer when handy. There was very little land cleared and fenced at that time. Cold Creek Prairie and Neills Prairie were unfenced and common, where stock could graze from early spring until late in the fall, and sometimes nearly all winter. The same prairie afforded good wild grass that they mowed with scythes and made into hay and stacked on the ground for the purpose of feeding their stock in winter, always plowing a circle around the hay stacks, fourteen or fifteen furrows wide, as a protection against the prairie fires that swept the prairie every fall. At that time fish were plentiful in Sandusky Bay. They fished with a seine only about twenty-five rods long, and would sometimes catch one thousand pounds of fish at one haul. There was scarcely any sale for fresh fish at that time, so they salted them in kegs holding about 100 pounds each, and sold them to merchants in Sandusky. On one occasion when there was dull sale for fish in Sandusky, Mr. Prentice concluded to try selling them to people back in the country away from the lake, where he found better sales. There were no railroads in Ohio at that time, so he hauled his fish with team and wagon. At one time he had a chance to trade his load for wooden clocks. He did so, and found good sale for the clocks among his neighbors at home.

Here is the way Mf. prentice got a start at raising cattle. He hired Samuel H. Smith of Castalia. O., who was then a lad of sixteen or seventeen years old, to go with him to the Darby Plains, near Springfield. O., where they bought twenty-five or thirty head of calves and drove them to his home in Mustcash. One of them being poor and weak, gave out in crossing Cold Creek Prairie. It being late in the afternoon, they were obliged to leave it there over night. The next morning when they went back to look after it, they found it had been devoured by the wolves in the night. They made the trip both ways on foot. His money being all silver made them quite a load, which they took turns in carrying.

There were roving bands of Indians at that time, that occasionally passed thru the neighborhood. On one occasion, when Mrs. Prentice had been married but a short time, she rode a horse back to her father's home near the Seven-Mile House, and returned late in the afternoon. To her surprise and horror, when opening the door of her home, she saw eight or ten Indians lying in a semi-circle on the floor before the fireplace. One of their number could speak a few words of English, who assured her they were good Indians, and would do her no harm, but wanted something to eat. She got them some supper, after which they all took their leave. Mr. Prentice d. in Margaretta Twp., Erie Co., Ohio, Apr. 12. 1834. and his widow m (2) HIRAM BARNES, of Castalia, and d. PRUDDEN (Cont. from Vol. II, pp. 101-102)

THE FOLLOWING EARLY PEDIGREE OF THE FAMILY IS GIVEN IN THE Randall Genealogy, CONDENSED FROM THE New Haven Genealogical Magazine. IT WAS COMPILED BY S. ALLYN PECK OF NEW YORK CITY, AND CONTRIBUTED TO THE American Genealogist BY MISS ANNIE BURR JENNINGS OF FAIRFIELD, CONN.

Some reference to the earliest appearance of the name in England, in the year 1042, antedating the Norman Conquest, appears on p. 101, Vol. II, of This Series. In that year King Hardicanute, one of the latest Danish kings of England, died in a carousal at Lambeth Palace, where one of his nobles was celebrating the marriage of his daughter to "Tovi, surnamed Prudan, a noble and powerful Dane." The earliest individual to whom the family is directly tracable is:

I. JOHN PRUDEN, b. abt. 1416, and d. before 1501. He was of Kings Walden, co. Hertford. His wife's name was ELIZABETH. Their son was:

II. THOMAS PRUDDEN, b. abt. 1439, d. abt. 1506. He was of Kings Walden, co. Hertford. He m. ALICE, who d. before 1501. Their son was:

III. THOMAS PRUDDEN JR., b. abt. 1464, d. abt. 1539. He was of Kings Walden, co. Hertford. His second wife was JONE, and their son was:

IV. THOMAS PRUDDEN III, b. abt. 1487, d. 1558/9; was of Kings Walden, co. Hertford. He m. prob. ELLEN. Their son was:

V. THOMAS PRUDDEN IV, b. abt. 1510, bur. Nov. 14, 1558. He was of Kings Walden, Hertfordshire, and m. CHRISTIAN. They had:

VI. PETER PRUDDEN, b. abt. 1535, d. abt. 1600. He was of Kings Walden, and later of Luton, co. Bedford. He m. ALICE, and their son was:

VII. ROBERT PRUDDEN, bp. at Kings Walden, June 27, 1561, bur. at Luton, Nov. 16, 1617. His wife was MILDRED, and of their children:

*1. Rev. Peter, b. at Kings Walden or Luton, Dec. 1601, m. Jane (Thomas) Shershawe; 2d. Joanna Boyce.

2. James; sett. at Milford, Conn., in 1639 & d. in 1648.

3. Mildred, m. Robert Lucas of London, Eng.

VIII. REV. PETER PRUDDEN m. (1) JANE (THOMAS) SHERSHAW. She was the dau. of William Thomas, gentleman, of Abergavenny, Monmouthshire, Wales. She had m. (1) ROBERT SHERSHAWE a few years before 1620, by whom she had two daus., Marie and Anne. Robert Shershaw's will, dated May 23, 1629, mentions a legacy to "Peter Pruden, the lecturer." This is the earliest reference yet to be found of his presence at Abergavenny. Their marriage prob. took place in 1630. That Rev. Peter Prudden was the son of Robert Prudden, is proven by the fact that his sister Mildred, wife of Robert Lucas of London, Eng., 1664, was the dau. of Robert Prudden of Luton, Bedford, Eng.

TUTTLE HILL CEMETERY.

STANDING STONE, PA.

NEARLY EVERY FAMILY WHO SETTLED IN STANDING STONE TWP., BRADFORD CO., PA., IN PIONEER TIMES SELECTED A PRIVATE BURIAL PLOT ON THEIR OWN FARM. HENCE THERE ARE, OR ONCE WERE, UPWARDS OF TEN OR A DOZEN SMALL CEMETERIES SCATTERED ALONG FROM THE SOUTH END OF YORKS NARROWS, THRU THE VILLAGE OF STANDING STONE, AND ON DOWN NEARLY TO RUMMERFIELD. AT LEAST TWO OF THESE ARE STILL WELL MAINTAINED BY THEIR RESPECTIVE FAMILIES. OTHERS HAVE BEEN COMPLETELY OBLITERATED, AND STILL OTHERS NEARLY SO. ONE WHICH FALLS IN THE LATTER CATEGORY IS THE TUTTLE CEMETERY, ON THE SLOPE SOUTH OF YORKS NARROWS. THE AREA WAS EARLY SETTLED BY WILLIAM TUTTLE, A DESCENDANT OF THE FIRST WILLIAM TUTTLE WHO CAME TO BOSTON IN THE Planter IN 1635 AND LOCATED AT NEW HAVEN, CONN., IN 1639. THE LOCAL WILLIAM WAS BORN AT WATERBURY, CONN., IN 1744, WENT FIRST TO VERMONT, THEN TO STEPHENTOWN, N.Y., WHERE WE FIND HIM IN 1790, AND THEN CAME TO ULSTER, IN BRADFORD COUNTY, PA., ABOUT 1792, REMOVING FINALLY TO STANDING STONE TWP., WHERE HE SETTLED ON THE FARM ON WHICH THE CEMETERY WAS ESTABLISHED, AND WHICH MANY YEARS AGO WAS KNOWN AS Tuttle Hill. MANY DESCENDANTS OF THE NAME ARE STILL RESIDENTS OF THE COUNTY, BUT NONE IN THE IMMEDIATE AREA. WHEN YOUR EDITOR VISITED THE SITE, HE WAS SUCCESSFUL IN LOCATING ONLY TWO MONUMENTS STILL STANDING, THEY BEING THOSE OF A GRANDDAU., MENERVA TUTTLE GOFF, AND HER SON CHARLES GOFF. WE HAVE BEEN INFORMED THAT THE LATE CHARLES E. TURNER, WHO OWNED THE FARM, PULLED OUT MANY OF THE MARKERS AND LEANED THEM AGAINST THE FENCE. WE WERE UNABLE TO LOCATE ANY OF THESE. THE TWO MARKERS LISTED BELOW WERE IN A FENCEROW OF NEARLY IMPENETRABLE UNDERBRUSH, AND WOULD BE DISCOVERED ONLY BY DILIGENT SEARCH ON THE PART OF ONE WITH THAT SPECIFIC OBJECTIVE IN VIEW. THEY WERE ACROSS THE FIELD DIRECTLY IN THE REAR OF THE LUNDY RESIDENCE AT THE TOP OF YORKS NARROWS ON U.S. ROUTE 6, IN THE DIRECTION OF THE EARL ROBINSON HOME. WE ARE INDEBTED TO MRS. ROBINSON FOR DIRECTING US TO THE SITE. The reader is referred to the preceding articles on the Tuttle family (p. 13) FOR A MORE COMPLETE RECORD OF THEM.

GOFF, Charles, d. Apr. 17, 1882, ae. 57 y, 7m.
GOFF, Menerva, d. Mch. 16, 1883, ae. 83 yrs.

A THOMPSON FAMILY EARLY IN THE AREA. WILLIAM THOMPSON SEEMS TO HAVE BEEN THE NAME OF THE FIRST ANCESTOR, THO THE NAME "HARRY" IS GIVEN IN ANOTHER PLACE. HE WAS A NATIVE OF IRELAND AND CAME TO THIS COUNTRY WHEN HIS SON WILLIAM WAS TEN YEARS OF AGE, ACCORDING TO ONE ACCOUNT, OR SIXTEEN, IN ANOTHER VERSION. HE LOCATED IN ORANGE CO., N.Y., WHERE HE LED AN UNEVENTFUL LIFE.

WILLIAM THOMPSON, SON OF THE EMIGRANT, LOCATED FIRST AT DRYDEN, N.Y., WHERE HE PURCHASED A FARM OF 100 ACRES, THEN REMOVED TO SOUTH CREEK TWP. IN 1833, WHERE HE PURCHASED A FARM OF 160 ACRES IN THE WILDERNESS ON "Pigeon Hill," AND DIED ABT. 1871, AGED 86. OF ELEVEN CHILDREN, TEN GREW TO MATURITY. HIS WIFE, SOPHIA HOUTZ, WAS A NATIVE OF CARLISLE, PA., OF GERMAN PARENTS. HER FATHER WAS A DOCTOR AND PREACHER. WILLIAM THOMPSON WAS A FARMER AND POLITICIAN, AND A STRONG SUPPORTER OF THE WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH. THREE OF THEIR SONS WERE:

7. George H. (Seventh Child), b. May 18, 1832, in Catlin, Tompkins Co., N.Y.; reared in South Creek Twp., m. Gilanora Berry, Feb. 3, 1853, had seven ch. & followed farming in South Creek Twp.; wrote his name Thomson.

8. Charles C., b. Oct. 28, 1835, in South Creek Twp., m. Juliette Brown of Ridgbury, June 4, 1863, served in the civil war & lived at Bentley Creek.

9. Samuel L., b. June 19, 1841, in South Creek Twp., m. Jessie Snedeker, served in the Civil war & followed farming at Gillett.

XIX. RIDGEBERRY, RIDGEBURY OR RIDGBURY TOWNSHIP.

The following notes relating to the establishment of Ridgeberry township may be of interest as an accompaniment to the cemetery records.

NAME—As noted in the sketch of Samuel Bennett appearing on p. 22 of the afticle on that family in Vol. III of this series, he had named his farm Ridgeberry farm because of the many berry bushes on the ridge where he settled. When a new township was formed in 1818, he was instrumental in having that name given to the whole township. It is now popularly written Ridgebury and Ridgbury, and the former of these was the name given to the Post Office. These corruptions of the original name have resulted in obscuring the true objective of the name chosen by the pioneers. The territory was formerly a part of Athens and Wells townships, and was anciently all in Athens or Tioga, when those townships covered the whole county above Standing Stone rock, and Ridgeberry was a primeval wilderness. The township lies below the State line from Chemung Co., N.Y., on the north, Athens Twp. forms the entire eastern boundary, as does South Creek Twp. on the west, and to the south are Smithfield and Springfield Twps. The Chemung river is just above the State line, and dips into Athens Twp. for a short distance just beyond the northeast corner of Ridgeberry at Wilawana, before returning again into New York State. The surface of the township is hilly, and her several creeks all find their way northward into the Chemung as tributaries of Bentley creek, which traverses the entire length of the township. These lesser waterways include Terwilliger creek, Trout Run, Three Falls Run, Justice Run, Buck Creek and Miller Run. About the only exception to Bentley creek and her tributaries are some of the very sources of Wolcott creek, in the southeast corner of the township, which drain eastward, and also reach the Chemung almost at her confluence with the Susquehanna just above Tioga Point a short distance below Greenes Landing in Athens Twp.

In a thumbnail sketch of the various townships of Bradford county, prepared by the late Clement F. Heverly, county historian, appearing in the Annual of the Bradford County Historical Society for 1907 (p.88) he lists the earliest settlers in the approximate order of their arrival, beginning in 1805 with:

ADAM RINDEBAR, who made the first improvements in that year.

ISAAC FULLER and his sons Isaac, William, Abial, Lemuel and Peter. He also had three daus., Beulah, Betsey and Charity.

JOEL CAMPBELL and sons Joshua, Ezekiel, Joel, Jonathan, Nathaniel, Benoni and William; and also his brother: viz., BENJAMIN CAMPBELL. Most of the Campbells joined the Mormons and went West.

VINE BALDWIN was b. at Sheshequin in 1783, and is credited as having been the first white child born in that community. His father, Sergt. Thomas Baldwin, was a famous Revolutionary hero of Wyoming Valley, and had located in Sheshequin in 1783. Sergt. Thomas was the son of Isaac Baldwin, and originated at Norwich, Conn. Vine Baldwin had the first framed house in Ridgeberry.

GEORGE BALDWIN, a brother of Vine, also lived in Ridgeberry.

GRISWOLD OWEN came up from Chemung to Ridgeberry in 1809. A native of Connecticut, his father moved to Orange Co., N.Y., when his son Griswold was seven years old, and thence to Unadilla, N.Y., from whence Griswold came on to Chemung. His first settlement in Ridgeberry was on the creek near the upper part of the town, afterwards moving to a farm next above Centerville, where he spent the rest of his days. His wife Anise was the dau. of Roswell Goff, who came from Shawangunk mountain on horseback, bringing Anise in his arms. She was b. June 1, 1788.

JOHN CUMMINS came from Hartford, Washington Co., N.Y., abt. 1812 or 1813, and settled on the John Thompson farm..

CAPT. CALVIN WEST came from the same place as Cummins, and about the same time, settling on a farm about half a mile below Centerville. He migrated to Wisconsin abt. 1870 or 1871. He began in indigent circumstances, but by thrift became wealthy, in the lumber and milling business. He built a mill below Burt's. West's wife was a dau. of James Covell, and Griswold Owen's wife was a sister of Mr. Covell.

JAMES COVELL, just referred to, came to Ridgeberry in 1816, also from Hartford, N.Y. He had been a Patriot in the War of 1812. Mrs. John Cummins was his sister.

JONATHAN KENT came from Southport, Elmira, to Ridgeberry abt. 1813, and moved to Big Flats after several years. His wife was another dau. of Elder Goff.

SAMUEL GREENE is mentioned as another early comer to Ridgeberry, his location being on the hill east to Centerville.

MAJ. ALPHEUS GILLETT, a Revolutionary Patriot, came about 1826 from Boston.

PETER SQUIRES, another pioneer, came first abt. 1814 or 1815, having previously been in Columbia Twp. He came on into Ridgeberry because the lighter growth of timber made clearing easier.

STURGIS SQUIRES, his brother, was b. abt. 1791, and was a resident of Columbia Twp. when ten years of age. Returning to Connecticut, he served in the Army during the War of 1812, after which he spent some time in Yates Co., N.Y., coming from there to Ridgeberry in 1827. He and his brother obtained their lands because of the owner's neglecting to pay the taxes on them.

JOB STILES, another old Revolutionary soldier, should also be mentioned. He located three miles south of Wellsburg, N.Y., over the State line. His wife was a dau. of Asahel Burnham, and they were married in the barracks. Some members of his family had come to the area north of the State line as early as 1810 or 1811.

JOHN BUCK, from Buckville, N.Y., settled in 1826 or 1827, on lands his father, Elijah Buck, had surveyed for the Roberts lands. John was postmaster for many years. The Bucks were another family famous at Wyoming in the Revolution. William Buck, the father of Capt. Aholiab, Asahel and Elijah, with his sons, emigrated from New Milford, Litchfield Co., Conn., to the Wyoming Valley. The sons were all in the Continental Army, Elijah serving in New Jersey. Capt. Aholiab fell in the Wyoming holocost, leaving an infamt dau. Deborah, only three months old, who afterwards became the wife of Maj. John Taylor of Wyalusing, Pa., who gave his name to Taylorville in that township, and whose descendants are still legion in that area. The wife of Capt. Buck was Lucretia York, dau. of Amos York, also of Revolutionary fame, who was at Wyalusing and Mehoopany as early as 1774. (VIDE YORK FAM. IN VOL. II, PP. 127-136; AND SKETCH OF BRAINTRIM IN VOL. III OF THIS SERIES). After the war closed, Sergt. Elijah Buck returned to Wyoming, and remained there until 1786, when he journeyed up the Susquehanna and Chemung rivers and settled on lot No. 3, site of Chemung Village. His father came up soon after, and d. there in 1799. Elijah was very prominent during the early settlement of Chemung, and d. in 1830, ae. 81.

GREEN BENTLEY gave his name to Bentley creek, reportedly being the first settler on that stream.

JOSEPH BATTERSON, from Connecticut, was in the town for some years.

JOHN L. WEBB, head of a prominent family, claimed Ridgeberry as his home. He was b. Feb. 25, 1794, in New York State. His parents were Connecticut people. He came first to Chemung Co. in 1813 and on into Ridgeberry in 1823 where he served as Justice of the Peace about ten years. He was elected County Coroner in 1827, and County Commissioner in 1830. In 1833 he was elected Sheriff. He went to the State Legislature in 1845 and 1846, as a colleague of Hon. Victor E. Piollet of Bysox. He died suddenly, in the prime of life, Oct. 17, 1846, only four days after his second successful bid for a seat in the Legislature. It has been predicted that had he lived, he would have probably gone on to still greater political achievements. He was affiliated with the Democratic party. His son, Hon. James H. Webb, b. in 1820 followed a famous father. He was elected a Justice of the Peace in 1847, and Register & Recorder in 1857. These honors he obtained as a Democrat. Upon the formation of the Republican party he embraced its principles, and was re-elected to the same office the next time on that ticket. He served five terms in the Legislature, beginning in 1866. In 1871 he was Speaker of the House of Representatives. He served again as Register & Recorder in 1881. Retiring from politics he practiced law until his death in 1896, having been admitted to the Bar at the age of 65. WILLIAM C. WEBB, another son, also read law, and was a member of the Legislatures of both Wisconsin and Kansas, and was a President Judge. HENRY G. WEBB, a third son, was likewise a distinguished Judge and Legislator. Admitted to the Bradford County Bar in 1849 he went to Wisconsin, where he served in both houses of the Legislature, and was a President Judge. He d. in 1910, aged 85. There is still a fourth son to be added to the diadem of outstanding judges and legislators. CHARLES G. WEBB, fifth member of the family to gain prominence in the legal profession, was twice State Senator from Wisconsin, two terms President Judge, and then elevated to the Supreme Bench, finally becoming Chief Justice of Wisconsin.

Few cases there are where a father and all four of his sons succeed along the same line, and each thru his own efforts.

The schools of Ridgeberry are presently in a consolidation with those of Smithfield and Ulster. But she must once again become party to a larger whirl of state-enforced consolidation, with pupils being carted many miles in all kinds of weather over dangerous mountain roads, so that they may "look up to learning." We cannot help wondering if all these "frills in education" will produce individuals of solid attainment comparable to the product of the "little red schoolhouse" which the family mentioned in the previous paragraph presumably began with. There are other values to life besides mass book larnin.

But to return for a moment to complete the survey of the pioneers.

THE IRISH came into Ridgeberry some years after the preceding. Most of them had previously been laborers on the old North Branch Canal when it was being built, and the prices offered for labor seemed fabulous to the emigrants, many of whom had come to America to escape a potato famine in the Emerald Isle. After the canal was completed many of these hardy sons of Erin took up lands in out-of-the-way places, "where only an Irishman would settle," as This Editor has often observed. Many Irish farms thruout the county and elsewhere have once more reverted to the primeval state of wilderness and forest. The surface of Ridgeberry is hilly, as already noted, with many sidehills and gullies. The Irish influx had its inception in 1839, with the coming of:

CORNELIUS O'DRISCOLL, who passed to the Great Beyond in Feb. 1876, ae. 96.

RICHARD O'CONNOR came in 1840.

JAMES WHITE, in 1841 located one mile south of the Catholic Church. He had landed at Quebec, Canada, in Apr. 1837, and his son, who succeeded to the homestead, was born the following December on the Victor E. Piollet farm in Wysox. From there he went to Greenlown, below Wyalusing, and on to Ridgeberry.

GEORGE O'LEARY, 1842, the Irish settler, had a large family of sons, and located nearly opposite the Church. After this the emigration was rapid, and included

DANIEL DESMOND and sons John and Timothy.
RICHARD RURLEY.
PATRICK BUTLER.
DANIEL CHAMBERS, GEORGE CHAMBERS and THOMAS CHAMBERS.
DANIEL CAIN and
JAMES CROWLEY.

FATHER O'REILLY, their first priest, came on horseback in March 1843. The chapel was built in 1847. Father O'Reilly detested the liquor traffic. One of the women of the settlers, while they were working on the Canal, laid a fresh barrel on tap, when the Priest happened along, took an axe, knocked the head of the barrel in, and let the whiskey run out on the ground.

The settlers helped one another in their clearings, and were very sociable in their habits, and altho they were charged a large price for their lands, by perseverance, industry and frugality they paid for them, and their neat homes, well-tilled farms and numerous, well-kept herds, attested to their success and prosperity. Descendants of these frugal pioneers now hold title to some of the most productive river-bottom lands in the county.

An extensive flood-control and recreation project for the Bentley creek watershed in Ridgeberry and over the State line is being formulated at the present time. This territory is within the Elmira employment suburbia, and many commuters have their homes in this and other outlying districts, going back and forth daily.

SATTERLEE

CDXXXII.

I. William Satterlee.

REV. WILLIAM SATTERLEE was b. 1610 in Devonshire, Eng., and was vicar of St. Ide's parish, Exeter, Devonshire. Of this family, three brothers came to America in the early 1650's.

1. William; was one of the original proprietors of Brookhaven (Setauket), L.I.
2. Benedict; settled in New York and Connecticut in 1650.
3. Nicholas; settled in Rhode Island in 1680.

CDXXXIII.

II. Benedict Satterlee.

BENEDICT SATTERLEE, a lineal descendant of one of the emigrant brothers, was originally from Groton, Conn. He was one of the "forty" original settlers in the Wyoming Valley, Pa., for whom Forty Fort was named. He is supposed to have been killed in some of the Yankee-Pennamite contests between the Connecticut settlers and the Pennsylvania claimants, prior to the Wyoming Massacre of 1778, leaving a wife, five sons and one dau. The mother, fleeing with her children after the battle of Wyoming, perished in the wilderness of fatigue.

1. Elizabeth, b. 1760, m. Elisha Matthewson of Athens, Pa., and d. Dec. 4, 1851, aged 91, one of the last survivors of the Wyoming Massacre.
*2. Elisha, b. May 12, 1760, m. Cynthia Stephens
3. Benedict, m. Wealthy Spalding, dau. of Joseph and Eunice (Shepard) Spalding of Athens, Pa., Feb. 20, 1788. She was b. Oct. 20, 1771. He was long a school teacher at Athens, commencing as early as 1791. He was also the first constable of the old Connecticut township of Tioga (Athens) in 1789, and served as such several years. He moved to Mt. Morris, N.Y., and d. there, Jan. 8, 1812. His widow m. (2) Jonathan Ellis, and d. Apr. 28, 1860, at Ypsilanti, Mich.
4. Elias; studied medicine and practiced his profession with great success at Elmira, N.Y., until his death, Nov. 11, 1815, by the accidental discharge of a gun.
5. Nathaniel; settled in Smithfield Twp., Bradford Co., Pa.
6. Col. Samuel, b. 1771; settled in Smithfield Twp., Bradford Co., Pa. He was an officer in the War of 1812, and a member of the Pennsylvania Legislature from Lycoming county, which at that time included western Bradford. He d. at East Smithfield, Sept. 27, 1840.

COL. ELISHA SATTERLEE (No. 2) son of Benedict, was b. May 12, 1760. He served his country seven years in the struggle for Independence. On Sept. 17, 1776, he enlisted as a private in Capt. Samuel Ransom's company, attached to Col. John Durkee's regiment of the Connecticut line, and served until June 6, 1783. He was with Washington at Valley Forge in the memorable winter of 1777-78, and in Gen. John Sullivan's expedition against the Indians in 1779, up the Susquehanna and into western New York, which cleared the country of hostile Indians and Tories, and left it open for resettlement after the close of the war. In the Connecticut land controversy he stood second in prominence only to Col. John Franklin. He came to Tioga Point (Athens) as early as 1787 in company with Col. Elisha Matthewson, his brother-in-law, and, about two years later, brought the remaining members of the family to the new settlement. Together with Col. John Franklin he assisted in laying out the township of Athens, and was actively identified with the early history of the county. Col. Satterlee was a very large man, "so stout, indeed, that he had a special chair. On Jan. 11, 1787, he m. CYNTHIA STEPHENS, dau. of Jedediah Stephens of Athens, and d. Aug. 25, 1826. His wife, b. 1769, d. May 9, 1848.

*3. Aurelia, b. Aug. 9, 1792, m. Col. Robert Spalding of Wysox, Pa.

JOHN FRANKLIN SATTERLEE (No. 22) son of Elisha andCynthia (Stephens) Satterlee, was b. 1788. He was eleven months old when the new settlement was established at Athens. He was a prominent and influential citizen, and was long actively engaged in the material progress of the town and of Bradford county. He d. at Athens, Feb. 11, 1856. He was a merchant from 1812 to 1817, and subsequently kept the old hotel at Athens. During most of his business life he dealt quite extensively in lumber, which he rafted to the markets of the lower Susquehanna and Baltimore. He established and maintained the first ferry across the Susquehanna at Athens which was abandoned when the bridge was built about 1840. For several years during the latter part of his life He was a Justice of the Peace, and engaged in farming in the old settlement on the east bank of the Susquehanna. The large creek which enters the river at East Athens is known as Satterlee creek. As early as 1808 he became associated with the Masonic fraternity, and was a charter member of Rural Amity Lodge, FAM, at Athens, and for several years was the master, never ceasing to take great interest in the order until his death. While he never held, nor sought, political office, he was an active worker, and in the campaign of 1844, stumped the county for Henry Clay. He m. (1) Dec. 25, 1808, JULIA PRENTICE, dau. of Dr. Amos Prentice of Athens, whose wife was dau. of Rev. Mr. Owen of Groton, Conn. His second wife was ELIZABETH MARSHALL, dau. of Josiah and Sibyl (Brown) Marshall of Sheshequin, b. 1794, d. Dec. 5, 1871. Her mother was dau. of the first Thomas Brown of Wyalusing, Pa. (No. 11617, Thos. Brown Fam.).

JOHN FRANKLIN SATTERLEE, Jr. (No. 227) son of John F. and Elizabeth (Marshall) Satterlee, was b. Apr. 14. 1829, and spent his boyhood on his father's farm. He was educated in Athens high school, and engaged in business for himself when he was eighteen years old. At 24 he began farming on the old Satterlee place, where he remained until 1868, when he removed his family to Waverly, N.Y. He then engaged in contracting in Brooklyn, and, in 1869, removing to Monroeton, Pa., commenced lumbering on the mountains to the south and west of the town. The brook which enters South Branch creek from the west at South Branch, and which is one of the sources of the city water for Towanda and Monroeton, has become known as Satterlee run. In 1889 he was appointed special agent in the General Land Office of the Interior Department, in which capacity he was stationed in various states west of the Mississippi and Florida, at one time being stationed at Gainesville, Fla. The old Monroe Boro Directory of 1900 shows house of John Satterlee on Canton Ave. He m. Oct. 18, 1853, LUCY E. BOOTH, dau. of Horace and Minerva (Atkins) Booth.

III James Satterlee

JAMES SATTERLEE was b. 1764, at Stonington, Conn. He enlisted at the age of thirteen years to fight for American Independence. In Apr. 1777 he enlisted in the company of Capt. James Elbridge, in the regiment commanded by Col. Jedediah Huntington of the Connecticut line, and continued in the service until peace was declared. After the war he settled in Otsego Co., N.Y., whence he removed to East Smithfield, Bradford Co., Pa., in 1799. He and his family and effects were in the first wagon that passed from Athens to Smithfield, and were two days in making the journey, having to camp out one night, the distance being about ten miles. Two of the Satterlee children, a boy and a girl, were in the woods some months after their arrival, picking berries, accompanied by a pet shoat, which was also engaged in the same agreeable pursuit of berry-picking. Hearing an outcry from the pig, the children looked around and saw their pet in the clutches of a bear, which was leisurely walking off on his hind legs with the squealing porker. Mr. Satterlee was once arrested on suspicion of shooting one of the surveyors of the Pennsylvania title, but proving an alibi, was discharged by the jury without leaving the box, but his defense cost him all his property. In his declining years the Government gave him a pension for his faithful services. He d. abt. 1830, aged 66, and lies beside his wife in the Asa Allen burying ground.

SHORES SCRAPBOOK.

CONTRIBUTED BY WALTER J. PARKER JR., NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y.

MRS. MARY ELLEN HORTON SHORES, WIFE OF WILLIAM MILES SHORES OF SHESHEQUIN, PA., KEPT A SCRAP BOOK, CONTAINING FAVORITE POEMS, JOKES, &C. ALSO IN THE BOOK ARE CLIPPINGS OF MARRIAGES, DEATHS AND OTHER ITEMS OF HER FRIENDS AND RELATIVES. THE DATES OF THESE EVENTS ARE NOT VERY OFTEN GIVEN, WHICH MINIMIZES THEIR USEFULNESS. HOWEVER, THEY MAY PROVE HELPFUL AS SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION FOR CONTEMPORARY VERIFICATION PURPOSES, WHERE OTHER RECORDS ARE AVAILABLE THAT CAN BE USED IN CONJUNCTION WITH THEM. SOME EMENDATIONS HAVE BEEN INSERTED BY THE EDITOR WHEN THE NECESSARY INFORMATION WAS AVAILABLE.

Your Editor would commend the following procedure as a most useful and gratifying accompaniment to compilers of scrapbooks and others who may wish to file clippings from contemporary news media. The current obituary, intended for its immediate news value, rather than as a permanent memoir, does not usually give the full date of the event mentioned, and will be deleted by editors and copywriters should the discerning contributor include it, unless it be inserted as a paid advertisement. Most death notices will usually read like this: "MRS. JANE SMITH PASSED AWAY LAST EVENING AT THE HOME OF HER DAUGHTER, MRS. JOHN JONES," &C. Mrs. Brown, a relative or neighbor, tenderly cuts out the obituary and places it in the Family Bible or tucks it in the Scrapbook, to be pasted in later, more at her leisure. But someone, at a later date, wishing to learn "WHEN MRS. SMITH DIED," hopefully consults the carefully preserved obituary, only to learn that she passed away "LAST EVENING." But when was "LAST EVENING?" She is frustrated and disappointed. She must seek elsewhere for the answer. So Your Editor, after viewing numerous scrapbooks and collections of clippings, has evolved the following system. At the top of the obituary or other item that is desired to be preserved, cut an extra half-inch or so into the bottom of the preceding article, so as to leave attached to it the last few lines of this other item. Then, from the margin at the top of the page on which the announcement appeared, cut out the date, INCLUDING BOTH THE DAY OF THE WEEK AND THE DAY OF THE MONTH, thus: TUESDAY, JULY 5, 1966." Paste this date to the top of the obituary, on the printing that you left attached from the preceding article. So now, by glancing at this heading, you know at once, from the attached dateline, that "LAST EVENING" must have been Monday Evening, July 4, 1966," when "MRS. SMITH DIED!"

E.B.—Abstract of a visit to Shores Hill, Sept 27, 1877, by E.B., with her granddau. Elizabeth, and Mrs. Wealthy Ayers. Visited Mrs. Clark Smith, who is a granddau. of E.B's brother: Patience Ferguson; have two daus., Lillian E., the eldest, then between nine and ten, and Sybil, about one year, named after her great-grandmother. This farm was a mile distant from that of Wm. Miles Shores! Mrs. Wm. Miles Shores is also a granddau. of E.B's brother; Mary Horton, they have two children, Harry, the eldest, some 8 years old, named after his uncle, Harry Horton, whose kindness to his sister has been generous; the youngest, a yearling dau., Gertrude, named after a friend of the mother. Then called on Mrs. L.F. Culver. Then stayed overnight at her brother Horace's. She has a nephew J. Frank. Called on E.B's old friend and brother, Jeremiah Kilmer and lady. Then went with the Kilmer's to Wm. Miles Shores for dinner and met Rev. Silas Barner, pastor of Hornbrook charge, then in charge for 20 yrs. Barner was well versed in Scriptures. He claims the Anglo-Saxon race of England and America, at least that portion of us who claim descent from Mother England, are the pure descendants of Israel. Having this his favorite theory, he is well posted to prove his position, to his own satisfaction. Our English ancestors are fond of tracing their ancestry back to Wm. the Conqueror. Our Brother (Silas) goes back much further to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, &c. Then took tea with Horace and Mary Horton.

THE EDITOR IS ABLE TO IDENTIFY MOST OF THE PRINCIPALS IN THE ABOVE ITINERARY. "E.B." SEEMS TO HAVE BEEN ESTHER HORTON BLACKMAN. CLARK SMITH WAS THE SON OF JOHN B. AND LUCINDA HORTON SMITH. DIX. I. John Sill.

JOHN SILL and his wife JOANNA came from England in 1637, and located in Cambridge, Mass., the same year in which Cambridge University was founded there. What his occupation was is not known, neither the exact place of his nativity in England. It is supposed that they lived at Newcastle-Upon-Tyne before coming to this country. They had two children, born in England. Mr. Sill was admitted to the privileges of a freeman at Cambridge in the year 1638. Both himself and wife were members of the Church of which Rev. Thomas Shepard of Cambridge was pastor. Mr. Sill removed to Saybrook, Conn., and d. in 1647. The records show at Cambridge that in 1662 his wife Joanna had a grant of land. She d. previous to 1671, at which date her will was presented for probate.

*1. Joseph, b. 1636, m. Jemima Belcher; 2d. Sarah (Clark) Marvin
2. Elizabeth, b. 1637, m. Zechariah Hicks & d. at Cambridge, Sept. 12, 1730.

CAPT. JOSEPH SILL (No. 1) son of John and Joanna Sill of Cambridge, Mass., was b. in England in 1636. He m. (1) Dec. 5, 1660, JEMIMA BELCHER, dau. of Andrew Belcher, innkeeper of that town, niece of Lieut-Gov. Thomas Danforth, and aunt to Gov. Jonathan Belcher of Massachusetts. She d. in Cambridge abt. 1675. Most of the children of Joseph Sill died young, and with the decease of Thomas, in May, 1709, the name Sill became extinct in Massachusetts. Joseph was extensively known as Captain Sill, he having been actively engaged in public service in the Indian war of 1676. He is spoken of in Hubbard's history of that war, as being engaged in several expeditions against the Indians in Massachusetts, and also on the Merrimack river, Casco Bay, and Ossipee in New Hampshire.

After the close of the war Capt. Sill removed to Lyme, Conn. He m. (2) Feb. 12, 1677, SARAH (CLARK) MARVIN, wid. of Lieut. Reynold Marvin of Lyme, and dau. of George Clark, Jr. She was b. in 1641, and d. in 1715. Capt. Sill resided in Lyme nineteen years before his death, which occurred Aug. 6, 1696. His widow survived him about nineteen years, and d. Feb. 17, 1715, in the 74th. year of her age. They are both bur. near Lieut. Marvin, and the inscriptions on their grave stones are still standing in Lyme burying ground.

Joseph and Zechariah Sill were in possession of lands lying north of Mill Brook, the head of tide water on the east branch of Lieutenants river, as early as the year 1698. Some few years subsequent to this they purchased more land in the vicinity, and settled their families, about sixty rods apart, on the north side of Mill Brook, and about a mile and a half north from the centre of Lyme village. The two families numbered eighteen children, all but two living to grow up and settle in married life. The neighborhood has been called Silltown, from the circumstance that five of the name settled on the street half a mile north of Mill Brook.

JABEZ SILL (No 178) fourth son of Joseph and Phebe (Lord) Sill. was b. in Silltown, Aug. 4. 1722, and m. Dec. 28, 1749. ELIZABETH NOYES, dau. of Moses and Mary (Ely) Noyes of Lyme. He settled in the North quarter of Lyme, as it was formerly called, on land previously occupied by his father, which came into his possession at the time of his father's decease, in 1765 Joseph Sill had purchased this farm of Eben Mack for £300, as stated in the Lyme records in 1730. and in 1746 the records state as follows. "JOSEPH SILL DEEDS THE FARM HE LIVES ON TO HIS SON JABEZ, WITH THE MANSION HOUSE AND BARN—TO TAKE POSSESSION AT HIS DECEASE" Mr. Sill was a house joiner and cabinet-maker. In 1770 he sold his possessions in Connecticut, having the previous year, 1769. removed to the Wyoming Valley in Pennsylvania with the first influx of settlers into that region. He encountered all the hardships of a pioneer settler. Dr. Harvey, the historian of Wyoming, states that among the priceless documents of this period is a list of those who came into the Valley for the very first time, and that Jabez Sill was among them. The record consisted of a [illegible] OF PROPRIETORS OF THE FIVE TOWNSHIPS," of Wyoming, dated June 17, 1770. Sill was one of those driven away by the Pennamites in 1769. He did not return until June, 1772, when he was accompanied by his son, Shadrack, a boy of fourteen years. In November following, he brought on the remainder of his family. In May, 1772, there were only five white women in Wilkes-Barre, of whom it has been claimed that Mrs. Sill was one. But from this it will be seen that she was not one of them. The first marriage to be celebrated in Wyoming Valley among the colonists was that of Nathan (AFTERWARD COL.) Denison to Elizabeth Sill, dau. of Jabez, in 1769, in the Sill home by Rev. Jacob Johnson. Their son Lazarus, born in 1773, was the first white child born in Wyoming. When, in the summer of 1772, the Wilkes-Barre lands were plotted, and apportioned by lottery among the share-holders and settlers of the township, Jabez Sill drew Lot No.1, lying at the north-east corner of the streets now known as River and South in Wilkes-Barre, and meadow lot No. 22, and wood lot No. 35. Mr. Sill built the second house erected in Wilkes-Barre, on the corner of his lot, later occupied by the dwelling of Col. Wells, or the Thurlow-Lee mansion. At this early period of the settlement the people took measures to have the preaching of the Gospel established among them. Mr. Sill was the moderator of the meeting which voted on [illegible], 1773, a call to Rev. Jacob Johnson of [illegible]ton, Conn., to settle with them as their Gospel minister. His salary was to be £60 the year on the present list, and to rise annually as the list rose, till it amounted to £106, Connecticut money. Connecticut claimed what was called the Susquehanna or Wyoming country, and had it under her jurisdiction. Hence the Connecticut forms of business. Mr. Sill was appointed Sealer of Weights & Measures for the Wyoming settlement on Oct. 5, 1772. He was chosen one of the Selectmen in 1780.

Mr. Sill and his family escaped the WYOMING MASSACRE, altho his son Jabez, only a lad, stood sentry at the Forty Fort during the battle of Wyoming. Upon the dawn of peace they returned with many others of the exiles to Wilkes-Barre to begin anew their labors and toils in the settlement made a desolation and a waste. Mr. Sill d. at Wilkes-Barre, June 24, 1789, in the 68th. year of his age. His wife d. abt. 1819. Their children were all b. in North Lyme, Conn.

II. Nicasius De Sille.

NICASIUS DE SILLE, the ancestor in Holland of the Dutch family of Sill in America, was b. in 1543. He was originally from Mechlin, in Belgium, and came to Amsterdam, Holland, soon after the revolt of the United Provinces against Spain. He was chosen Pensionary of that city, and sent in 1587, with others, on an embassy to Queen Elizabeth I of England. He was Ambassador to Denmark, and afterwards to Germany, and was repeatedly sent a deputy to the States General, and was twice Commissioner to the army whilest in the field. He d. Aug. 22, 1600, and was bur. in the choir of the Red Church at Amsterdam.

NICASIUS DE SILLE of New Netherland (No. 11) son of Laurens DeSille, was a native of Arnheim, Guelderland, and came to New Amsterdam in the summer of 1653. In his commission as First Councillor to Director General Stuyvesant, he is described as a "MAN WELL VERSED IN THE LAW AND NOT UNACQUAINTED WITH MILITARY AFFAIRS, OF GOOD CHARACTER AND SATISFACTORY ACQUIREMENTS." He was directed to reside at Fort Amsterdam, and to deliberate with the Governor "ON ALL AFFAIRS RELATING TO WAR, POLICE AND NATIONAL FORCE;" to keep inviolate and increase all alliances of friendship and commerce; to assist in the administration of justice, criminal and civil, and to advise the Governor in all events and occurrences that might transpire in the Colony." He superintended the preparation of the fleet and accompanied it with Gov. Stuyvesant in the expedition to the South, or Delaware, river against the Swedes in 1655. In May 1656 he was appointed Schout-fiscal in place of Cornelis Van Tienhoven, who had been ignominiously dismissed from the public service. In June following he was commissioned city Schout of New Amsterdam, in which office he was succeeded by Pieter Tonneman in Apr. 1660. In the meantime he had become one of the proprietors of New Utrecht, Long Island, where, in 1657, he built the first house erected in that town, which was demolished in 1850, almost two centuries later. The first records of the town are still preserved, in his handwriting. He resided at New Utrecht as late as 1674, and prob. until his death. He was twice married. The name of his first wife, who prob. d. before he came to New Amsterdam, is not known. In the record of his 2d. mge. the fact of his being a widower is not entered, as was usual in such cases. He m. (2) May 26, 1655, TRYNTJE CROUGERS, or Cregier, from the Hague, an alliance which proved the source of great unhappiness for both parties. By his second wife, from whom he was separated by mutual agreement in 1668-9, he had no family.

Nicasius De Sille of New Amsterdam was witness to a transaction in which Claas Hendrickse Van Utrecht (Van Schoonhoven) (I.E., SCHOONOVER; SEE SCHOONOVER FAM. IN VOL. IV, P. 24). agreed with Arent Van den Bergh, May 17, 1654, to exchange property, consisting of two certain houses standing in Fort Orange (ALBANY).

CONRAD SILL was a settler at Standing Stone, Pa., in the neighborhood of the Fisher places along the River road, as early as 1776. The site was originally owned by Gen. Simon Spalding, and adjoined Anthony Rummerfield, who had settled on the creek bearing his name previous to 1774, and whose possession included "A PIECE OF LAND NEAR STANDING STONE, INCLUDING THE MOUTH AND FALLS OF A CREEK WHICH EMPTIES ITSELF INTO THE SUSQUEHANNA RIVER." Spalding had come up the river from Wyoming in 1775, remaining a year, and then leased to Sill. In a deed bearing date Apr. 1, 1790, to his son John Spalding, the property is described as a "TRACT OF LAND CONTAINING 300 ACRES, LYING OPPOSITE THE STANDING STONE, EXTENDING UP THE RIVER THREE-FOURTHS OF A MILE TO VAN ALSTINE'S POSSESSION, WHICH TRACT WAS MADE OUT TO ME IN 1775 ON A PROPRIETOR'S RIGHT, BELONGING ORIGINALLY TO JONAS SHEPARD. THE SAID LAND, IN 1776, I LEASED TO CONRAD SILL FOR FIVE YEARS, ON WHICH SAID SILL BUILT A HOUSE AND BARN AND OTHER IMPROVEMENTS." Judge Jonathan Stevens, in a communication to the Pennsylvania Historical Society, speaking of the original settlers of Standing Stone, adds the detail, "CONRAD SILL, BELIEVED TO BE DUTCH, FROM NEAR ALBANY," N.Y. There is no reference to Conrad in the genealogy of John Sill of Cambridge, Mass. Judge Stevens' observation would lead one to believe that he may have belonged to the Dutch family of De Sille.

NICHOLAS STAFFORD (No. 1) son of Patrick and Anna (Quin) Stafford, was b. in Ireland, May 6, 1831. He migrated to America, and lived at Stowell in Wilmot Twp., Bradford Co., Pa., and at Jeddo in Luzerne county, and then moved to Towanda, Pa. He d. in or near Wysox, Pa., Apr. 28, 1895, and was bur. at Stowell. Letters of Administration on the estate of Nicholas Stafford, late of Wysox, were granted to Annie Stafford and F.E. Jayne. He had a homestead at Stowell, and the birthplace of some of the children is given as Stowell, and for others it was Lovelton. He m. (1) ELLEN M. CULLEN, who was b. Dec. 31, 1836, at Taghmon, co. Wexford, Ireland, and d. Sept. 18, 1885, with burial at Stowell. She was the dau. of David and Catherine (Murphy) Cullen. He m. (2) Apr. 30, 1890, ANNIE FOYLE. There were none of the name Stafford listed in the Wilmot or Wysox Twp. Directories of 1900. The old Bradford County Atlas (1869) shows D. Cullen in the Sciota school district, southeast corner of Wilmot Twp., in the area of where converge the lines of the three counties of Bradford, Wyoming and Sullivan; and M. Cullen, in the Sugar Hill District, further up. Nicholas Stafford received deed from Frank E. Allen, Dec. 1892, in Wysox. The Allens lived at the foot of the hill leading out of Wysox toward Lake Wysauking, where the Cecil Ingerick family now reside. Mr. Allen having built the present residence. (VIDE No. 614, JESSE ALLEN FAM.) VOL. I P. 41). Perhaps this was where Nicholas resided while in Wysox. Annie E. and Nicholas Stafford deed to Edward Carr, Nov. 1891, in Herrick Twp. Also Annie Stafford & al., Admx., to John McGahan, Dec. 1895, Wysox Twp. Still another deed is from Annie Stafford to Stephen Sullivan, Nov. 1897, in Wysox. Mr. Sullivan was proprietor of the hotel in Wysox at one time. A deed from Anny M. Stafford to Martha E. Dunham, Sept. 1895, Windham Twp., would seem to be a different individual from the preceding. The Staffords had sixteen children, all by the former marriage.

STORMING THE HEIGHTS.

I. "HAWKS IN THE HAND."

IT is sometimes revealing to pause for a moment and reflect on how much we are apt to "TAKE THINGS FOR GRANTED," being unaware of anything that may be unique or out-of-the-ordinary. The country dweller is likely to think nothing of the wide open spaces, trees, pure spring water, fresh fruits and vegetables, milk, meat, eggs, or pets, livestock, &c. He is liable to regard them as the usual accouterments of the day. And the city dweller may know only the street, the sky scraper and the park. Of course in these days of travel and education, television, books and magazines, he is less likely to be provincial in his outlook than in times past.

But the writer recalls that during his early years on the old homestead, near the foot of the Red Rocks cliff, an eminence rising some six hundred feet above the surrounding bottom-lands, at the eastern extremity of the Wysox valley, it was a common occurrence to be aware of various hawks and falcons sailing overhead. He used to often imitate the two-toned whistle of the "CHICKEN HAWK." But then there were some of another variety which used to sail over, emitting a cry which, at a distance, somewhat resembled the squeal of a swine, or a wharf-rat. It was not until more recent years that he learned that this particular species were of rare occurrence, and that this was the only known habitat for many miles around, the nearest being on the lower Susquehanna, and that the local occurrence had been discovered by some students of hawk life from the University of Virginia, who made a number of expeditions to the cliff to study the habits and nests of the birds. This intelligence was conveyed to him by the Holmes family, whose farm extended back from the top of the cliff. The investigators carried on their activities from a campsite on the Holmes farm. Discovering the nest of a pair of the falcons, they let themselves down on ropes from the summit, to inspect the site. Their too-near approach was greeted by a vicious attack from the feathered predators. Many birds will abandon their nests and traditional haunts, if they are discovered or molested. Even the common house-cat will often carry off her kittens, especially if they are bothered by too enthusiastic young fry.

The hawks that perennially nested among the cliffs of the Red Rocks were a rare variety of hawk, entirely different from the common "KINGFISHER." Strange as it may seem, the river does not skirt the foot of the cliff, but is distant the best part of a mile from the nearest approach of the mountain, and across several farm fields. The Messrs. Craighead, in their report on the propensities of these hawks, did not say that they were of the sensitive type, but rather, in fact, stated that they were not in that category. Nevertheless, this reporter has not been conscious of the cries and the flying about of these creatures overhead since the intrusion of their nesting-grounds by the naturalists, and he has often wondered if they did, verily, abandon this beloved spot, which may have been their primeval haunt ever since the days when the Continental Ice Cap receded slowly northward, and the pent-up waters of the Susquehanna, which had heretofore flowed northward into the St. Lawrence river system, finally burst their bounds and raced triumphantly southward, leaving behind their Bowmans Eddy at South Towanda, their Franklin Flats or broad Wysox plains, their Macedonia turntable, their Schufelt Flatts or Question Mark Curve around Frenchtown, their Quicks Bend and Skinners Eddy above and below Laceyville, their Horse Shoe Flatts or Jaynes Bend, nearly surrounded , at North Mehoopany, and their Neck at Vosburg, thru which the mile-long tunnel of the Lehigh Valley railroad has eliminated a periphery of some four miles in circumference, and so on downward thru the Endless Mountains into the beautiful Wyoming Valley, immortalized in battle and song.

Frank and John Craighead, authors of "Hawks In The Hand," Boston, Houghton Mifflin, 1939), whose title we have appropriated for this note, included several photos of their activities about the Red Rocks in their book, some of which show one of them being attacked by the hawk when they approached her nest. In Photo eight the background is plainly discernable, showing the Riverview Farm dwellinghouse at the very bottom, the present home of the Daniel Coveney family. This house was built by Ferdinand Allen (Cf. Jesse Allen Fam. in Vol. III) and among other owners or residents were the John Mason Wattles family and son-in-law George Homet (qv), as well as Charles E. Tuttle as a tenant farmer (qv) all of whom are mentioned in other articles in this Series. The ferry of Ebenezer Tuttle (qv) was in the river below this point, and some of the farmlands shown would be those settled by Jesse Allen in 1785 followed by Theophilus Moger in 1790, when the Wyoming settlements were resumed after the close of the Revolution, nearly two centuries ago, and from whose son, Samuel Moger, part of the land was purchased by Samuel Coolbaugh in 1834, and in whose family it remained 114 years, until sold by the Editor's mother in 1948. The cliff gets its name from the red color of the shale rock of which they are composed. Also, many of the promontories jut outward toward the southwest, and in the summer months, when the sun is farthest north, the natural red of the sun, mingled with that of the cliff, make them glow on a clear evening in the summer, after the sun has set in the valley below, and twilight begun to fall, with an unusual brilliance.

Another dweller in the area at an early day was the Rev. M.M. York, once pastor of the Wysox Church, and his son Amos, who gave their name "Yorks Narrows" to the extension of the ridge to the river. This was also the scene of the Wysox Shad Fishery in the earliest days, now called Echo Beach on the Macedonia side, and its upper extension, John Allen's Cove, on the Wysox side. The latter is now nearly filled in. John Allen was a nephew of Ferdinand Allen, and he also built a house, still standing, on this same general tract of land.

DCLXXIII.

STORMING THE HEIGHT II.

Mr. Heverly, in his "History & Geography Of Bradford County," has preserved for us the record, that in the summer of 1804, Hiram Mix of Wysox, then a lad of seventeen, made a wager with other boys that he could scale the almost purpendicular face of the Red Rocks, from base to summit, tried, and succeeded. No one had ventured this thrilling exploit before, and there is no record of its ever having been repeated. The writer made mention of this incident in a historical paper which he prepared in celebration of the Centennial of the building of the Brick Church at Wysox in 1928. He recalls that one lady gasped in sheer incredulity, at the mere recital of the episode.

As the northern half of this cliff was on the old homestead farm of his parents, with the tilled fields running to the foot of the eminence, the writer had often regarded it speculatively from below, wondering just where young Mix might have made his ascent. On one occasion, while inspecting the line fence between the old place and the then neighbor to the south, the late T. M. Quick, he followed it up until he reached the dead end of it at the rock-line. Then, climbing on up some distance, he reached a narrow ledge, running along the face of the cliff, and about half way up the middle. At one point, noticing a declivity above his head, he was able to reach up and grasp a sapling growing between the rocks, by means of which he could pull himself upward, and into a rock-seam, comparable to the interior of an old-fashioned dug well. By placing his hands and feet in successive rock strata, it was possible to inch himself upward gradually, until he finally reached a point from which he emerged on top. While no record is preserved as to where young Mix made his ascent, the writer would wager that it may have been thru this declivity that the feat was accomplished, thereby discovering his secret. This is the first time an outside disclosure of this incident has ever been made.

In the early days Samuel Coolbaugh and his son Eustis had a sawmill in the field next to the foot of the mountain at the north end of the rock-face. Logs were drawn to the top and rolled down over to the mill below. This became known colloquially as the "Roll-Way," and the writer recalls that the term was still in common use to designate the back fields on the farm. When that area reverted once more to forest, it produced a solid belt of pines from the bottom to the top of the mountain. There were also some dwellings near the sawmill, one dweller there having been Abraham Martin, maternal grandfather of the Mary Howe who lived with the Coolbaugh family for over fifty years and passed away in 1936, and was buried in the Coolbaugh family lot in Wysox cemetery.

There is an interesting little wood-road starting from the opposite side of the ravine back of William Groover's barn and leads up and out at an angle to a point near the old roll-way, and then doubles back, emerging at the edge of the woods in a field on the farm of what was once Robert Hurley. A foot-path led off from this trail to the edge of the rock-face, making an easy access to the top of the mountain from the north side.

TOP PHOTO SHOWS ONE OF THE CLIFFS OF THE RED ROCKS, WYSOX, PA., JUTTING FAR OUT FROM THE FACE OF THE MOUNTAIN. THE GENTLEMAN STANDING IN THE REAR IS ALBERT LENT OF LAKE WYSAUKING. THE ONE AT THE FAR RIGHT IS ORLIN W. HOAGLIN, HIS BROTHER-IN-LAW, FATHER OF THE EDITOR; AND THE YOUNG MAN WITH THEM, LEFT FOREGROUND, IS GEORGE HAGNER, A FRIEND OF THE LENT FAMILY. A GLIMPSE OF THE SUSQUEHANNA, SKIRTING THE FOOT OF YORKS NARROWS, SIX HUNDRED FEET BELOW, CAN BE CAUGHT IN THE LIGHT PATCH APPEARING IN THE RIGHT-HAND CORNER OF THE PICTURE, AND WAS THE SCENE OF THE Shad Fishery MENTIONED IN THE TEXT AND VARIOUS OTHER PLACES. THE ORIGINAL OF THIS SNAP-SHOT WAS TAKEN MANY YEARS AGO, AND HAS ELICITED INTENSE INTEREST, DUE TO ITS NOVELTY. BECAUSE OF EXCESSIVE HANDLING, THE PRODUCTION OF A CLEAR CUT WAS IMPOSSIBLE.

LOWER PHOTO IS OF MOUNTAIN AS IT APPEARS FROM FLAT-LANDS BELOW, TAKEN FROM NEAR THE OLD YORK PLACE, DOWN ON U. S. ROUTE 6. THIS CLIFF WAS THE PRIMEVAL HOME OF THE RARE FISH-HAWKS, DESCRIBED IN THE ARTICLE. THE NARROWS WAS ALSO THE LOCATION OF EBENEZER TUTTLE'S BY-PASS FERRY.

THE FORESTERS.

ABSTRACTS FROM A POEM COMPOSED BY ALEXANDER WILSON RELATING TO A JOURNEY IN OCTOBER 1804 FROM PHILADELPHIA, PA., TO NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y., UP THE DELAWARE TO STROUDSBURG, OVER THE POCONO MOUNTAINS, THRU THE Shades Of Death, Great OR Dismal Swamp TO THE WYOMING VALLEY, UP THE SUSQUEHANNA TO TIOGA POINT, THENCE BY THE CHEMUNG TO ELMIRA, OVER THE FINGER LAKES WATERSHED TO SENECA AND CAYUGA LAKES, ON TO THE GREAT LAKES, AND FINALLY TO NIAGARA. MR. WILSON WAS A CELEBRATED ORNITHOLOGIST, AND MADE THE TRIP WITH TWO COMPANIONS. HE WAS THE FIRST TO STUDY AMERICAN BIRDS IN THEIR NATIVE HABITATS.

Long ere the morn had shown its opening sweets,
We clubbed our arms and passed the silent streets,
Slow o'er the pavement limpingly we tread
But soon recovering, every ailment fled

Forward we march, o'er mountains rude and bare,
No decent farm, or e'en a cabin rare;
Thick wastes of ground oak o'er the country spread,
While haggard pines sigh dismal overhead.

[WIND GAP]

Lo! the Blue Mountain now in front appears
And high o'er all its lengthened ridge appears
Th' inspiring sight redoubled vigor lends,
And soon its steep each traveler ascends;
Panting we wind aloft, begloomed in shade,
Mid rocks and mouldering logs tumultous laid
In wild confusion: till the startled eye
Thru the cleft mountain meets the pale blue sky
And distant forests; while sublimely wild,
Tow'rs each tall cliff to heaven's own portals piled.
Enormous gap! If Indian tales be true,
Here ancient Delaware once thundered thru,
And rolled for ages, till some earthquake dread,
Or huge convulsion shook him from his bed.

[DISMAL SWAMP]

Refreshed with sleep, before the peep of day,
O'er rising Poconos we scour away
Beyond whose top the Dismal Swamp extends Where Tobihanna's savage stream descends.

[SHADES OF DEATH]

Thus many a tedious mile we travelled o'er,
Each passing scene more rueful than before;
Till night's dull gloom descending o'er our path,
We took up lodgings at the Shades of Death.
The blazing fire, where logs on logs were laid,
Thru the red but a cheerful radiance spread:
Large horns of deer the owner's sports reveal;

The active housewife turns her buzzing wheel;
Prone on the hearth, and basking in the blaze,
Three plump but ragged children loitering gaze;
And all our landlord's odd inquiries o'er,
He dealt out tales and anecdotes in store,
Of panthers trapt—of wounded bear enraged:
The wolves and wildcats he had oft engaged;
The noble bucks his rilfe had brought down—
How living rattle-snakes he took to town.
His dog's exploits—the glory of his kind!
Now gashed by bears, and lame, and almost blind.
Displayed his hat, with bullet holes o'errun,
To prove the many matches he had won.
On powder, rifles, locks and balls enlarged,
And a whole broadside on his art discharged.
The mother spun, the children snored around,
And Sox, the landlord still fresh stories found:
Our nodding heads the power of sleep confest,
And the kind hunter led us to our rest.

Once more the dawn aroused us to the road
Our fare discharged, we left this lone abode.
And down, thru deepening swamps pursued our way,
Where pines and hemlocks quite shut out the day:
Majestic solitudes; all dead and deep!
The green moss matted o'er each mouldering heap.

[WYOMING]

Our morsel ended, thru the pouring rain,
O'er barren mountains we proceed again;
And now Wiomi opened to our view.
And, far below, the Allegheny blue,
Immensely stretched; upon the plain below,
The painted roofs with gaudy colors glow,
And Susquehanna's glittering sgream is seen
Winding its stately pomp thru valleys green.

Hail, charming river! our transparent flood!
Unstained by noxious swamps of choking mud:
Thundring thru broken rocks in whirling foam:
Or pleased o'er beds of glittering sand to roam:
Green by thy banks, sweet forest-wandering stream!
Still may thy waves with funny treasures teem:
The silvery shad and salmon crowd thy shores,
Thy tall woods echoing to the sounding oars:
On thy swoln bosom floating piles appear,
Filled with the harvest of our rich frontier.
Thy pine-browned cliffs, thy deep romantic vales,
Where wolves now wander, and the panther wails.

Where at long intervals, the hut forlorn
Peeps from the verdure of embowering corn.
In future times (not distant far the day),
Shall glow with crowded gowns and villas gay:
Unnumbered keels thy deepened course divide:
And airy arches pompously bestride:
The domes of Science and Religion rise,
And millions swarm where now a forest lies.

Here clustering grapes on bending saplings grew,
And down the loaded vines we laboring drew:
The lucious fruit our vigorous toil repaid,
And Bacchus' honors crowned us in the shade.

[WYOMING COUNTY]

Now Keeler's Ferry heartily we hail,
And o'er the clear expanse serenely sail;
High up th' adjacent banks again we go,
The lessened river winding deep below;
Here rocky masses from the cliffs we tore,
And down the mountain made them bounding roar
Thru tops of crashing pines, with whistling sound,
Dashing the thundering waves in foam abound.
Now night drew on, dull owls began to scream:
We crossed Tunkhannoc's slow and silent stream;
Lodged at a famished inn that near it stood,
Of all things destitute save fire and wood:
Old Squares, the owner, indolent and poor,
His house unshingled, and without a door;
No meat or drink, or bread, or liquor there;
As Afric's wilds, of every comfort bare;
But Duncan's load across his cudgel cast,
Fruits, birds and beasts, bespeak a rich repast,
While Leach's knapsack loaves of bread supplied,
And mine a cordial for the heart beside:
So, sans delay, all hands at once begin.
Some pick the pheasants, some the squirrels skin;
Soon o'er the fire our crackling nostrums brawl,
And soon, like hungry wolves, to work we fall.
Hew down the wheaten loaf, o'er whose thick side
The ample sheets of yellow butter glide,
While piles of bones like polished ivory, rise.
And the starved boors look on with wild surprise.
Such blessed comforts health and hunger bring:
The hunter feasts more nobly than the king,
Whose sated appetite, by luxury cloyed,
Even richest sauces satiat'd unenjoyed.
The table cleared, our journal we survey,

And minute down the wanderings of the day.
For fresh materials at our host enquire,
Who broiled his brawny limbs before the fire.
"What township's this, old daddy?" "Why-hm-well;
Township? The dickens, sir, if I can tell;
It's Pennsylvania, tho." "Right, daddy Squires;
"Who are your nearest neighbors?" "Why, the bears."
"No mill, or schoolhouse near you?" "Yes, we've one, Beyond the Church a piece on Panther run."
"Is Church far distant, daddy?" "Why-hm-no: Down Susquehanna twenty miles or so."
"You go to preaching then?" "Besure, that's clear;
We go to mill and Meeting twice a year."
"No curiosities about?" "Why—yes.
You've brought a few of them yourselves, I guess."
"What, dollars?" "Aye, and fi'-pennybits I declare
Are downright rarities among us here."
Thus passed the evening till the time of bed,
When to a kennel we at last were led;
There, slumbering, shivered till the dawn of day,
Then quit this scurvy cave and marched away.

Before us now in huge extension rise
Dark wood-clad mountains of enormous size:
Surrounding fogs their towering summits hide,
And sailing clouds, in silent grandeur, glide
Around their airy cliffs. These we survey
As dull forebodings of a cheerless day.
Up steeps immense with laboring steps we bend;
Then down in hollow gulfs for miles descend,
Buried in depth of woods, obscure and dark,
Where pheasants drum, and angry squirrels bark;
With these (tho rain in streaming torrents poured)
Our pilot's pack abundantly we stored:
And when, at length, the driving tempest cleared,
And thru the woods a distant hut appeared.
There, tho the sour inhospitable clown
Returned our smiles with many a surly frown.
Compelled by Hunger, that imperious lord,
We cooked our game and shared our little hoard;
And left the savage boor, whose looks conveyed
Dark hate and murder every move they made.

Still thru rude wilds with silent steps we steer,
Intent on game, all eager eye and ear;
Each opening turn, each dark recess survey,
Each mouldering heap that round tumultous lay,
As o'er these Alpine steeps we slowly past;
But all was silent, solitary, vast!

No sound of distant farm assailed the ear;
No rising smoke; no opening fields appear
But each high summit gained, the eye was shown
Hills piled on hills in dreary prospect thrown.
So, from the mast, when boisterous tempests roar,
And the tost vessel labors far from shore,
The toil-worn sailor all around him spies
One sea of mountains mingling with the skies.

At length with vast descent we winding go,
And see the river gliding deep below;
And up the vale, suspended o'er the path,
A sign-board waving o'er the hut beneath;
The straggling characters with soot portrayed,
Defied a while all efforts that we made;
At length we spelt this precious piece of lore:
"Pat Daugherty's Hotel and Drygoods store."
Blest tidings! Welcome to the wandering wight,
As shelter harbors in a stormy night:
And thou, sweet Muse! in lofty numbers tell
The matchless comforts of this log hotel.

Here streams of smoke the entering stranger greet:
Here man and beast with equal honor meet;
The cow, loud-bawling fills the spattered door;
The sow and pigs grunt social round the floor:
Dogs, cats, and ducks, in mingling groups appear,
And all that filth can boast of riots here.
Happy the hungry souls who hither speed!
Here, like camelons, they may freely feed:
Here champ, with vigorous jaws, the empty air;
Without a bottom find one broken chair;
On dirty benches snore the night away,
And rise like thieves upon their judgment day.
Ye threadbare Pilgrims! halt as ye pass by,
This gorgeous store will all your wants supply;
Three long tobacco-pipes the shelf adorns;
Two rusty pen-knives for to saw your corns;
One rag of calico in musty folds:
A stick of liquorice-ball for coughs and colds;
And one half keg of brandy, glorious cheer,
Arrives from Philadelphia once a year.
What boundless wealth! What can they wish for more
Who such a tavern meet, and such a store?
To crown the whole--defiled from ear to ear:
Behold the majesty of clouts appear!
The ragged lord of all this costly scene,
Whose hands and face old Ocean scarce could clean:

Whose sun-burnt legs and arms and shoulders bore
What once was coat and trousers—such no more!
But shapeless fragments, gashed with holes profound,
And rag-formed fringes dangling all around.
Bent o'er a tub that once tobacco knew,
And still from whence the dear effluvia flew,
Pat grumbling stood; and while he eager viewed
Each nook and seam, the scanty gleanings chewed;
His busy mouth such savory jaws exprest,
That scarce our stifled laughter we supprest.
On this foul mass of misery as we gazed
The man of rags his brandy loudly praised;
Leech sought the door, disgusted with the scene,
And Duncan followed, grasping hard his cane;
Our bard, alone, with pleasure in his face,
Silent surveyed the wonders of the place,
In whose vile groups he but a picture saw,
That all might marvel at, but few could draw.
Tho long and rough the road before us rose,
And toil and evening urged us to repose,
Yet were the forest glooms at once preferred
To this vile Hottentot's most beastly herd.
So thence up towering steeps again we scale,
And traed the depths of many a darksome vale;
While oft some oak's huge antiquated form,
That thru long ages has defied the storm;
Whose hollow trunks had lodged the skulking bear,
While owls and possums found concealment there,
Rose like the ruins of some revered pile
While moss and lichens its hoar arms defile—
Great in distress it mouldering drops away,
Time's mournful monitor of life's decay

[WYALUSING]

Night's shades at last descended,—the stars appear,— Dull barking dogs proclaim the village near;
Soon Wyalusing round us we survey,
And finished here the labors of the day.
The inn was silent, not a mortal there,
Before the fire each plants his crazy chair,
When slow down-stairs a cautious step was heard,
And Job, the landlord, soberly appeared;
Begged our excuse, bewailed his luckless lot
Wife in the straw and everything forgot;
So finding honest Job so hard bestead,
We skinned our squirrels, supped, and went to bed.

[REV. DAVID CRAFT STATES HE WAS UNABLE TO IDENTIFY ANY JOB WHO WAS AN INN-KEEPER AT WYALUSING AT THIS TIME, AND ADDS THAT POSSIBLY THE NAME WAS FICTITIOUS, BUT THE CHARACTER WAS REAL].

The morning dawned, again we took the road,
Each musket shouldered o'er the lightened load,
Thru Wyalusing's plains we gayly pass,
'Midst matted fields of rank, luxuriant grass,
Here Nature bounteous to excess has been,
Yet loitering hunters scarce a living glean.
Blest with a soil that e'en in winter gray
Would all their toils a hundred-fold repay,
Few cultured fields of yellow grain appear,
Rich, fenceless pastures rot unheeded here.
Huge, from the vale, the towering walnuts grow,
And wave o'er wretched huts that lie below:
No blossoming orchards scent the opening May,
No bleating flocks upon their pastures play,
The wolves, say they, would soon our flocks destroy,
And planting orchards is a poor employ.
The hungry traveler dining on this plain
May ask for fowls and wish for eggs in vain:
And while he dines upon a flitch of bear,
To wolves and foxes leave more gentle fare.

[LIME HILL BATTLEGROUND].

Now down the hoary woods we scour along,
Rousing the echoes with our jovial song,
Thru paths where late the skulking Indian trod,
Smeared with the infant's and the mother's blood,
Their haunts no more: far to the setting day,
In western woods, their prowling parties stray,
Where vast Superior laves his drifted shores,
Or loud Niagara's thundering torrent roars.

[FRENCHTOWN].

Gaul's exiled royalists, a pensive train,
Here raise the hut and clear the rough domain,
The way-worn pilgrim to their fires receive,
Supply his wants, but at his tidings grieve:
Afflicting news! forever on the wing,
A ruined country, and a murdered king!
Peace to their lone retreats while sheltered here,
May these deep shades to them be doubly dear;
And Power's proud worshipers, wherever placed,
Who saw such grandeur ruined and defaced,
By deeds of virtue to themselves secure
Those inborn joys that, spite of kings, endure,
Tho thrones and states from their foundations part,
The precious balsam of a wounded heart.

[RED ROCKS, WYSOX].

All day up winding solitudes we passed,
Steep hung o'er steep, as if at random cast,
Thru every opening towering groups were seen

Piled to the clouds with horrid gulfs between.
Thus (as the bard of old creation sings,
'Mongst other marvelous scenes and mighty things,,
When squabbling angels raised in heaven a rout,
And hills, uprooted, flew like hail about,
Thus looked, in these tremendous days of yore,
Their field of battle when the fight was o'er.
Impending cliffs, with ruined woods o'er grown,
And mountains headlong over mountains thrown.
One vast preeminent ascent we scaled,
And high at last its level summit hailed;
There as we trod along, fatigued and slow,
Thru parting woods the clouds appeared below,
And lo! at once before our ravished view,
A scene appeared, astonishing and new;
Close on the brink of an abyss we stood,
Concealed till now by the impending wood,
Below, at dreadful depth, the river lay,
Shrunk to a brook, midst little fields of hay;
From right to left, where'er the prospect led,
The reddening forests like a carpet spread,
Beyond, immense, to the horizon's close,
Huge amphitheatres of mountains rose.
Charmed with the spot, our knapsacks we resigned,
And here, like gods, in airy regions dined.
Like gods of old, the cordial cup we quaffed
Sung songs of liberty, and joked and laughed,
Huzzah'd aloud, then listened from on high,
In haply slumbering Echo might reply.
A long, dead pause ensued,--at once the sound,
In tenfold shouts, from distant hills rebound.
Not Polyphemus' self e'er louder roared,
When burning goads his monstrous visage gored.
Huzza! Huzza! the echoing mountains cry;
Huzza! Huzza! more distant hills reply:
And still more distant, till the faint huzza,
In lessening shouts, successive died away.
Surprised, astonished, heedless of our meal,
We seized our muskets for a louder peal,
Filled their dark bowels with the glistening grain,
And, facing, pointed to the extended scene:
Then at the word their fiery thunders poured,
That thru the wide expanse impetuous roared.
Deep silence hung--the loud returning roar
From bellowing mountains thunders o'er and o'er:
Peal after peal successive bursts away,
And rolls tremendous o'er the face of day;
From hill to hill the loud responses fly,

And in the vast horizon, lessening, die.
Thus from Olympus, o'er a prostrate world,
The fabled Jove his bolts imperious hurled;
Earth heard and echoed back the peals profound,
And heaven's exalted regions shook around.
With deep reluctance, ne'er to be forgot,
And many a lingering look, we left the spot,
Since called Olympus,—worthier of the name
Than that so blazened by the trump of fame.
Ye souls whom nature's glorious works delight,
Who chance to pass o'er this stupendous height,
Here turn aside; and if serene the day,
This cliff sublime will all your toil repay;
Here regions wide your ravished eye will meet;
Hills, rivers, forests, lying at your feet:
Here to Columbia make your muskets roar,
While heaven's artillery thunders back encore.

[DR. WILSON NOTES THAT THIS ECHO MAY BE CONSIDERED AS ONE OF THE GREATEST CURIOSITIES OF THIS PART OF THE COUNTRY. AFTER MORE THAN A QUARTER OF A MINUTE HAD ELAPSED THE SOUND WAS REVERBERATED WITH ASTONISHING INCREASE AT LEAST TEN SUCCESSIVE TIMES, EACH TIME MORE AND MORE REMOTE, TILL AT LAST IT SEEMED TO PROCEED FROM AN IMMENSE DISTANCE. THE WORDS WERE DISTINCTLY ARTICULATED, AS IF GIANTS WERE CALLING TO ONE ANOTHER FROM MOUNTAIN TO MOUNTAIN. WHEN OUR GUNS WERE DISCHARGED AT ONCE, THE EFFECT WAS STILL MORE ASTONISHING, AND I SCARCELY BELIEVE THAT A SUCCESSION OF BROADSIDES FROM A TRAIN OF SEVENTY-FOURS, AT LIKE DISTANCES, IN ANY OTHER PLACE, WOULD HAVE EQUALED IT. THE STATE OF THE ATMOSPHERE WAS VERY FAVORABLE, AND THE REPORT ROARED ALONG THE CLOUDS IN ONE CONTINUOUS PEAL].

[BREAKNECK].

'Twas now dull twilight; trudging on we keep
Where giddy Breakneck nods above the steep,
And down the darkening forest slowly steer
Where woods, receding, show a dwelling near.

[JUDGE GORE'S].

A painted frame, tall barracks filled with hay,
Clean whitewashed railings raised along the way:
Young poplars, mixed with weeping willow green,
Rose o'er the gate, and fringed the walk within.
An air of neatness, gracing all around,
Bespoke that courtesy we so quickly found;
The aged judge, in grave apparel dressed,
To cushioned chairs invites each weary guest;
O'er the rich carpet bids the table rise,
With all the sweets that India's clime supplies,
And supper served with elegance; the glass
In sober circuit was allowed to pass.
The reverent sire, with sons and grandsons round,
Ruddy as health, by summer suns embrowned,

Inquires our road and news with modest mien;
Tells of the countries he himself has seen,
His Indian battles, midnight ambuscades,
Wounds and captivity in forest glades;
And with such winning, interesting store
Of wildwood tales and literary lore,
Beguiled the evening and engaged each heart,
That, tho sleep summoned, we were loth to part;
And e'en in bed reposed, the listening ear
Seemed still the accents of the sage to hear.

[SHESHEQUIN].

The morning came; ye gods! how quickly hies
To weary folks the hour when they must rise!
Groping around, we fix our various load,
And full equipt forth issued to the road.
Inured to toil, the woods slide swiftly past,
O'er many an opening farm our eyes we cast;
Here rich, flat meadows most luxuriant lie,
Some gleaming orchards gladly we espy;
Full-loaded peach-trees, drooping, hung around,
Their mellow fruit thick scattered o'er the ground.
Six cents procured us a sufficient store,
Our napkins crammed, and pockets running o'er;
Delicious fare,—nor did we prize them less
Than Jews did manna in the wilderness.

[TIOGA POINT; ATHENS].

Still journeying on, the river's brink we keep,
And pass the Narrows' high and dangerous steep,
That to the clouds like towering Atlas soars,
While deep below the parted river roars.
Beyond its eastern stream, on level lands,
There Athens (once Tioga) stands.
Unlike that Athens known in days of old,
Where learning found more worshipers than gold,
Here waste, unfinished, their sole school-house lies,
While pompous taverns all around us rise.
Now to the left the ranging mountains bend,
And level plains before us wide extend;

[SPANISH HILL].

Where, rising lone, old Spanish Hill appears,
The post of war in ancient, unknown years.
Its steep and rounding sides with woods embrowned,
Its level top with old entrenchments crowned;
Five hundred paces thrice we measured o'er,
E'en all their circling boundries we explore:
Now overgrown with woods alone it stands,
And looks abroad o'er open, fertile lands.
Here on the works we ruminating lay,

622

Till sudden darkness muffled up the day:
The threat'ning storm soon drove us to the plain,
And on we wandered thru the hills again.

[SENECA LAKE]

Now all is lost! The sacrilege is spread!
And plows profane the mansion of the dead!
Here grapes delicious, clustering, hung around,
The mother vines thru bending birches wound;
Not richer ripen on Vesuvius' side
Than here spontaneous nodded o'er the tide.

[CAYUGA LAKE].

By bawling calves and jumbling bells awoke;
We start amazed to see the morning broke,
Such blest oblivion balmy sleep bestows
Where toil-worn Industry and Peace repose.
Geese, turkeys, ducks, a noisy, numerous brood,
Mingld their gabblings with the echoing wood,
Thru whose tall pillard trees, extending blue,
The Lake Cayuga caught our ravished view.
Soon on its oak-crowned banks we stood,
And viewed, from right to left, its lengthened flood,
Of vast extent, pure, glassy and serene,
Th' adjacent shores and skirting huts were seen.
The eye could mark the whitened frames, the ear
Faint sound of barking dogs remotely hear.

[CAYUGA SALTWORKS].

Here from the shore low marshes wide expand,
Where bare and bleak the little salt-works stand.
There numerous pits their briny treasures yield,
And pumps and tunnels checker all the field;
Whether old Neptune these blest springs supplies,
Or deep below the massy substance lies,
Let idlers guess; while nobler souls reverd
The all providing Power who raised them here.

[DR. WILSON NOTES THAT THIS SALINE IS ABOUT EIGHT MILES FROM THE OUTLET. THE WELLS ARE FROM FIFTEEN TO TWENTY FEET DEEP, AND THE WATER IS MUCH STRONGER THAN THAT OF THE OCEAN. THE PROPRIETOR INFORMED ME THAT HE MADE ABOUT THIRTY-FIVE BUSHELS DAILY].

Salt-mining is still a thriving industry in the Cayuga-Seneca area of central New York State after the lapse of over a century and a half since Dr. Wilson's visit.

Here end our quotations from this interesting old Historical Poem. In the interest of antiquary lore, perhaps the entire script should have been repeated.

DCLXIV.

STOWE.

or STOW. A fixed place or mansion; a town, a garrison.

STOW, not Stucoe, was the family name of Johan, wife of Rev. John Boyse of Halifax, Yorkshire, Eng., and mother of the wife of Rev. Peter Prudden of New Haven and Milford, Conn., 1638.

JOHN STOWE was an innkeeper at Biddenden. His wife was JOAN BAKER. Her will was dated Apr. 30, 1616, and in it she bequeathes 10s. to her dau. Joane, and 10s. more to the latter's dau. Mary, unfortunately, without giving their family names. Joane was their eldest dau. (Cf. Boyse Fam. in Vol. II, p. 51; & Prudden Fam. in same Vol. p. 101).

*1. Joan, bp. Aug. 7, 1575, m. Rev. John Boyse of Halifax, Yorkshire, Eng. (No. 1, Boyse Fam.).
2. John, bp. Jan. 14, 1581/2, at Biddenden, m. Elizabeth Bigge there, Sept. 13, 1608, & migrated from that place to New England in 1634, settling at Roxbury, Mass., where he d. Oct. 26, 1643. They had nine children.

SUTTON.

I.

The name Sutton means, the south town. It is the name of a town in Devonshire, England.

Some of the earliest arrivals on our shores include the following emigrants.

BARTHOLOMEW SUTTON was at Boston, Mass., in 1667.

DANIEL SUTTON was also a resident there at the same time.

GEORGE SUTTON, married, was at Scituate, Mass., in 1641.

JOHN SUTTON came from Attleburg, co. Norfolk, England, to Hingham, Mass., as early as 1638. This is about the earliest reference to the name in that area.

LAMBERT SUTTON was a freeman at Woburn, Mass., in 1644. Previous to this he had been at Charlestown, Mass. He d. Nov. 27, 1649.

RICHARD SUTTON was at Andover, Mass., in 1664.

RICHARD SUTTON was a householder at Charlestown, Mass., in 1677.

SIMON SUTTON was residing at Scituate, Mass., in 1647.

WILLIAM SUTTON, married, was at Eastham, Mass., in 1666.

II. Albert Sutton.

ALBERT SUTTON, b. Sept. 1, 1914, m. MARY SWAN, b. Jan. 5, 1916, only child of Lee and Stella (Bills) Swan of Lawrenceville, Pa.

1. Lee Ray, b. June 3, 1938.

DLXXXV.

III. John F. Sutton.

JOHN F. SUTTON has a home at 311 North Main St., Towanda, Pa., where he moved during the 1950's. His wife is on the teaching staff of the Towanda public schools. They have several children.

1. Robert, m. a Meredith of Towanda. They went to Arizona for a time around 1960, but have since returned to Towanda.
2. John.

DLXXXVI.

IV. Levi R. Sutton

LEVI R. SUTTON and his wife KATHARINE KYLE were the first settlers west of the Huron river in Peru, O. From April 1817 to Oct. 1818 they enjoyed all the rights of squatter sovereignty when the owner of their little home came in the person of James Van Tine. A bargain was made by wyich Mr. Sutton paid for his land in labor, cutting cord wood and splitting rails, a usual way of paying debts in early times when money was scarce. An infant son dying Nov. 20, 1820, was the first death in the township. Twice the bears carried off their only pig; three times their single cow died of murrain, and then a neighbor kindly offered to sell them one "so ugly she could not die," which was accepted.

One morning Mrs. Sutton found her larder empty. She took her ax and, going up the river a few rods where a bee tree stood, felled it, took out some honey and, returning to the house, parched the little corn left in the planting bag from the spring's planting, and the family made their breakfast on parched corn and honey. Like other pioneers her hands and those of her five daughters, all of whom early learned the value of useful fingers, prepared, spun and wove both flax and wool into cloth for the weddings and clothing for the entire family. The thread used in sewing and the yarn for stockings was of home manufacture. Even the quilts and comforters were filled with home-carded tow or wool in many homes. The log house gave place to a frame one in 1826, which later became the home of the third daughter Betsey, who never knew any other and was never away from this home six consecutive weeks in her life.

1. Maria, m. Richard Gardner; eldest dau., came with par. in Apr. 1817 & always lived in Pa.
2. Jacob; came to Penn with parents
3. Betsey; third dau.; lived on the homestead.
4. Infant Son; d. Nov. 1820; first death in the Twp.

V. Nathan Sutton

NATHAN SUTTON was born in Connecticut, and was one of the first settlers of Beechwood, Pike Co., Pa., where he cleared a farm and made a comfortable home for himself and his family of five children, two sons and three daus., all of whom lived and died in Pike county except Joseph R.

1. Joseph R., m. Anna Purdy.

JOSEPH R. SUTTON (No. 1) son of Nathan, was born on the old home place in Beechwood, and lived there until the time of the Civil war, when he moved to Equinunk, Wayne Co., Pa., where he died not long afterwards. He m. ANNA PURDY, who passed away July 2, 1851 in Pike county, leaving two sons. The Purdy family were originally horsemen and went to England with William the Conqueror, settling in Essex near the town of Rye. The German branch of the family adopted the spelling Perty, the French branch Pardee, and the English Purcy. In 1656 three brothers emigrated to America and settled near Burlington, Vt. Before the Revolution some migrated to Westchester Co., N.Y., naming their new home Rye after the ancestral home in England. From here they crossed the State line into Fairfield Co., Conn., at which place originated ated Rev. William Purdy, grandfather of Mrs. Sutton, who located in Paupack Twp., Wayne Co., Pa., giving the name to Purdyville. Mrs. Sutton was the eldest child of Solomon and Mynis (Nicholson) Purdy of Purdyville. She was b. Apr. 10, 1804. Mr Sutton d. Jan. 13, 1863.

1. Colborn, b. 1825, m. Susan Beers of South Canaan, Wayne Co. He was b. on the old homestead in Pike Co., where he was reared to manhood and received his education in the neighboring public schools. After his mge they resided in Lake Twp. where he followed farming & lumbering until the time of his death, Feb. 9, 1888. His wife survived him a number of years. There were no children.

2. William, b. 1837, m. Cemira D. Gleason

WILLIAM SUTTON (No. 12) son of Joseph R. and Anna (Purdy) Sutton, was b. in 1837 in Paupack, Pa., and spent his early life on his father's farm in Pike county, where he was early initiated into the mysteries of agriculture and received a practical common school education. He engaged in lumbering on the Delaware river in addition to farming until his enlistment in Sept. 1862 in Co. B, 151st. Pa. Vol. Inf. under Capt. O. H. Mott of Milford, which regiment was sent to Bull Run where they did picket duty the following winter. In the spring of 1863 they were transferred to Alexandria, and thence to Belle Plaine, where they remained two weeks. Their next move was to Fredericksburg, where they took an active part in the engagement victorious to the Union forces, and from there they marched to Chancellorsville, where they held the left wing of Hooker's army for five days. Driven across the Rappahannock at Kellys Ford, they went into camp there two weeks, after which Hooker's entire army moved on to Gettysburg, and they marched for 22 days in succession, reaching the battleground on July 1, when the conflict opened with Gen. Mead in command. The term of service of the 151st. had expired, but they remained until after the engagement, when they were ordered to Harrisburg to be mustered out. History tells of the terrible loss of life in that hard-fought battle, and Co. B, to which Mr. Sutton belonged, went in with 79 men, of whom only 17 answered the next roll call. Mr. Sutton was honorably discharged July 27, 1863, and returned to his home in Pike county, remaining there until the following May, when he came to Wayne county. Until 1875 he was engaged in sawmill work here, when he purchased the Chauncey C. Demming farm, paying $6000 for the tract, which comprised 109 acres of fine land. During his residence the place was constantly undergoing improvements and changes, and it was one of the most fertile and profitable farms in the township, made so by Mr. Sutton's persevering energy and good judgment. His home and surroundings were comfortable and pleasant in every way, and he was highly respected for the success he made in life, all the more deserved as he began with no capital but his own industry and determination. In addition to general farming he engaged to some extent in stock raising and dealing.

On Nov. 4, 1875 he m. CEMIRA D. GLEASON, b. Apr. 22, 1847, dau. of Lyman and Lepha S. (Brooks) Gleason, the former a native of Coventry, N.Y., as was his father Joseph also, and who came from Chenango Co. to Dyberry, Wayne Co., at an early day, being one of the first settlers in that place. Mr. Sutton was a solid Republican in political faith, but he took no particular part in political or public affairs, tho he served a term as a member of the school board. In religious connection he belonged to the Episcopal Church, his wife to the M.E. denomination. He was a member of Capt. James Ham Post, No. 198, Grand Army of the Republic. He was a typical representative of the thrifty, prosperous farming population of Texas Twp., who placed himself in comfortable circumstances by the labor of his hands, and occupied an honorable position among the respected members of his community by reason of his genuine worth.

VI. Nathaniel Sutton.

NATHANIEL SUTTON lived in New York State. His dau. was:

1. Delilah, m. Philip Davis. She was b. in New York State & after mge. lived in Wayne Co.

VII. Samuel Sutton.

SAMUEL SUTTON was born, reared and married in Vermont. He migrated to Pennsylvania, first stopping for a time in Wyoming county, and then moved to Susquehanna county, traveling on horseback thru the woods, there being no roads at the time. He located in Springville Twp. when it was almost an unbroken wilderness. He purchased a tract of land, but had to go in debt for it, and it was not free from this incumbrance until after his son Samuel came into possession of the place in later years. Samuel the elder's son was:

*1. Samuel, b. 1791, m. Betsy Tuttle

SAMUEL SUTTON (No. 1) son of Samuel, was b. in Vermont in 1791. He was brought to Pennsylvania by his parents, who first located in Wyoming county and then settled at Springville in Susquehanna county. In later years he took over the farm on which his father had settled and finished paying for it, following farming thruout life. He was always a supporter of the Democratic party, and both he and his wife were earnest members of the M.E. Church. He m. in Springville Twp., BETSY TUTTLE, b. in 1797, dau. of Ezra and Rebecca (Thomas) Tuttle of Springville, and a direct descendant of the first William Tuttle of New Haven, Conn. Ezra left Vermont in Feb. 1801, arriving at Springville the following month. Mr. Sutton d. in 1875, aged 84 yrs. His wife, b. in 1797, d. in 1885, ae. 88 yrs. 5 mos. and 5 das.

4. Julia Ann, m. John Johnson of Lathrop Twp.
*5. S.E., b. Oct. 8, 1826, m. Samantha Emily Lathrop.
6. Sabrina, m. LaFayette Rosengrant of Springville.
7. Eliza, m. William Tiffany of Wyoming Co.

S.E. SUTTON (No.15) son of Samuel and Betsy (Tuttle) Sutton was b. Oct. 8, 1826 in Springville Twp. He received a common school education and remained at home until his marriage, at the age of 28, to SAMANTHA EMILY LATHROP, who was b. in 1839, and d. Apr. 2, 1894. Prior to his marriage he purchased 86 acres of land in Springville Twp., most of which was wild. But he soon had 75 acres cleared and under excellent cultivation. Later he bought another tract of 146 acres of partially improved land, but sold it in 1892, and went to make his home with his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ida Sutton, but still retained the first farm. For many years he was one of the most active and enterprising agriculturists in the township. Thruout his active business life he followed general farming and dairying, and due success was not denied him. By his ballot he supported the Democratic party, and he most creditably filled the office of supervisor of his township. He attended and supported the Evangelical Church, of which he was a trustee. His uprightness and integrity won him the confidence and esteem of the neighbors, and he was classified among the most respected citizens of his community. He acquired a comfortable competency which enabled him to lay aside his business cares and enjoy a well-earned rest. THE LATHROP FAMILY TO WHICH MRS. SUTTON BELONGED ORIGINATED AT UNADILLA, N.Y. HER FATHER ELISHA, A NATIVE OF THAT PLACE, M. JEMIMA MACK AND CAME TO SUSQUEHANNA COUNTY, FIRST BEGINNING FARMING IN BROOKLYN TWP. AND LATER GOING TO SPRINGVILLE. THE SUTTONS HAD FOUR CHILDREN.

VIII. William Hosford Sutton.

WILLIAM HOSFORD SUTTON was b. at Red Bank, N.J., Mar. 6, 1888, son of William J. and Martha (Hosford) Sutton. He began his career as an insurance man at an early age in the home office of the Queen Insurance Co. of New York City, and in the fall of 1915 was made special agent, with headquarters at Pittsburgh, Pa. On Jan. 19, 1916 he became a member of the Underwriters Assn. of the Middle Dept., and was honored by his associates with election to membership of its executive committee in Jan. 1921. Following his appointment as general agent he resigned his membership, and was placed on the honorary roll Jan. 19, 1923. His new position necessitated his removal to some place near New York City, as his headquarters were now in the main offices of the company. He rented a beautiful home in Upper Montclair, N.J., which was the parsonage of the Dutch Reformed Church of that place. The premises afforded a spacious lawn, with beautiful trees, shrubbery, flowers, &c. as well as being on an elevation which commanded a view of the entire New York metropolitan area. It was at 81 Mt. Hebron Road. Thus his home was a place of rest and quiet in the midst of the noise and bustle all about him. It was while residing here that his untimely death occurred on Apr. 23, 1926, just when he was in the prime of his business career.

He had m. Oct. 21, 1910, HELEN PAULINE ARMSTRONG, b. Feb. 20, 1889, dau. of Dr. Addison Alexander and Harriet Woodward (Coolbaugh) Armstrong of Fair Haven, N.J. (Vide Coolbaugh Family In America, p. 26). She graduated from Calhoun Chamberlain school of Montgomery, Ala., in May, 1905. During her earlier years she spent much time in the study of the piano, and became an accomplished musician. After the death of her husband Mrs. Sutton and her mother, who had made her home with them in Pittsburgh as well as at Montclair, and her young daughter, removed to East Orange, N.J., where she became a teacher in a private school. She was a lady of rare Christian character and talents. She was a member of the Christian & Missionary Alliance Church of Newark, N.J., serving the congregation as pianist and as a teacher in the Sabbath school. Then she took a course in missions in the school of that denomination, the Missionary Training Institute at Nyack, N.Y. Upon graduation she took up her residence at Harrisburg, Pa., for a time, and then went to Chicago, Ill., in order that she might be near her daughter, who was in school there. She passed away at Chicago in Mar. 1963, with burial beside her husband at Red Bank, N.J.

1. Helen Armstrong, b. Aug. 3, 1915, grad. from East Orange, N.J., high school in June 1933, and then went to Wheaton, Ill., College, following which she trained for nursing in Chicago. She inherited a quiet disposition from her father, and had very beautiful blue eyes. She has since married.

REV. C. ROBERT SUTTON was pastor of Christ Church Episcopal, Towanda, Pa., and lived in the rectory at 11 Mix Ave. for several years during the 1950's. He resigned and moved away about 1960.

CHARLES SUTTON, perhaps a brother of Robert who was in the same area at the same time, was a settler in Warren Twp., Bradford Co., Pa., in 1807.

MRS. GLENN SUTTON res. 102 Elsbree St., Sayre, Pa. (1957).

ISAAC SUTTON m. in June 1814 in Terrytown, Brad. Co., Pa., by Justice Jonathan Terry, to Hannah Quick, dau. of James and Hannah (Phelps) Quick of Wilmot Twp., Brad. Co., Pa.

ISAAC W. SUTTON of New Jersey m. Phebe Utt, b. 1841, dau. of Adam and Sarah (Mills) Utt of Mountain Home, Monroe Co., Pa., and they located in Barrett Twp., Monroe Co., where Mr. Sutton and his three children died.

LORANA SUTTON m. James Mitchell of Greenwich, Huron Co., Ohio. She was a woman's nurse, and in her arms many of the children of the early settlers first saw the light. Called from her bed many a night, she would start out all alone thru the woods, wading small streams, with only the light of a torch to guide her on her errand of mercy.

MR. SUTTON m. Laura Slater, dau. of A.N. and Helen (Barber) Slater of Richmond, Ashtabula Co., Ohio, and lived in Ashtabula.

MRS. SUTTON belonged to one of the families who settled in the southern part of Lyme, Huron Co., Ohio in 1814. She d. in Aug. 1875.

ROBERT SUTTON was a settler in Warren Twp., Brad. Co., Pa., in 1807. Charles Sutton, perhaps a brother, was here about the same time. May Sutton joined the Orwell and Warren Presbyterian Church by letter Jan. 22, 1820. She may have been the wife of Robert. The latter joined May 20, 1821, and he was one of those who went with the Warren group in Apr. 1828, when it was deemed advisable to divide the congregation into two organizations, one in Warren and the other in Orwell. A gravestone in the North Warren cemetery is inscribed, "TO THE MEMORY OF MARY, WIFE OF ROBERT SUTTON, WHO DEPARTED THIS LIFE JUNE 24, 1826, AGED 36 YEARS." Robert remained in the area until 1830, when he sold to Parley Coburn.

ROBERT SUTTON d. Feb. 26, 1862 at Waverly, N.Y., aged 69. He could have been identical with the preceding.

SAMUEL SUTTON joined Wilkes-Barre Lodge, FAM, Apr. 9, 1857.

STANLEY SUTTON res. Canton, Pa., RD 1; 1957.

THOMAS SUTTON, farmer, 8 acres, resided on road 31, Canton Twp., Brad. Co., Pa.; 1900.

WAYNE SUTTON res. East Herrick, Brad. Co., Pa.; 1964. They have a dau.

OF TERRY TOWNSHIP.

THIS century-old map of Terry Twp., Bradford Co., Pa., is taken from Beers' Atlas of Bradford County, published in 1869. It has been specially reproduced for This Work to accompany the article on Terry & Her People because it shows the true location of the famous Queen's House that was being built for the reception of Queen Marie Antoinette and King Louis XVI or Louis Philippe of France at the time of the French Revolution, 1789-95. In the wilds of West Terry between New Era and Baillets Pond, Nearby will also be seen the site of the Old French Bakery. Vide Text for full explanation.

MORE ABOUT THE PSEUDO QUEEN'S HOUSE.

FOR the further enlightenment of those who may have been mislead by the avalanche of propaganda released from-time-to-time regarding the alleged "Queen's House" at Frenchtown, we add the following memoranda regarding the "LaPorte House," more recently known as the "Hagerman House."

THE Mansion consists of fourteen rooms, and was commenced by Judge John LaPorte in 1836, according to the date on the cornerstone, and completed in 1839. It was purchased by Francis H. Hageman, or Hagerman as it is now written, a native of New Jersey, who came to Frenchtown from Northampton Co., Pa., in 1871. In 1969 the Hagermans sold the place to the State of Pennsylvania as a historical shrine, it having been in the family just two months short of the century mark.

DCLXXVII.

TERRY & HER PEOPLE.

The Terrytown Cemetery is located on Pennsylvania Route 187 along the river by the Church in Terry Twp. It is the final resting-place for the pioneers of the whole township, and is still a popular burial-ground, and is well-kept up by the lot-holders. CRAWFORD, Benjamin, d. July 27, 1804, & WAS BUR. AT TERRYTOWN IN THE OLD BURYING-GROUND, PROB. ON THE DODGE PLACE, NOW GEORGE MOSIER. REV. DAVID CRAFT RECOUNTS THE FOLLOWING: BENJAMIN CRAWFORD LIVED ON THE JABEZ CHAMBERLAIN PLACE [at the lower end of Homets Ferry]. HE CAME FROM DARBY TO WYOMING IN 1785, MOVED TO WYALUSING IN 1789 & LIVED IN A LOG HOUSE NEAR THE RAILROAD CUT. THEY HAD RAISED A GOOD CROP OF CORN & POTATOES ON THE ISLAND OPPOSITE. THEY HAD HARVESTED THEIR CORN & STORED IT IN THE HOUSE, & DUG ALL BUT ABOUT 5 BUS. OF THEIR POTATOES, & HAD GONE OVER AFTER THEM, WHEN THEY DISCOVERED THEIR HOUSE TO BE ON FIRE, WHICH WAS BURNDD WITH ALL ITS CONTENTS. IN 1793 HE MOVED ON THE JABEZ CHAMBERLAIN PLACE, & BUILT A LOG HOUSE. IN THE NEXT SPRING, WHILE CHOPPING, THE LIMB OF A TREE FELL ON HIM, & BROKE HIS LEG, & HIS FAMILY WERE COMPELLED TO GO A MILE TO OBTAIN HELP TO CARRY HIM INTO THE HOUSE. MR. CRAWFORD DIED HERE JULY 27, 1804, & WAS BURIED IN THE OLD BURYING-GROUND AT TERRYTOWN. HIS SON THUS DESCRIBES THE FUNERAL SERVICE: "On the day of the funeral they took the corpse over the river, in a canoe, to the flat below Maj. Dodge's house, where a couple of large maple-trees were standing near together. Here they arranged for the funeral service. Uriah Terry read a sermon & Parshall Terry made a prayer & then they buried him." THE CRAWFORD FAMILY SUBSEQUENTLY SOLD OUT & WENT TO GENESEE." [DCLXXVIII].

DCLXXIX.

TERRY TOWNSHIP.

Terry lies in the southern sector of Bradford county. The Susquehanna makes one of her majestic sweeps along the east side, separating it from Wyalusing. Wilmot is along the southern border of the county below Terry, and Albany Twp. to the southwest. Asylum Twp. rests along the entire northwest line. West of the township, but more particularly west of Asylum Twp., stretches lofty "ROB WOOD MOUNTAIN," completely cutting off the area from the South Branch watershed. But the western part of Terry lies to the south of this natural barrier. Much of the top of the mountain is a broad tableland, once largely cultivated, and there was even a neighborhood school in the area. But now once again it has returned to Government forest and game lands. It was in the hinterlands of West Terry that the French refugees who fled their homeland to escape the vengdance of the guillotine, erected their sanctuary for the secretion of King Louis Philippe and Queen Marie Antoinette of France, at the time of the French Revolution in the 1790's.

THE QUEEN'S HOUSE—TRUE LOCATION—THE AZILUM HOAX.

It should be re-emphasized at this place that here, in the wilds of West Terry, near the southward reach of Rob Wood Mountain, by Baillet's Pond, was TRUE AZILUM, and not in Frenchtown, as many would-be promoters of their own commercial interests, would have us believe. So much misleading and deliberately false propaganda has been foisted upon an uninformed and unsuspecting public, that This Editor is constrained to lay his neck under the guillotine, as it were, in a feeble attempt to get the truth thru to as many as possible. Promoters of the "AZILUM MYTH" have erected a "GATE HOUSE" for the diffusion of their propaganda at Frenchtown, where the French did, indeed, have one of their settlements, as well as at Dushore, in Sullivan county, and elsewhere in other parts of the country. But as soon as the Revolution was over, all the NOBILITE FRANCAIS, scampered back to the luxury, debauchery and idolotry of GAI PAREE, except two or three families. Had they remained in this country, and made a substantial contribution to its development by subduing the wilderness, as did their Yankee and Palatine contemporaries, perhaps there might be some grounds for all this To-Do. In the words of the famous English playwright of the early seventeenth century, it is a case of "MUCH ADO ABOUT NOTHING." Allusion to this has already been made in a previous article of This Series, (CF. HOMET FAM., VOL. III, P. 3). But the late Clement F. Heverly, in his more recent "HISTORY AND GEOGRAPHY OF BRADFORD COUNTY (1926), (P. 321), is still more articulate in his description of Terry Twp. He says— and we quote in full:

WEST TERRY—A settlement was begun (1794) by the French in West Terry, where two spacious houses were erected for the reception of the king and queen of France, a large bakery constructed, and other improvements under way, when news reached Asylum of the death of the king, which put an end to further preparations. Charles Homet, Sr., lived here nearly two years then settled at Frenchtown. Isaac Schoonover settled at this point about 1815." (Vide also under Schoonover Fam. Vol. III, p. 44; also Miller Fam., Vol. III, p. 8. For any serious researchers who may wish to check further into the validity of the above observations, we would commend them to BEERS' ATLAS OF BRADFORD COUNTY, PUB. 1869, P. 50, MAP OF TERRY TWP., SCHOOL DISTRICT 10. The site of the Queen's House & the Old French Bakery, ARE CLEARLY INDICATED, DOWN THE OUTLET FROM BAILLET'S POND. REV. DAVID CRAFT'S HISTORY OF BRADFORD COUNTY, PUB. 1878, PP. 385 & 452; BRADSBY'S HISTORY OF BRADFORD COUNTY, PUB. 1891, PP. 497, 889.)

Certainly nothing could be more explicit than these references. This Editor has no quarrel with the establishment of a Museum or other depository for curios and mementoes accessible to the public. This is a commendable project. But he believes that the True Facts should also be made known. There is an old expression which has been handed down from the past. It goes like this: "THE TRUTH 'S NOT TO BE SPOKEN AT ALL TIMES." "The Truth," about "French Azilum," is apparently one of those "Times!"

Terry Township is somewhat square or rectangular in shape, with northwest and southeast sides a little longer than the other two. Along the river are alluvial bottomlands, with gravelly knolls left by the receding Continental Ice Cap. Further inland are tablelands, small valleys and mountains. Much of the soil in the interior is red shale. Dairy farming is a principal occupation, tho many inhabitants hold shop and factory positions and commute daily from their homes to their places of employment, preferring the quiet and retirement of a country domicile. Many properties here as elsewhere are being bought up by retired city dwellers who come to the rural areas for the summer months, or the hunting and fishing seasons, and then return to the cities, or travel to the sunny south, for the rugged season of the year. Because of its frontage on the river, some of the earliest settlements within the county were made in Terry.

BENJAMIN BUDD build a house here at the upper end of the river valley as early as 1774. He did not return after the Revolution, and his family experienced some of the thrilling episodes of so many frontiersmen at that time. [DCLXXIX].

THE DODGE FAMILY later located on the Budd place, at the dead end of the road up the river from the Church, retaining the place until within comparatively recent times. The area was once called "DODGETOWN," and was then the site of much activity when there was a ford across the river to Homets Ferry. The old Dodge farm is now owned by George Mosier. Altho the name is no longer represented in the community, there are several collateral descendants in the area. Hortense Dodge Bailey still lives in the last place down on the left before you enter the narrows separating Terrytown from Sugar Run. Her house is one of the fine old colonial mansions still standing in the community. Dent Porter, whose mother was Maude Dodge, has a fine farm in lower Terrytown, and his nice old dwelling was only recently destroyed by fire. His brother Frank lives a short distance below the narrows and past the Wyalusing river bridge, just over the line in Wilmot Twp. The family of Glenn Potter also reside in upper Terrytown, with modern farm buildings and spacious colonial mansionhouse. Mrs. Potter is the dau. of Irene Porter Kipp of New Albany, a sister of Dent and Frank Porter. Mrs. Daniel Dodge lives farther down in Wilmot, and across the river we have Miss Orice Dodge and the widow of her brother Emory Dodge, in Wyalusing Boro, as well as Mrs. Chas. Stalford [GRACE DODGE] down on the old road from Wyalusing to Browntown. Mrs. Ralph [IONE] Kissell, who lives on Frenchtown Mountain, between Frenchtown and Terrytown, is the dau. of William Fuller and Samantha Jane Dodge of Camptown. [DCLXXX].

THE TERRY FAMILY, who gave their name to the community, are likewise no longer nominally represented here, and have not been for some years past. They were prominent Revolutionary Patriots, tho Parshall Terry Jr., changed to the British side due to an altercation with an Army officer, and it was he who led the band of Indians and Tories who took his old neighbor Amos York, prisoner at his home near the new Wyalusing high school and the river bridge in Feb. 1778, and who bore terms of capitulation to the beleaguered Patriots in Forty Fort after the ill-starred battle of Wyoming. (Vide Col- bert Diary, in Vol. IV, pp. 29-30 for some more notes on the Terry Fam.) [DCLXXXI].

MAJOR JOHN HORTON was another prominent settler. He was the ancestor of a race of physicians, one of whom, Dr. George F. Horton, published in 1876 his Chronicles Of The Horton Family In America, one of the first systematic genealogies ever produced in this country. While his style of presentation is perhaps a little cumbersome by modern standards, yet it should be borne in mind that his was a pioneer venture, and he did not have the many thousands of precedents to go by as we do today. A later reprint of this fine old piece has been brought out in more recent times, but sad to relate, no improvement in format or index was incorporated into the text. [DCLXXXII].

DR. JABEZ CHAMBERLAIN was another pioneer who has left a highly-cultured posterity in the county. [DCLXXXIII].

NATHANIEL VIALL pioneered in the vicinity of "Viall Hill." His posterity are yet with us, tho not in the town. Mr. Lawrence B. Viall of Towanda, a very fine gentleman, descends from the pioneer thru both parents. (Cf. Ridgway Fam. in Vol. III, p. 18). [DCLXXXIV].

ISAAC SCHOONOVER, as we have seen, lived at the site of the "Queen's House" in West Terry, after the French abandoned the area. His grandson Chester lived on Viall Hill. None of the family are in the town any more. (Cf. Schoonover Fam. in Vol. IV, p. 44).

SAMUEL WELLS is about the only early pioneer who has representatives of the name still in the area. The family gave the name of "Wellstown" also called Rienzi, to an area toward the western part of the township. (Cf. under Wells in Vol. IV). [CCCVI].

When Wyalusing Twp. was first established, it covered all the lower part of the county from an east-and west line passing thru Standing Stone rock. Its lower bound was another parallel line, passing thru the mouth of Meshoppen creek, in what is now Wyoming county. When ASYLUM TWP. was first constituted, it included practically the southwest sector of Bradford county west of the river below Towanda creek. For a few years there was a township named DURELL, that included practically the present Asylum, and Asylum was located in the area that is now Terry and Wilmot, thus having the True Asylum within her bounds. Then by popular request some of the lines were redrawn, and the name Durell Twp. was dropped entirely, and the name Asylum substituted, and the present Terry and Wilmot Twps. came into being.

THE JOHNSON FAMILY [DCLXXXV; Fam. No. XVII] is well represented within the township at present. The progenitors of Revolutionary days were of Oneida extraction, and they and their collaterals now make up a substantial portion of the populace of Terry and Asylum. There were at least six brothers and sisters who came into Asylum Twp. in the early days, as listed below. The rate of proliferation among them has been immense, and the high incidence of endogamous unions has resulted in the production of a well-nigh distinct ethnic strain in their posterity. Extravigant claims as to their background have sometimes been made. It has been asserted that they were connected with Sir William Johnson (1715-1774) a British soldier in charge of Indian affairs in the Mohawk valley in pre-Revolutionary days, and who did, indeed, intermarry with the natives following the death of his wife, one consort having been Molly Brant, sister of Joseph Brant, the Mohawk sachem. Others in the impressive list include Count Frontenac (1620-1698) Governor-General of New France, and leader in dealing with the Indians; the Montours, of whom were Queen Esther of Tioga Point, and Catherine Montour; and others, whose activities were closely associated with the dwellers of the forest. The six who found their way into Asylum in the early days were

1. Nicholas Johnson, came from Kinderhook, N.Y., to Asylum before 1800.
2. Richard Johnson, his brother, followed him into the township.
*3. Elizabeth Johnson, m. Anthony Vanderpool of Kinderhook & came to Asylum. Their posterity is immense in the county, & the Editor believes that it can be stated without equivocation that this is the most numerous single family of one name & blood within the county. RECORDS OF A FEW MEMBERS OF THE FAMILY ARE TO BE FOUND IN THE VANDERPOOL REUNION BOOK IN SECTION III OF THIS SERIES. [CCLXXXIV].
4. Eleanor Johnson, m. Isaac Wheeler of Asylum.
5. Mary Johnson, m. Henry Cornelius & came to Asylum abt. 1800.
6. A Sixth Sister, m. Ambrose Vincent of Asylum.

CHURCHES—There are three Churches within the limits of Terry. At New Era the Methodists have a thriving congregation. At Moxie, as the result of a revival effort a number of years ago, the neighborhood school building was acquired and converted into a Sanctuary where Christians meet regularly every Lord's Day morning and thru the week for the worship of Jehovah and study of the Divine Oracles. This group is an offshoot from the Christian Church at Evergreen, with the same pastor serving both congregations. And then there is a large edifice in Terry village. It was erected about 1852, measures forty by sixty feet, with full basement, and will seat upwards of four hundred souls. It is a "Tabernacle," or Union Meetinghouse, and was erected by the combined efforts of the Methodists, Presbyterians, Old School Baptists and New School Baptists, who agreed among themselves as to hours of worship and occupency. In the earliest days, Baptists in the community were affiliated with the Braintrim Church (Vide Braintrim in Vol. III), and the Presbyterian congregation at Wyalusing, founded in 1793, and to which the Terry family belonged, met alternately at Wyalusing and at Terrytown. Rev. David Craft, compiler of the first History of Bradford County, was once Presbyterian pastor of these Churches. Chester Schoonover, already referred to in connexion with that family, was a member of, and preached for, the Old School Baptists about thirty-five years. One of the pastors of the Methodists was Rev. James Lewis Cole, father of the late Rev. Frank Cole of Herrickville, whose venerable widow is still a resident of that community. The elder Rev. Cole had migrated West, and started preaching in Kansas. He was a descendant of the Revolutionary family of the name referred to in numerous places thruout this Series, who had settled at Macedonia before that Conflict, and to which family Rev. Elisha Cole, contemporary of Rev. William Colbert, belonged (Cf. Colbert Diary in Vol. IV of This Series). Rev. James Lewis Cole was called back home to Macedonia in 1883, due to the serious illness of his father. He spent several years on the home farm, holding Evangelistic meetings at the same time, and was ordained in the Frenchtown Methodist Church. Another charge he had within Bradford county was at Burlington. In more recent times the diverse groups in the Terrytown community united to form one class, and were part of a greater Evergreen-Moxie-Terrytown parish. Then this little country group was overtaken like so many small rural congregations, with the general declension in moral and Spiritual values in the country at large, and no meetings at all were held there for a time. In 1949 Your Editor canvassed the community, resulting in the reopening of the Sanctuary for religious purposes, and the organization of a fine group of young people into a permanent class. This flourished for a number of years, and for some time after he left the field was served by student pastors from the Baptist Bible Seminary at Johnson City, N.Y., who, thru systematic pastoral work, often gathered in large groups of people from the surrounding territory. These released it to the charge of the Independent Baptist Church at Towanda. The pastor and different laymen from this congregation conducted the services there for some time. But about 1960 they abandoned the effort, and since that time the community has once more been without a Gospel Witness.

NORWAY RIDGE—When the white man first came to Terry, much of the uplands was covered with Norway pine. These tall, straight monarchs of the forest imparted their name to "Norway Ridge." Religious services were conducted by the Methodists in the old Norway Ridge schoolhouse until within comparatively recent years.

WEST TERRY and NEW ERA, in the western part of the township, have already been referred to as being where the French intended to establish their refuge for the exiled King and Queen of France.

Terry now forms part of the Wyalusing school system, there no longer being any institutions of learning within her borders.

Mr. Charles Hastings has a small neighborhood general store on the main road between upper and lower "Terrytown-On-The-Susquehanna," as he calls it. One of the old store buildings in lower Terrytown, owned by Mrs. Hortense Bailey, already referred to, was gutted by fire recently, and farther up another similar landmark, near the Church, succumed to a like fate, a short time earlier.

SPRING LAKE is a popular resort for votaries of the grampusorial art. The Terry-Asylum Twp. line passes thru the Lake. Deer abound in the Rob Wood hinterland.

A century ago there were three resident physicians and parsonage with resident pastor for one of the Church groups in the quiet little village of Terrytown.

TOOKER—TUCKER

The names Tucker and Tooker seem to have been used interchangably in colonial times, and families of the different names have the same common origin. The spelling Tucker is much more prevalent.

One English progenitor was Willielmus Tucker of Thornly, Devonshire, 1500.

I. Agnes Tucker.

TUCKER, rather than Talcott, is believed to have been the family name of AGNES, wife, first, of William Spencer of Cambridge, Mass., 1631, and subsequently wife of William Edwards, the ancestor of Rev. Jonathan Edwards. She was b. in England, prob. Devonshire, date unknown, and d. at Hartford, Conn., ca. 1672. Agnes had a brother who was mayor of Exeter, Devonshire, and another brother who was mayor of Barnstaple, Devonshire, according to Dr. Hopkins, who published a biography of Jonathan Edwards in 1765. The only two men who bore the same name, and were mayors of these two cities, any time near this period, were James Tucker, Mayor of Exeter in 1638, and Walter Tucker, Mayor of Barnstaple in 1639. The names of all three, James, Walter and Agnes Tucker, appear on the Barnstaple records. It is likely that Robert Tucker (1604—1682) was another brother. He came to New England in 1635, and settled in Dorchester, Mass. The author of the article from which the above was quoted, after exhaustive research, could not discover a record of the marriage of Agnes, but there are strong indications that her name is here correctly given. For over a century historians and genealogists have been searching for her name. She had three small children when Edwards married her, but William Spencer had left an estate of £231 when he died, one-third of which he had willed outright to his widow, and the other two-thirds to his children. Mr. Spencer was from a family of gentry in England, and was designated as a "gentleman" in 1638. (See article on Spencer in [illegible], II, [illegible] of This Series).

With the possibly exception of Robert Williams of Roxbury, Mass., William Edwards was the ancestor of more clergymen than any other New England settler. Tabulating the above notes, we have the following possible family record:

1. James Tucker, Mayor of Exeter, Eng., in 1638.
2. Walter Tucker, Mayor of Barnstaple, Eng., in 1639.
3. Robert Tucker, b. 1604; came to Dorchester, Mass., in 1635, and d. in 1682.
4. Agnes Tucker, m. William Spencer of Cambridge, Mass., 1631; 2d. William Edwards of Hartford, Conn.

II. John Tooker.

JOHN TOOKER, or Tucker, of Southold, L.I., was b. abt. 1620, and came in 1640 to Hingham, Mass. He removed to Brookhaven, L.I., and d. in 1691 at Setauket, L.I. He m. (1) MARY JOHNSON of Hingham, Eng., and (2) HANNAH (MINER) ELTON. No issue by second marriage. She was the dau. of Barnabas Wines, and wid. of John Elton. Her first husband was Sergt. Francis Nichols of Stratford, Conn.; her second was John Elton; her third was John Tooker, and her fourth was Col. Youngs. John Tucker's will, dated 1688, lists the following children:

CHILDREN BY FIRST MARRIAGE:

*1. Charles, m. Mary Mitchell; 2d. Abigail -----.
2. John
3. Joseph
4. Hannah, m. Richard Smith, son of Richard
5. Ruth, m. Daniel Smith, son of Richard.

CHARLES TOOKER (No. 1) prob. son of John and Mary (Johnson) Tooker, m. (1) MARY MITCHELL, dau. of Matthew Mitchell of Boston, Mass. He was in Cambridge, Watertown and Boston, Mass., before 1650; at Southold, L.I., in 1662, and at Elizabethtown, N.J., in 1669. Charles Tooker, prob. the same individual, made his will Nov. 1, 1737, proved July 27, 1738; had wife ABIGAIL, and d. abt. 1738.

*1. Charles, b. 1712, m. Hannah Smith
2. Reuben
3. Ruth
4. Joseph
5. Philip
6. John
7. Abigail
8. Mary

CHARLES TOOKER (No. 11) prob. son of Charles and Abigail, was b. 1712, at Huntington, L.I., m. 1738, HANNAH SMITH, and d. 1785, at Newburgh, N.Y. He removed from Brookhaven, L.I., in 1764 to Danskammer Point on the Hudson. He was a signer of the Revolutionary Pledge. In 1775 he served in a Cornwall regiment of militia, and in 1779 in Capt. Arthur Smith's company of exempts.

11.

1. Reuben, m. Martha Fowler
*2. Daniel, b. Oct. 8, 1764, m. Alathea -----
3. Mary, m. Benjamin Birdsall
4. Hannah, m. Gen. Leonard Smith
5. Martha, m. Isaac Fowler, Jr.
6. Ruth, m. Gen. Nathaniel Dubois.

DANIEL TOOKER (No. 112) son of Charles and Hannah (Smith) Tooker, was b. Oct. 8, 1764. He m. ALATHEA ———. Mr. Harry F. Johnson of Buffalo, N.Y., who has done considerable work on the Tooker family, is of the opinion that Jonas Tooker of Ludlowville, N.Y., was a son of Daniel.

112.

1. James, b. Mar. 21, 1793, m. Martha Hawkins, Jan. 22, 1820.

III. Jonah Tooker.

———— TOOKER was head of the following family. In the will of Mehitable Smith of Brookhaven, L.I., dated Jan. 6, 1785, proved Oct. 28, 1785, she mentions her brother Jonah Tooker and his dau. Mehitable Tooker, and sisters Mary and Dinah.

1. Mehitable, m. ----- Smith of Brookhaven, L.I.
*2. Jonah
3. Mary
4. Dinah

JONAH TOOKER (No. 2) with his dau. Mehitable is mentioned as her brother in the will of Mehitable Smith of Brookhaven, L.I., dated Jan. 6, 1785. There was a Jonah Tooker at Cornwall, Orange Co., N.Y., in 1780, who could have been the same individual, and perhaps this was Jonah afterwards of Ludlowville, N.Y.

1. Mehitable; mentioned as dau. of her bro. Jonah Tooker in will of Mehitable Smith of Brookhaven, L.I., 1785.

IV. Jonah Tooker.

JAMES TOOKER m. MARY -----, who was b. in 1741, and d. Apr. 14, 1817, and is bur. on the farm where Jonah Tooker settled near Ludlowville, N.Y. Of this burial place, Mrs. E.V. Nobles of Ludlowville writes to Your Editor, "Jonah and Rachel Tooker bought a farm not far from where her (Rachel's) people lived, and I think lived there the rest of their lives. There was a cemetery on the farm but never was kept up, so most of the stones have been used by the present owner to make walks and well curbs. The only one left when I was there said, "MARY, WIFE OF JAMES TOOKER, DIED APR. 14, 1817, AGED 76 YEARS." Jonah Tooker's father died in 1776, when Jonah was 16, leaving a widow and family of dependent children, of whom Jonah was the eldest, so it is easy to suppose this was his mother. In the absence of more definite information, we have formulated the following record:

*1. Jonah, b. Apr. 12, 1760, m. Rachel Alexander (No. 2, Alexander Fam.)
2. Lewis; Lewis Tooker was a director of the Cayuga Steamboat Co. in 1819. As this indicates that he was an active business man, he might well be a brother of Jonah. Olin Phelps of Lansing was Administrator of the estate of Lewis Tooker of Lansing.
There was another Lewis Tooker, b. Apr. 30, 1803, d. Jan. 31, 1833, and bur. at Ludlowville. He was not a son of Jonah, as he is not mentioned in the latter's will, made in 1823. He was prob. a son of Lewis (2) or William (5).
Lewis Tooker was a lawyer, and it was under him that Samuel Love first began the study of law. Lewis m. Cynthia -----. They had a child, William Henry Tooker, b. Jan. 28, 1818, d. May 28, 1819. Lewis was a Justice of the Peace in 1817, appointed when Tompkins county was organized.
3. Calvin. The 1825 census of Newfield records a Calvin Tooker, whose family consisted of two males and six females. He, too, may tentatively be placed as belonging to Lewis or William Tooker's family.
4. Maria D., m. Ransom Birdsall of Ovid, N.Y., on Feb. 3, 1831, at Ithaca, by Rev. Jonah Tooker. She, too, may be a dau. of Calvin or one of the others.
5. William. Letters of Administration on the estate of William Tooker of Milton (Lansing) were granted to Jonah Tooker, Sept. 19, 1805.

JONAH TOOKER (No. 1) prob. son of James and Mary Tooker, was b. Apr. 12, 1760 on Long Island. His father died when he was only sixteen years old, and he had the care of his widowed mother and dependent family of children, of whom he was the eldest. He employed his leisure hours in study, and by the use of books, without a living teacher, he became proficient in most of the sciences, particularly in mathematics and in mental and moral philosophy.

Having been occupied as a teacher for several years in the counties of Orange and Saratoga, N.Y., he resolved in 1794 to try his fortune in the "Genesee" or "Lake Country." (This might be the Jonah Tooker who was a resident of Cornwall, Orange Co., N.Y., in 1780). He purchased a small stock of goods at Albany, and in an open boat, and with the aid of sails and setting-poles, brought his freight by a long and tedious route thru the waters of the Mohawk and the little lakes, and erected his cabin at the mouth of Salmon creek, on the eastern shore of Cayuga lake, where he operated a successful trade with the Indians and first emigrants from the east, keeping bachelor's hall, and living within the scanty means of an uncultivated country.

At this place, and near the present village of Ludlowville he purchased land for a farm where Earl Beckwith now lives, on which he erected a store and dwelling, where, after his marriage to RACHEL ALEXANDER in 1798, he commenced housekeeping. She was b. in 1776, and was the dau. of Robert and Hannah (Boyd?) Alexander of Lansing (No. 2. Alexander Fam.; See Vol. II, p. 37). It is said that she was baptized by Rev. Anning Owen, pioneer Methodist preacher on the frontier in Pennsylvania and New York State. Quite a little settlement grew up around the Tooker place, and it was given the name of Fiddlers Green. There in 1809 was located a Post Office, a blacksmith shop and several houses. Mr. Tooker d. at Lansing, May 12, 1824, in the full expectation of a blessed Eternity. His home was always open to the reception of the ministers of the Gospel. A class was organized at his house in 1796, and he was about twenty-five years an active, useful member of the M.E. Church, for many years filling the important stations of circuit steward, trustee and class leader. Influenced by love of the cause of religion, he contributed to the erection of most of the chapels in this country. The Methodist Societies at Ithaca and Ludlowville are particularly under great obligations to him for the interest he manifested for them, and his perseverance and liberal donations in erecting their chapels. "But he rests from his labors, and his works will follow him." He and his wife are both bur. in Ithaca City cemetery. In his will he leaves his wife 50 acres on Lot 99 in Lansing and 1/3 of his estate during life. The Tooker farm was sold to Alvah J. Sperry after Jonah's death. Mr. Sperry was the great-grandfather of Earl Beckwith, the present owner. In the house is a door which is still called the "preacher's door," and is said to be the door to the room always kept ready for the traveling preacher, and in the barn nearby was kept a place for his horse.

After her husband's decease, Mrs. Tooker remained in her own house for a few years, and then yielding to the wishes of her children, she divided her time with them. About thirty-three years she lived in widowhood. In the exercise of her unimpaired mental vigor she rested from a life of labor and usefulness at her daughter's, Mrs. Samuel Love's, in Ithaca, Nov. 1, 1857. Of his mother, Rev. Manley Tooker writes, "Her virtues combined those of a superior wife and a devoted, noble and pious mother."

*2. Frances, m. Elias T. Huntley of Lima, Livingston Co., N.Y.
3. Lansing, m. Susan W----; 2d. Edna Trenchard. He lived for a time at Georgetown, Washington, D.C., where he was connected with the Post Office Department. Here his infant dau. d. Jan. 25, 1837, and his wife four days later, on the 29th. He m. (2) at Rochester, N.Y., Dec. 15, 1841, by Rev. Dr. Whitehouse, to Edna Trenchard of Pittsford, N.Y. He is erroneously called Lazarus Tooker in the Surrogate's recorded copy of his father's will at Ithaca. He was a resident of California in 1860. His brother Manly mentions his niece, Virginia Prescott Tooker, in his poem, "THE EARLY DEAD," but does not mention her parentage or give any other data.
*4. Sarah, b. Feb. 28, 1806, m. Sanuel Love, Esq., of Ithaca, N.Y.
5. Theodosia, d. aged 1 mo, 17 das.; bur. Ithaca City cem.
6. Henry; living in 1823, but presumably decd. without heirs in 1860, as his name does not appear among the legatees of James Alexander at that date.
7. Dorothy Maud; named in her father's will, but presumably decd. before 1860, without issue, there being no reference to her in James Alexander's estate.

REV. MANLY TOOKER (No. 11) son of Jonah and Rachel (Alexander) Tooker, was b. May 28, 1799. Speaking of his own life he says, "I was born at Lansing. When in my fifteenth year I taught the common school in the district where I had been taught my first lessons. When I had taught nine months I was sent to Auburn Academy. In 1826 I was stationed there as pastor of the M.E. Church and Chaplain in the State's Prison.

"While in attendance at the Conference held at Paris, Oneida Co., N.Y., in 1821, I was made acquainted with Miss Roxanna Farwell, daughter of Dr. Isaac M. Farwell, and to whom I was married Feb. 13, 1822."

Mr. Tooker was converted at the age of fourteen. With G.W. Densmore he was in charge of Cayuga Circuit, Genesee Conference, which included Ludlowville, in 1824. Quoting further from his little volume, "POEMS AND JOTTINGS OF ITINERARY IN WESTERN NEW YORK," we glean the following interesting details. About 1822 or 1823, he speaks of entering the home of his childhood, "With our babe in my arms and my wife at my side."

1830. Penn Yan. "Having but two children we boarded this year with John Powell."

1836—1840. "Buried two infant children at Pittsford."

A number of other incidents are mentioned in the "POEMS AND JOTTINGS," which we are incorporating into the text. This volume is not a complete biography or diary, but from it we piece together the following meagre data relating to his family. In 1853 and 1854 they were living at Vienna, Ontario Co., N.Y.

After his conversion, he taught, as we have seen, for nine months in the home district. He was then sent to Auburn Academy, but in 1815 he was called home by the illness of his father. While teaching school in Ulysses in 1819, he attended many religious meetings, and felt that he had received a definite call to the work of the ministry. It was at this time that he preached his first sermon at Asbury Chapel, and he says, "While teaching at Ludlowville the following summer my name was presented to the Genesee Conference in annual session at Niagara, N.Y., where I was received on trial and appointed to Cortland Circuit, with Rev. O. Doolittle as my senior colleague. On the morning of the seventh of August, 1820, a young man having just closed his minority and at the same time a village school, was seen standing by the front gate of his father's house, having adjusted himself upon the young horse which his father had presented to him, with the needful equipment for traveling, he returned a farewell glance at the family group now standing on the veranda and rode out of sight." Thus began his forty years of work in the Genesee Conference.

In 1824-25 Rev. Tooker was appointed to the Cayuga Circuit. Here he had Rev. R. Long for the first year and Rev. George Densmore as his colleague for the second. This was the year in which Ludlowville Zion Chapel was finished and dedicated. Rev. Tooker tells the story of the building of the Church as follows: "The mystery of why this house was built on the brow or pinnacle of a hill before entering the village, in justice to all concerned, should be briefly stated, which I do the more freely at this date now that the leading actors in the enterprise have finished their course and a more liberal spirit has come upon those who thot it a calamity to have a Methodist chapel in their midst.

"Our Society in and about this point had no place of worship short of Asbury Chapel four miles south, or Teetertown, some four miles north. My father, who had sustained the cause of religion by every means in his power without limiting his aid to his own church, thought the time had come when the Methodists should build, but when he with others began to look after the most advantageous lot for a site, the leading denomination of the place (and I will from motives of good fellowship omit to write the name of this connection) by a bigoted opposition would manage to keep every such lot out of the market. Those points where a church might be built, easy of access, were few, and these were guarded by a sectarian exclusiveness like the entrances of harbors in time of war, until no alternative but to give up the design, or to choose the nearest point adjacent. The site selected was a necessitated choice, and a large part of the expense was borne by the estate of my deceased parent."

We do not have the name of the head of this family. It may be one of the same families heretofore mentioned, but names and other details are so meagre that we are unable to make a definite assignment. The following incident is based on a rare book, written by Rev. L--- of Spencertown, N.Y. It is alleged that this is the only copy of this book extant, which escaped a burning. It is the story of a colored boy who was held by one of the early settlers at Lansing, N.Y., as a slave. The man's name was Gideon Morehouse, and he treated this boy with great cruelty. Peter Wheeler, the negro, tells of rescuing SUSAN TUCKER from drowning. He took her home—or rather Mr. Tucker took them all to his home in his carriage. We quote: "When we comes to Mr. Tucker's house, and Mrs. Tucker cried and wrung her hands in agony; and Rebecca her sister cried and screamed, and Edwin her brother made a dreadful adoo; and Susan says, 'WHY DON'T BE FRIGHTENED SO, FOR I AIN'T HURT ANY,' and the Tuckers gave him a whole new outfit from their store."

TUTTLE.

The names Tuttle, Tuttel and Tuthill are derived from the ancient tot-hills of England, meaning "hill of God." Locally, a town in Caernarvin, Wales, near the coast. From word tuthill, signifying a conical hill, the name being given in early times to a number of locations in England.

The permanent seat of the family was in Devonshire, Eng. William Totyl was Lord Mayor of Exeter in 1552.

DXLV.

I. William Tuttle.

YOUR EDITOR IS INDEBTED TO PROF. A.M. TUTTLE, HISTORIAN OF THE TUTTLE FAMILIES IN AMERICA, FOR MUCH OF THE INFORMATION ON THE EARLIER GENERATIONS OF THE FAMILY, AND REVISION OF THE TEXT.

I. THOMAS TOTEHYLL, of Woodford, co. Northampton, England, was b. abt. 1506. He was assessed for the subsidy there, Nov. 10, 1544. He was a witness to the wills of Robert Crosse, 1524; Robert Pashler, 1538; Sir William Longe, 1541; Elizabeth Whitbred, 1552; and Richard Lyncoln, 1545. He was prob. the father of:

*1. Richard, b. ca. 1530, m. Elizabeth -----.

II. RICHARD TOOTILL of Woodford, co. Northampton, believed to have been a son of Thomas, was b. abt 1530, and m. ELIZABETH -----, who was co-executrix of his will in 1589. He was supervisor of the will of Richard Beare of Woodford, Nov. 3, 1579, and a witness to the will of Elizabeth Lyncoln, 1556. His own will was proved Mar. 11, 1589-90, at Peterboro, and named the following children:

*1. Symon, b. ca. 1560, m. Isabel Wells.
2. Anthony; co-executor of his father's will
3. Elizabeth
4. Ellen
5. Mary
6. Frances
7. Thomas, m. Anne -----, & lived at Holcot & Woodford, Northamptonshire, Eng. His son John is believed to have been the John Tuttle who came to New England in the Planter with the other Tuttles in 1635, returning to England in 1651, finally establishing himself at Carrickfergus, Ireland, where he d. Dec. 30, 1658.

III. SYMON TOOTILL or TOWTILLS, of Ringstead, co. Northampton, England, b. abt. 1560, was bur. at Kingstead, June 15, 1630. He m. ISABEL WELLS, b. abt. 1565, dau. of John Wells of Ringstead, who mentioned her in his will in 1618. The will of John Wells also named all four of his Tuttell grandsons. Symon was supervisor of the will of Matthew Harris of Woodford, Nov. 5, 1600. His own will was proved at Northampton in 1630. His widow accompanied her sons on the Planter to New England in 1635, but no record of her has been seen in this country, and probably she did not long survive.

1. Richard, b. abt. 1593, m. Anne Taylor, & came to New England in the Planter, 1635, with his bro. Wm. & their cousin, John Tuttle.
2. Thomas
3. Simon, m. Alice James; 2d, Katherine Brabrooks, & lived at Burton Latimer, Northamptonshire, England.
*4. William, b. abt. 1609, m. Elizabeth -----.

WILLIAM TUTTLE (No. III:4) son of Symon and Isabel (Wells) Tuttle, was b. in England in 1609, and arrived in the Planter about July 1, 1635. In the passenger list he is called a husbandman. He was a proprietor of Charlestown, Mass., in 1636, and his wife joined the Church at Boston, July 24, of that year. He removed to New Haven, Conn., in 1639, early enough to subscribe to the Fundamental Agreement of that Plantation on June 4, his name being one of the sixteen to which the secretary when he copied the donument into the record book accorded the prefix of respect (Mr.). In the list of planters and estates wrongly headed 1643 in the printed copy, but which must be placed about 1640, his family consisted of seven persons and his estate was rated as £450, well above the average size. His name often appears in the records as busied in the small affairs of the town, on committees and "boards of arbitration," but he was never elected to public office nor, apparently, ran or put himself forward for office. "Mr. Wm. Tutle" was fined in 1646 for "Falling asleep at the watch house."

In May 1660 Mr. Tuttle's dau. Sarah, then a girl of eighteen, had a flirtation with a young Dutch merchant, Jacob Meylen, which reached the immoderate stage of an exchange of kisses before the culprits were brought before the puritanical Court, which branded her conduct as "imodest, vncivell, wanton, lascivious," and fined her and the young man twenty shillings apiece.

William Tuttle m. ELIZABETH ——, who was b. in England abt. 1609-12, and d. at New Haven, Dec. 30 or 31, 1684, aged 70 (gravestone). William's estate was administered in June, 1673. His three eldest children were baptized at Ringstead, England.

*1. John, bp. Dec. 8, 1631, m. Kattareen Lane.
*2. Hannah, bp. as Anne, Jan. 1632/33, m. Joshua Judson; 2d. John Hurd, Jr. (No. 4, Hurd Fam.; Vol. II, p. 77) both of Stratford, Conn. Only within recent years has it been proven that the above is the correct identification of the much-sought Anne; formerly believed to have been a Porter, who m. Joshua Judson, and after his death, John Hurd, Jr. The Hannah Tuttle who m. John Pantry and later Thomas Welles, Jr., was the dau. of Richard Tuttle of Boston and not the dau. of Wm. Tuttle of New Haven.

SIMON TUTTLE (No. 9) son of William and Elizabeth Tuttle, was bp. at New Haven, Mar. 28, 1647. He appears in the list of proprietors at Wallingford, Conn., in 1670, and had Lot No. 13, with eight acres of out land assigned to him. Dr. Savage says he did not stay long. In fact, he did not take up his allotment, and probably continued in New Haven after the death of his mother in Dec. 1684. He is on the list of proprietors of New Haven in 1680. In 1678 he is called of New Haven in an agreement for right of way, signed by Thomas, David, Benjamin, Jonathan, Simon and Nathaniel Tuttle. In 1677-8 he conveyed to Benjamin Brockett, cordwainer, "a part of land my father, Mr. William Tuttle, bought of John Punderson." In 1681 he conveyed right in land on the west side of West river, in the 4th. division. In 1683 he conveys house, barn and home lot, 5/8 of an acre, bounded on the east by Nathan Andrews, west by the street, north by home lot formerly ----- Johnson's, and south by Edward Dxisfont (?), to Richard Higginbotham of New Haven. In these deeds he is called of New Haven. In 1685, "Simon Tuttle of Wallingford, cooper," conveys his portion of the third division in New Haven, thirty acres at Oyster Point, bounded on the west in part by the Milford line, receiving in exchange a lot adjoining the common on the east side. From these records it follows that he removed to Wallingford, in the spring of 1670, had Lot No. 13 on the east side of Main street, and Lot 21 of the river lots, but Oct. 30, 1671, "not possessing his lot and the river lot," they were granted to Joseph Ives. In the second division of Wallingford, Dec. 27, 1686, Simon Tuttle draws Lot No. 52, and takes up 104 acres in the Falls Plains, now Hanover or South Meriden division. Feb. 19, 1690, he gets Lot No. 14. In the third division he gets 70 acres. In 1686 Simon Tuttle of Wallingford sells to Isaac Turner 6 acres "formerly belonging to my father, Mr. William Tuttle," bounded on the north by Nathaniel Tuttle, south by John Mix, east by East river meadow, west by county road. In 1686 Simon and David convey to John Paine two parcels, 12½ acres, lying together, east side of New Haven East river, 3d. division, Apr. 5, 1687, John and Samuel Todd, executors, and sons of Christopher, confirm an agreement made by said C. Todd in his lifetime with Simon Tuttle of Wallingford, for exchange of house and lands in Branford, owned by said Todd, 2½ acres and house; also swamp land, also other parcels, 18 acres and 21 acres, for which Simon Tuttle gives land in New Haven on west side of the East river, 20 acres, bounded on the north by Jonathan Tuttle's land, on the south by Samuel Brown's home lot, on the east by Jonathan Tuttle's, and land formerly belonging to Christopher Todd, and on the west by the highway. Also 10 acres lying in Saxifrax Plains, bounded east by the river, north and west by Jonathan Tuttle's land, and south by Samuel Brown's land. Also 6 acres bounded north by Samuel Brown's land, east by river and Jonathan Tuttle, and north and east by Jonathan Tuttle's home lot and part of the lot formerly Christopher Todd's, as also all the rest of my land, being about 61 acres, lying there, bounded on the east by the river, north by Samuel Brown's home lot, and south by Samuel Brown's land, together with half a house, &c. on aforesaid land; Samuel Munson, Martha Munson witnesses. On June 24, 1693, he appeared before John Moss of Wallingford and acknowledged conveyance of land in New Haven neck to John Atwater. In 1701 he was rated at £79 on the Wallingford grand list. In 1705 he is called Simon Tuttle, Sr., of Wallingford, in conveyance to Simon Tuttle of "all my right to undivided lands in New Haven;" John Hall, Elizabeth Hall, witness, 1705, conveyance to cousin Joshua Tuttle "all my right in Branford division set to my father, Mr. William Tuttle now (Feb. 14, 1705) laid out for his children." He was appointed gauger and packer for the town of Wallingford, Mar. 1708/9, and at several times afterwards. On June 23, 1715 he gives his son Daniel a house lot in Wallingford containing 1½ acres, also, other lands. On July 10, 1711 he gives to son Timothy the land 9½ acres "I bought of Roger Tyler." He d. Apr. 16, 1719. His widow ABIGAIL d. Aug. 11, 1722, at Wallingford. Some believe that she was the dau. of Richard Beach, but Jacobus states "not Beach."

SAMUEL TUTTLE (No. 13) son of John and Kattareen (Lane) Tuttle, was b. Jan. 9, 1659-60, at New Haven, and was bp. Mar. 23, 1666, in the Congregational Church there. He was a stone mason, and m. there (1) June 1684, SARAH NEWMAN, dau. of Richard Newman of the same place, bp in 1665 in the First Congregational Church at New Haven. In 1703 Samuel Tuttle bought land near Wallingford bridge. In 1722 he agreed with John Humiston to divide the lot formerly belonging to the widow Anne Howe. In 1729 he conveyed to Caleb Todd lands on the east side of New Haven, East river. Also right in land laid out to "my honored grandfather, Mr. William Tuttle," Samuel Tuttle and wife Sarah joined the Church in New Haven in 1692. He m. (2) ABIGAIL (FROST) BARNES, who was the dau. of John and Mercy (Payne) Frost, and wid. of Thomas Barnes. She was the mother of fifteen children, and was b. Oct. 8, 1670 at New Haven, and d. abt. 1748. In 1717, John Frost of Newark, N.J., his brother Samuel Tuttle and Abigail his wife, formerly wife of Thomas Barnes, convey to Ebenezer Frost, right in homestead of father and mother, John and Mercy Frost of New Haven. Samuel Tuttle, Sr., d. July 3, 1733, and is bur. in the old North Haven graveyard. In Nov. 1736 Capt. Samuel Barnes presented a petition to the Court in regard to his "mother Abigail Tuttle, who had fallin into discomposure of mind," was incapable, &c, and he was appointed conservator. The thirds of the widow Abigail Tuttle, were divided to heirs of Samuel Tuttle, in 1748. Samuel was a large land owner, and the genealogy is proved in sundry deeds and settlements between the heirs. In 1756 Stephen Tuttle conveyed to Samuel Bishop 1/9 of 8th division laid out to father, Samuel Tuttle. In 1765 Stephen and Rachel Tuttle, Thomas and Mehitable Walter, Hannah Todd, Jehial Tuttle, and Thomas and Martha Sperry, all of New Haven, convey to Daniel Atwater land in 9th. division laid out to Samuel Tuttle, sen. The children were b. in New Haven.

TIMOTHY TUTTLE (No. 92) son of Simon and Abigail Tuttle, b. 1682, prob. in New Haven, removed with his father's family when about three years of age to Wallingford, Conn. In early life he explored the country to the westward of Wallingford and selected land for a farm, which he cleared with his own hands, and on it prepared a home for his family, working thru the week, as it was too far to go home every night, and returning only on Saturdays, aided by a line of blazed trees he had marked thru the woods. The spot is about a mile east of the central part of the village of Cheshire. In 1715 it is referred to in the division of Wallingford into school districts, the west division to extend "as far as west of the river, as high as Timothy Tuttle's and Timothy Beech's" Here he afterwards erected the first frame house in the town of Cheshire (according to family tradition, but Joseph H. Beach has doubts about this house being the first, and accords that honor to the Hitchcock house in another part of the town; "the Tuttle house may have been the second)." It was a good specimen of the Connecticut farm house in the olden time. Under its roof were born children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren of the builder. It was finally burned by an incendiary, being at the time unoccupied.

In 1723 the west Wallingford district was made a Society, and at the first meeting, Sept. 16, 1723, Timothy Tuttle was voted moderator for the year ensuing. His name is the first name on the records of the town, Nov. 4, 1723. He and four others were voted a committee to manage the work of the meeting house, Dec. 1723, and with two others was on committee to seat the meeting house. On Sept. 1, 1724 the same committee was to "dignify the meeting house." The same year he was one of a committee of three to manage school affairs. Nov. 1724 he was one of the committee of three to manage affairs of ordination when Rev. Samuel Hall was ordained the first pastor of the Church. In Cheshire, Dec. 1724. The same year Timothy Tuttle was appointed collector of the four penny rate. In Dec. 1725 he was on a committee of three to manage Society affairs for the ensuing hear. On Dec. 20, 1726 "Sergeant Tuttle" was on the committee of three to run the boundary lines between the east and west Societies (Wallingford and Cheshire).

On Nov. 17, 1729, Matthew Bellamy, father of Rev. Dr. Joseph Bellamy, the celebrated divine, Sergeant Tuttle and Isaac Moss were a committee to build a school house; also to manage Society affairs for the ensuing year. He was re-elected the next year to serve on both the Society and school committees. On Nov. 8, 1732 Sergeant Tuttle was voted moderator for the ensuing year, and on Nov. 1, 1736, John Bull, Seargeant Tuttle and John Gaylord were elected to manage Society affairs.

On Sept. 17, 1737 a new meeting house, 64x45 and 24 feet in height was voted, and Sergt. Tuttle was to be moderator the year ensuing, and on the committee to manage Society affairs, and also in 1738. June 12, 1839 he was on committee to sell the old meeting house, and was chosen Deacon, Aug. 19, 1739; In Dec. 1739 he was one of a committee of three to manage Society affairs, and continued for the two succeeding years. In 1742 he was a member of the council for the ordination of Rev. Benjamin Woodbridge as first pastor of the Church at Amity (WOODBRIDGE). He bought land in Farmington of Benjamin Judd, and d. in Cheshire, Apr. 15, 1756, aged 74. His gravestone was utilized many years later in the construction of an adjacent stone fence. His will, dated Dec 1753, names eldest son Ephraim executor; wife Sarah to have all of estate she brought him at time of marriage; sons Moses, Gershom, Timothy, Simon; daus. Mary wife of Miles Hull; Abigail wife of John Gaylord; Mehitable wife of Andrew Clark; and children of Rachel who was wife of Nathan Tyler.

EBENEZER TUTTLE (No.1356) son of Josiah and Deborah (Barnes) Tuttle, was b. July 31, 1732; m. 1753, sold land in North Haven, Conn., and d. in 1773. His son Eli was Admr. of his estate and guardian of three minor children, Lois, 14; Ebenezer, 7; and Josiah, 4. These notes have been retained because Your Editor believes there still is the possibility that it may be found that one of the Ebenezer Tuttle's who were in Wysox, Pa., at an early day may have belonged to a different line from what has heretofore been supposed. He has been especially partial to the idea that Ebenezer north of Yorks narrows in Wysox may have been more closely related to those on the opposite slope of the same ridge in Standing Stone Twp. Satisfactory records on both branches of the family still remain a desideratum, and the movements of Ebenezer of the 9233 line (qv) at this particular time are still not fully established.

*1. Eli, b. 1758, m. Mrs. Anne Parmalee
2. Lois, b. 1759.
3. Ebenezer, b. 1765; was in Fairfield, Conn., in 1800.
4. Josiah, b. 1769.

STEPHEN TUTTLE (No.6331) posthumous son of Stephen and Sarah (Stanley) Tuttle was b. Oct. 19, 1735. His mother also died the following July, and thus he was totally orphaned when only nine months of age. He was taken into the Stanley family, and in 1742 removed with his grandfather Stanley to Goshen, Conn., where he m. Mar. 23, 1758, LYDIA LYMAN, dau. of Ebenezer Lyman, Jr., of Torrington, Conn. She was b. June 16, 1738 in a log house in the western part of the town, which has been called the Lyman place ever since. She was the first child born in Torrington. Stephen owned land in Goshen, but removed about 1773 to Palmyra, N.Y., thence to Wilkes-Barre, Pa., where he d. in 1809. The anecdote is related that Stephen Tuttle's wife won a spinning match in Torrington, doing two and a half day's work in one day. She was an own cousin of Esther Lyman, mother of Dr. Lyman Beecher. Their children were b. in Goshen.

1. Sarah, b. May 23, 1759, m. ----- Bennett of Salisbury, Conn.; ob.s.p.
2. Aurelia, b. June 29, 1764, m. Mathias Covell of Wilkes-Barre, Pa.
*3. Stephen, b. Aug. 4, 1772, m. Mary McKerachan.

EBENEZER TUTTLE (No.9233) son of Ephraim and Hannah (Pangborn) Tuttle, was b. Oct. 15, 1737. Perhaps he assisted in the organization of the Church in Clinton, N.Y., in 1791, where the name appears as trustee, with Moses Foote, Samuel Tuttle and others. If so, he returned to Connecticut. In 1810 in company with his brother, Capt. Lucius, they visited their brother, Noah Tuttle, in Camden, N.Y. He d. in Bristol, Conn., Jan. 4, 1817. He m. June 15, 1761, at Wallingford, Conn., EUNICE MOSS, dau. of Joseph and Lydia (Jones) Moss, b. Cheshire, Conn., May 5, 1742, d. May 14, 1808, and is bur. in the lot of Ezra Daggett in Grove Street cemetery, New Haven. Your Editor believes that following the death of his wife he may have followed his son Ebenezer, Jr., to Wysox, Pa., where he lived for some time, or at least owned a piece of property there, altho historians of the Tuttle family insist that this was impossible. There was an Ebenezer Tuttle of Wysox, Luzerne county, who conveyed his title to a property near the Brick Church and the old parsonage on the road toward Myersburg in 1812 to William Keeler of the same place, for a consideration of $250, it being part of Lot 18 in Claverack which had been Patented from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to John P. Arnott of Wilkes-Barre, merchant, and wife Elizabeth under date of May 31, 1808, and conveyed to Ebenezer Tuttle, yeoman, by deed dated Sept. 26, 1808, for a consideration of $2000, containing 8 acres and 126 perches, and beginning in the road leading from George Scott's to Myer's mills, on the northeast corner of the schoolhouse lot, extending back to marshland, along same, thence back to road, containing five acres. Signed by Ebenezer Tuttle. No wife's name is mentioned in either the sale of the land to Tuttle, nor in his resale of it to Keeler. Ebenezer's wife Eunice had passed away in May preceding the purchase of this property. Ebenezer Jr's first wife, Elizabeth Felton, was still alive at this time, altho she passed away soon afterwards and is buried in the adjoining cemetery. The remaining three acres of the above tract was sold Sept. 17, 1811, by Ebenezer Tuttle of Wysox to George Scott of Wysox for $350, being land in Claverack, part of Lot 18, Patented to John P. Arndt of Wilkes-Barre, beginning at a stake and stones on northwesterly side of road from the late dwelling house of Burr Ridgway to Myer's mills, containing three acres. It was signed by Ebenezer Tuttle, no wife mentioned. Letters of Administration on the estate of Ebenezer Tuttle, late of Wysox, were granted to Ebenezer Tuttle and William Keeler, Nov. 10, 1820. Ebenezer had returned to Bristol, Conn., but perhaps this was only on a visit, or to stay temporarily, his wife being dead, and Wysox was still his legal residence. Mrs. Ethel Barnes Thielemann of Portland, Ore., has accounts from several Connecticut newspapers of the death there of Ebenezer Tuttle, including the American Mercury, which says that Ebenezer Tuttle of Cheshire d. at Bristol, Jan. 4, 1817, aged 80. The Connecticut Mirror of Apr. 28, 1817, says that Ebenezer Tuttle, formerly of New Haven, d. at Bristol. The Hartford Courant carries a similar announcement. Cheshire is a small town in New Haven county. Ebenezer was also bur. in Grove Street cemetery in New Haven. The children were b. in Bristol and recorded at Wallingford.

WILLIAM TUTTLE (No.13512) son of Josiah and Naomi (Luddington) Tuttle, was b. Jan. 4, 1743-44 in Waterbury, Conn. He first went to Vermont, was at Stephentown, N.Y., in 1790, and came to Ulster, Pa., about 1792, later removing to Standing Stone, Pa. He m. at Waterbury, Aug. 8, 1765, TAPHOR CASSEL or Castle, dau. of Isaac and Lydia (Scott) Castle of Waterbury, b. Oct. 3, 1741, who survived him and who, in Apr. 1820, transferred land in Wysox, Pa., to Chester Tuttle of that place. William Tuttle was a taxable inhabitant of Wysox when the new county of Bradford was incorporated in 1813, and his name continues on the list from year to year. William, Joel and Arad Tuttle were among petitioners to lay out a road from Sheshequin to Watertown (Rome) in 1799.

STEPHEN TUTTLE (No. 63313) b. Aug. 4, 1772, son of Stephen and Lydia (Lyman) Tuttle, m. MARY ANN McKERACHAN, dau. of Capt. William McKerachan, b. at Kent, Litchfield Co., Conn., in 1773, and d. at Elmira, N.Y., Jan. 3, 1860, ae. 87. She and her sister, Mrs. Alexander, then three weeks old, were rescued from the massacre at Wyoming in 1778 by their mother, and escaped. They went first to New Milford, Conn., where the mother m. (2) Mathias Hollenback, the famous merchant in the Susquehanna valley in colonial times, and after a considerable time removed thence to Athens, Pa., then called Tioga Point, in 1798, where Mr. Tuttle opened a public house that year, and engaged in mercantile pursuits, thence to Elmira, N.Y., about 1811, of which place he was the first resident. He owned a large farm adjoining the village which he cultivated, and engaged besides in merchandising and milling. He was much respected in the community, and d. there in 1851. As early as 1795 Miss McKerachan (Mrs. Tuttle) was accustomed to ride on horseback in company with her step-father, Mr. Hollenback, from Wilkes-Barre to Elmira. Mr. Hollenback traded with the Indians, and supplied with rations the Council under Col. Pickering in 1791. A year after going to Elmira, the Tuttles moved into a house where she lived fifty years, and where she died. Rev. David Murdock preached her funeral sermon, in which he quoted some of her short and dry sayings. The American Year Book for 1861 contains a biographical sketch in which she is described as 'a woman of genuine piety, remarkable shrewdness and honesty, and a little blunt withal. She had little faith in windy religionists.'

1. Harriet, b. in 1804 at Wilkes-Barre, m. Hon. John Arnot in 1823. Their eldest child, Mary Ann Tuttle Arnot, m. in 1875, William Butler Ogden, who was b. in Delaware Co., N.Y., June 15, 1805, & d. in 1877 at High Bridge, New York City. Mr. Ogden was one of the most progressive and wealthy Americans of his day. THE ARNOT-OGDEN HOSPITAL IN ELMIRA, N.Y., WAS NAMED FOR THIS FAMILY.

EBENEZER TUTTLE (No.92333) son of Ebenezer and Eunice (Moss) Tuttle, was b. July 28, 1766 and d. Sept. 1, 1836. Family tradition is to the effect that his parents intended him for the Church, and his preparatory studies were already begun. But the war of the Revolution brought dissention into the family, the mother being a Royalist in feeling. The result was that when quite young he ran away from home and served as teamster in the Continental Army. Of this no proof has been found in the military records, so it remains a tradition with his children and descendants. At all events, while still a young man, we find him at Cooperstown, N.Y., where he m. (1) Sept. 12, 1790, ELIZABETH FELTON (No. 121-6222, Felton Fam.). He remained in this area for some time, as we find the baptisms of three of his children, Eunice Morse (Moss), Phebe and Hiram, all bp. June 29, 1797 at or near Cooperstown by Father Daniel Nash of the Episcopal Church. Father Nash had graduated from Yale University in 1785, and was first a school teacher. At Swedesboro, N.J., he read theology under Rev. John Croes, later Bishop of New Jersey. He was mainly located at Butternuts, Otsego Co., N.Y., but traveled far and wide thruout that region. Soon after the baptism of his children, Ebenezer, like so many other pioneers of Bradford county, migrated down the Susquehanna, coming to Wysox, Pa. His wife was b. Apr. 20, 1771, d. Apr. 24, 1813, and is bur. in the Presbyterian Brick Church cemetery at Wysox, hers being one of the earliest marked graves there. In all probability she was the dau. of John and Persis (Rogers) Felton. (Birth-date May 20, 1770 in the Felton Genealogy). John Felton was an old Revolutionary soldier in the New Hampshire line, who subsequently settled at Milford, N.Y., near Cooperstown. Later he lived on the Scovell place at South Towanda, Pa., at the same time that Elizabeth was at Wysox. The American ancestor, Nathaniel Felton, was a native of Great Yarmouth, England, migrated in 1635, and settled at Peabody, Mass.

Ebenezer m. (2) Sept. 12, 1814, LUCY GRANGER (No.92A5, Granger Fam.) b. Apr. 10, 1782, dau. of Elijah and Mary (King) Granger of Ulster, Pa., who had come from Suffield, Conn., to Ulster in 1804, and desc. of Launcelot Granger who settled at Ipswich, Mass., in 1648. The old Tuttle Genealogy asserts that the children of Ebenezer were born in Bristol, Conn. While their names may appear on record there, we have seen that some of them were b. at Cooperstown, N.Y., while others were natives of Wysox and perhaps other places.

Ebenezer Tuttle, assessed with a ferry, was a resident of Wysox when Bradford county was incorporated in 1813. He continues on the tax lists with a ferry until 1816, when he has one house, but there is no mention of the ferry. His name continues on thru 1820, and there seems to be only one Ebenezer listed.

There is a deed on file in Bradford county, dated Sept. 23, 1818, in which Ebenezer Tuttle and his wife Lucy convey a portion of the Moger tract along the Susquehanna, including a ferry, for a consideration of $1350, to John Wragg of Covington, Luzerne county [NOW TIOGA], beginning at a post in the Claverack Twp. line, c the bank of the river, thence following the river.... &c, containing 49 acres, being part of a large tract conveyed Sept. 7, 1773, in pursuance of a warrant to Benjamin Eshelman, dated Apr. 3, 1769, No. 1680, which Eshelman deeded to Joseph Wharton, and patented by Wharton from the Commonwealth, Aug. 17, 1781, and conveyed by Wharton and his wife to Caleb Foulke, who released to Theophilus Mosier [MOGER], Apr. 9, 1808, recorded in Luzerne county deeds, Vol. I, p. 292; sold by Mosier, Sept. 8, 1810, recorded in Bradford county deeds, Sept. 4, 1813, Vol. I, p. 295, to Thomas Overton, Jan. 21, 1811, who conveyed same to Ebenezer Tuttle; recorded in Luzerne county, Vol. 12, p. 537; signed by Ebenezer Tuttle, Lucy Tuttle; recorded Apr. 26, 1819. This was located at the eastern end of the valley, between Wysox creek and Yorks Narrows. Ebenezer received his land in Wysox, then Claverack, by deed dated Feb. 1, 1811, from John Sheppard and Benjamin Dorrance, trustees of the Asylum Land Co., who were to execute and deliver a warranty deed six months after the land titles were confirmed by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The deed recites that Thomas Overton of Ulster, Lycoming Co. [NOW BRADFORD] yeoman, and wife Mary, sell to Ebenezer Tuttle of Wysox, yeoman, for $398, premises beginning at a post and stones on the line of Claverack Twp., adjoining the Susquehanna, south 86°, down the river 247 perches to a post and stones, thence west on line of the Twp.... &c, to beginning, containing 49 acres.

The above records all bring into harmony the death of Elizabeth Felton Tuttle at Wysox in 1813, and the subsequent marriage of her husband to Lucy Granger. Mrs. Thielemann suggests further, that when Eunice Tuttle and Ira Barnes were married in 1814 and moved to Ohio, they took her younger sister Maria with them, indicating that her mother was dedeased.

Ebenezer was one of the earliest Freemasons in Bradford county. He at first joined Rural Amity Lodge, No. 70, at Athens, May 29, 1806. This is the oldest Lodge in the area. He resigned there Mch. 17, 1807, in order that he might become one of the founders of Union Lodge, No. 108, which was constituted at Wysox, Mch. 2, 1807, to meet alternately at Wysox and at Orwell. The Lodge rooms were in part of the old Myer homestead at Myersburg. When the old Myer place was purchased by Stanley L. Jacoby, in the second decade of the present century, he dismantled the part of the house containing the old Lodge rooms, and the lumber was utilized by William Howe, who removed it to an old foundation on the Coolbaugh homestead of Your Editor's Mother, where he erected a dwelling out of it, now the home of Bernard Groover, a grandson of Mr. Howe's second wife. The Lodge was afterwards transferred to Towanda, where it still flourishes. Ebenezer was the first Junior Warden of this Lodge, in 1807, and served again in that capacity in 1812. He was the Lodge secretary in 1810. His membership ceased Feb. 4, 1825. This was after he had left Wysox. He early operated a distillery in the Monroe Twp. area, it being one of twelve which were being run within four miles of Bowman's. [SOUTH TOWANDA].

EBENEZER TUTTLE removed to Daggetts Mills, Tioga Co., Pa., in 1822, and his will is recorded in that county. He joined the Wysox Church, July 30, 1817. Lucy Granger had been admitted Sept. 17, 1810.

The Wysox census for 1800 shows Ebenezer Tuttle with one male between 26 and 45; 2 males under 10; 1 female 26-45; 1 between 10 and 16; and 1 under 10. For 1810 the list is 1 male over 45; 1 male 10-16; 3 males under 10; 1 female 26-45; 1 female 16-26; and 2 females under 10. In 1820 the registration is: 1 male over 45; 2 males 10-16; 2 males under 10; 1 female over 45; 1 female 16-26; 1 female under 10. There were no Ebenezer Tuttles at Wysox in 1830, but in Jackson Twp., Tioga Co., Pa., for that year we find Ebenezer, 60-70; 1 male 15-20; 1 male 10-16; 1 female 40-50; 1 female 10-15; 1 female 5-10.

He crossed the river to Sheshequin Twp. in 1799, settling at Hornbrook on the J. Franklin Blackman place. He m. abt. 1793, JERUSHA BINGHAM, dau. of Chester Bingham. Both were faithful Universalists, and original members of the first class of that denomination in the county. Mr. Tuttle was a sincere Mason and noted for his benevolence. He was affiliated with Union Lodge, FAM, at Wysox, joining Nov. 20, 1817. There is no record of when his membership terminated. He d. June 21, 1830. His wife was b. Dec. 17, 1774, in Massachusetts, and d. Nov. 28, 1857. They reared a family of seven stalwart sons—all six feet or over tall—and three daus. He is listed as a resident of Ulster in 1800 census, and in Wysox in 1810 and 1820, and he was a taxable inhabitant of Wysox when the county was incorporated in 1813, and his name appears on the list from year to year. A note in 1818 says "LYONS PLACE." By deed dated Nov. 25, 1802, Joseph Salisbury of Claverack sells for $40, land in Claverack [HORNBROOK] beginning at northeast corner of Josiah Tuttle's farm, which he bought of Josiah Newell, &c, containing nine acres. In another conveyance Josiah Tuttle of Luzerne Co. purchases, July 13, 1809, land in DUNDRUM, situate in Claverack Twp.; "ONE OF THE SEVENTEEN TOWNSHIPS," being Lots 32 and 91, beginning at corner, thence by Lot 94, thence by Lot 83, thence by Lot 91 to beginning, containing 92 acres. By deed of Oct. 4, 1797, Josiah Tuttle of Luzerne Co. sells to Cherick Westbrook of the same County, for $16, lands adjoining said Westbrook, beginning on west side of river, north up the river ten rods, thence across island and island creek, thence north up the creek six rods, thence west ten rods, thence south ten rods to the said Westbrook's line, thence east on said line to beginning; also all trees, pasture, &c.

Jerusha Tuttle, age 76, b. Mass., was living with her son Albert in 1850. Josiah was bur. at Hornbrook. He had an account at Judge Gore's store in Sheshequin, 1794-1796. By his will, dated June 19, 1830, witnessed by R.J. Jenks, Ad. Warner, Joshua Horton and I.J. Horton, Probated July 6, 1831, he desired to be buried in Old Sheshequin, "NEAR THE GRAVES OF MY TWO CHILDREN THAT HAVE LONG LAYED IN THE SILENT MANSIONS OF DEATH," and the funeral charges be paid by my sons Joseph B. and Albert Tuttle out of my movable property; they to sell all my concerns; to Jerusha, wife and companion of my youth, a comfortable living both of food and raiment so long as she remains my widow; also I give her the Leopard mare for her to be kept on the homestead; remainder of movable property to be kept on farm until the death of my widow; farm to be equally divided by agreement of heirs or by referees as also must be the personal property to my children equal as follows: Chester Tuttle; Dorinda Lemmon; Edwin Tuttle; Joseph B. Tuttle; Albert Tuttle; Calvin M. Tuttle; William C. Tuttle; Eliza Tuttle; Ethan B. Tuttle; and Sally Amelia Tuttle; also bind each of my heirs to keep the said farm among themselves, and if any want to sell, to give other heirs the preference to buy before any other person; also bequeathe to children that is not of age or free to act for themselves, their support as to schooling, clothing and food, provided they stay with their mother on the farm and conduct as good children ought to do; also my wishes are that Joseph B. Tuttle after my death move on the farm and use his best endeavors to keep the farm in good order and in unity with his brothers that are at home; take a affectionate care of his mother, and that Joseph B. Tuttle is hereby freely credited $100 for a Note I bought of him against Hugh Lemmon, bearing date 14 April last, which Note must be kept to offset that amount against Dorinda Lemmons share of the estate; adds proviso that wife have all his household furniture for life

JOEL TUTTLE (No 135-123) son of William and Taphor (Cassel) Tuttle, was b. in 1778. In the preamble to his will, dated May 25, 1845, he states that he is aged 67 years; therefore b. abt. 1778. He came from Connecticut to Ulster, Pa., about 1792 with his father's family. He removed to Standing Stone in 1812, settling on the lower side of Yorks Narrows, which in the early days was known as TUTTLE'S HILL. Here he continued to reside until the time of his death, and both he and his wife are buried on their farm. This was probably the old cemetery torn out by the late Charles E. Turner on his farm. The monuments were in a field, and he pulled them out and plowed up the site. Mr. Tuttle's wife was REBECCA PIERCE of Chemung, N.Y., and they were m. at Sheshequin, Oct 20, 1800 by Judge Obadiah Gore. Joel, William and Arad Tuttle were among petitioners to lay out a road from Sheshequin to Watertown [ROME] in 1799. In a deed dated Apr 22, 1815, between William Tuttle and Joel Tuttle of Wysox, and M. Miner York, Moses Warford, Jacob and William Myer, Ralph Martin, William Coolbaugh, Elisha Cole and George Scott, for a consideration of $100 convey property in Wysox, on lower side of road from M. Miner York's to Jonathan Stephens [STEVENS] contiguous to narrows fishery, beginning at an oak on the river bank below the fishery, on the line between William Tuttle and Joel Tuttle, which line was run by Jonathan Stevens, passing up the river one rod wide and 20 rods long, to the opposite shore of the river at the lower end of the fishery, returning to road along Joel Tuttle's land, back to oak tree as place of beginning. Timber on side of hill may be cut, one-seventh of the proceeds to go to each of the grantees; witnessed by Amos York and Walter Wheeler; recorded Oct. 21, 1815. Joel Tuttle's name is on the first tax list for Wysox when the county was organized in 1813, and his name continues on the list from year to year. It is interesting to observe that William and Joel Tuttle owned property in almost exactly the same location as Ebenezer Tuttle had his ferry (CF. No. 92333, PP. 14, 15) A notation opposite Joel's assessment for 1818 says, "HAS WILLIAM TUTTLE'S PLACE." His name is also on the first list for Standing Stone Twp., when that Twp. was set off from Wysox in 1842.

The will of Joel Tuttle of Standing Stone Twp., aged 67 years, is dated May 25, 1845, and probated Feb. 14, 1846; witnesses Asa Stevens, Daniel

Gibbs, Cemantha Gibbs; mentions sons Alfred and Harvey, $5 each, having already given them as much as would be their reasonable proportion of my property; to daus. Minerva Goff, Harriet Bennett, Jane Clark, Rebecca Hopkins, Rachael Kingsley and Celestia Vannest, to have all household furniture to be divided as nearly equally among them as can be; to children of my son Alby Tuttle I give all my real estate with the farming utensils and stock that may be on the farm at my decease, the land to [be] owned and held by all the said children in common jointly and undivided until the youngest child comes of the age of 21; also mentions beloved wife's dower in case she should outlive me; son Alby sole Executor; mentions Chester Kingsley as son-in-law; it is my will that he shall have the south half of the farm I now live on, to be divided by an east and west line in equal halves and also the half of the stock on the farm after leaving a team for the children of Alby Tuttle; should dau. Celestia come to want, Alby Tuttle and Chester Kingsley shall jointly and at equal charge between them furnish her a home and boarding suited to her necessity. Cowell mentions grandson Zorah A. Tuttle to have sole estate and other properties bequeathed to him jointly with the other children of my son Alby to be his individual property unconnected with the others; in case he should not live to [illegible] property is to go to the next male heir or heirs of said Alby. Witnesses [illegible] Tuttle.

DXCIV.

III. Henry Tuttle.

The head of this family is of the line of Nathaniel Tuthill who came from eastern Long Island to Elizabeth, N.J., in 1665, youngest son of Henry Tuthill (No. 3, previous sketch, p. 27). Researchers have been unable to establish one or two intervening generations. This branch of the family lived in New Jersey, and we first find them at Basking Ridge, Somerset county.

*1. Henry, b. Nov. 24, 1733, m. Phebe Beach; 2d Mary -----.
2. David; lived in New Jersey; visited his brother Henry in 1818.
3. John; was prob. a third brother.

HENRY TUTTLE (No. 1) was b. Nov. 24, 1733 at Basking Ridge, N.J. He removed to the Wyoming Valley in Pennsylvania in 1785, settling at Forty Fort. He bought of Col. Nathan Denison a mill property and farm on Abraham creek, one mile above its confluence with the Susquehanna at Forty Fort. This grist mill was maintained by him and his son Joseph until 1840, when the latter sold it. It remained in use for many years. In 1854 it was purchased by Elijah Shoemaker, and operated by him and his heirs until 1888. In 1894 the structure collapsed and its remains were removed. Henry represented his father as being of English and his mother of Scotch nativity or parentage. There was long a tradition in the New Jersey branch of the descendants of Joseph (No. 6, Wm. Tuttle Fam.; see p. 4) that their ancestor came from "NORTH OF THE TWEED." Henry had a brother David who visited him in 1818, and probably a brother John. Henry was a soldier in the Revolution, a farmer, and a blacksmith. He d. Jan. 3, 1820, aged 87. He m. in New Jersey (1) PHEBE BEACH; and (2) MARY ———. All of his children were b. in New Jersey. In his will he mentions wife Mary, who is to have household furniture, milch cow, Lot 11 and part of Lot 10 in the second division of lots, and is to include mill dam and seat where mill now stands; son John upper or northeasterly third of land, about 19 acres; son Joseph remaining 2/3 parts of most southwestern division of land, about 38 acres, along line of Elijah Shoemaker. He speaks of "CHILDREN OF MY SON HENRY (viz., granddau. Phebe Jackson, 2 shares, and to remaining grandchildren, being the children of my said son Henry, one share each; to son Abner $1, considering that I have already given him as much as is in proportion to what I have given my other sons; grandson Stephen Tuttle, son of Abner, $8; wife to have "MY NOW DWELLING HOUSE" as long as she lives.

*1. Henry, b. 1764, m. ----- -----; 2d. Mary Strope.
*2. Abner, m. Hannah Harding.
*3. John, b. Apr. 3, 1767, m. Mary Bennett.
*4. Joseph, b. Jan. 19, 1772, at Rockaway, Morris Co., N.J., d. Feb. 11, 1849; rm. to Wyoming Valley with his father. He was of active business habits, as farmer, miller, drover, butcher & merchant. The last named business he carried on several years in connexion with his son Joseph B. Tuttle at Tunkhannock, Pa. Tho of limited education he took an active part in public affairs, held various town ogices, was County Commissioner of Luzerne County for a term of three years, & was highly esteemed as a citizen. He m. Sept. 28, 1792, Mary Lee, dau. of Jesse & Sarah (McDowell) Lee, b. at Stroudsburg, Pa., Feb. 2, 1775, d. Aug. 26, 1835. Her parents rm. to Wyoming before the massacre of July 3, 1778 & settled on the farm on which the Wyoming Monument, erected over the common grave of the slain settlers, now stands. Jesse Lee was from Connecticut. His wf., Sally McDowell, was the dau. of John McDowell, a Scotch-Irishmen who came in 1735, m. Hannah DePuy, dau. of the first Nicholas DePuy of Shawnee (See DePuy Fam. in Vol. II, pp. 59-60, of this Series). They had two sons & ten daus, all well-to-do & widely known & respected. Joseph Tuttle m. (2) MAY 16, 1839, ARABELLE EVANS; & (3) Elizabeth Edwards. All the children were by the first mge., the eldest of whom was Sarah, b. Apr. 4, 1793, m. Payne Pettebone of a prominent Wyoming Valley family. The third dau. Elizabeth, b. Aug. 10, 1796, m. Paul Bishop Jennings, ancestor of a family of that name, prominent in the lumber & other business enterprises in Sullivan, Wyoming & Bradford counties, Pa.

Henry [ABOVE] erected his small, two-story frame gristmill near where the stone arch bridge on the road between Kingston and Pittston was situated, in 1798.

HENRY TUTTLE (No. 11) son of Henry, was b. in New Jersey in 1764, and came to Wysox, Pa., in or before 1790. He owned several lots in Claverack under Connecticut title, where the village of Wysox now stands. He m. in 1792, MARY STROPE, dau. of Sebastian and Lydia (VanValkenburg) Strope, who were the first permanent settlers in Wysox. About 1809 he deserted his wife and family, going to Michigan. His wife spent the remainder of her days at Wysox, where she was living with her son John and dau. Abigail in 1850. Henry Tuttle was among those who petitioned for a road over Shores Hill from Wysox to near Judge Gore's, opposite Ulster.

1. Henry, bp. Dec. 15, 1793, at the Wysox Presbyterian Church, m. Anna Shoemaker & rm. to Kingston, Pa. He was a boatman on the river & d. at Columbia, Lancaster Co., Pa. This may have been the Henry B. Tuttle, late of Wysox, whose estate was administered by Judge Harry Morgan, Feb. 1, 1823. (Cf. No. 133). This writer suggests that there may be some confusion existing between this individual and his cousin Henry, son of John. The above Administration would suggest that Henry B. Tuttle of Wysox may have had no family. It is possible, but highly improbable, that both had a wife named Anna Shoemaker. The Editor also feels that we have here the individual afterwards known as Harry Tuttle, whose family records follow later, who lived in Tioga Co., N.Y., & who had a brother living in Wysox whom he used to visit during his lifetime. This identification would seem to be further strengthened by the fact that the minor children of John went to Tioga Co., N.Y., to live following the death of their father: Henry & Harry Tuttle were very nearly the same age as far as records go.

*2. Phebe, bp. Dec. 15, 1793, at Wysox, m. ----- McVickers; 2d Asa Jackson.

*3. Margaret, bp. Feb. 6, 1796, as Peggy, m. Joshua Lamphere & d. in Wysox.

4. Abigail, b. 1805, d. unm. Nov. 23, 1861 in Wysox. She was admitted to the Wysox Church in 1831, receiving adult baptism at that time. She was living with her mother & brother John at Wysox in 1850.

*5. John, b. May 27, 1808, m. Mrs. Ellen Brown.

6. Hannah, m. Isaac W. Green & rm. West.

*7. Sally, m. Hezekiah Newell of Sheshequin, Pa.

ABNER TUTTLE (No. 12) son of Henry and Phebe (Beach) Tuttle, was b. in New Jersey. He m. HANNAH HARDING, dau. of Stephen Harding of Exeter, Pa., and removed to Kalamazoo, Mich. He d. Sept. 10, 1820.

JOHN TUTTLE (No. 13) son of Henry and Phebe (Beach) Tuttle, was b. Apr. 3, 1767, in New Jersey. He m. Jan. 11, 1789, MARY BENNETT, dau. of Thomas Bennett of Forty Fort, b. Aug. 15, 1772. Letters of Administration on the estate of John Tuttle were issued by Luzerne county Court, Sept. 14, 1821. John Tuttle of Kingston purchases for £17 of Lucretia York, Admx. of Estate of Amos York, land at "HORSE SHOE FLATT," Braintrim Twp., Wyoming Co., Pa., lying between the town of Braintrim and lands of a certain Kilbren, nearly opposite the mouth of Meshoppen creek, containing 300 acres, dated July 1, 1791. The locality is now known as JAYNES BEND, NORTH MEHOOPANY. These were the lands on which York had settled prior to the Revolution, and on which he "WENT DOWN AND WROUGHT" after moving on up to Wyalusing prior to his capture by the Indians in 1778, according to Lucretia's deposition to Thomas Wigton in support of her Connecticut claim (SEE YORK FAMILY IN VOL. II, P. 128).

JOHN TUTTLE (No 115) son of Henry and Mary (Strope) Tuttle, was b. May 27, 1808, d. Feb. 27, 1874 and is bur. at Wysox. He m. MRS. ELLEN R. BROWN, and inherited the homestead. By deed dated Jan. 20, 1842, John Tuttle of Wysox conveys to Lucius Fuller of the same place for $400 lands beginning at corner of Lot 137... &c, being half of Lot 137 in Claverack, conveyed by Commonwealth to John Tuttle, and Patented Mch. 25, 1840, containing 52 acres. He was residing with his mother and sister at Wysox in 1850. In his will, dated at Wysox, Feb. 18, 1874 his wife Ellen R. is to have half his estate, both real and personal; and to his children Mary Ellen and John H., the remaining half, equally divided, wife Ellen to be sole Exx., and also guardian of the children. It was signed by His X Mark. His wife had remarried JASPER PEPPER before May 3, 1880, at which time triennial statement was made by Ellen R. Tuttle, now Ellen R. Pepper, guardian of said minors. In Feb. 1874 $300 value of estate was set to widow. In 1878 Mrs. Tuttle sold her home in Wysox, consisting of nine acres, all improved, to H. Beecher Morgan for $3000. The property is described as being bounded n. and e. by Beecher Morgan, s. by public highway and w. by Joseph Ridgway. This would presently embrace the home-lots of Your Editor and Mrs. W.H. Beers, their home having been the Beers house. In a Citation dated Dec. 1882, Mrs. Cora Catlin sets forth that she is a sister of the half blood of Mary Ellen and John H. Tuttle, and that Mrs. Tuttle has sold their property in Wysox, has failed to properly educate the children and is lewd in conduct, and should be removed as guardian of the children, to which Mrs. Tuttle denies charges but signifies willingness to resign as guardian; whereupon F.E. Jayne of Towanda is appointed their guardian. Your Editor is confident that this was the brother whom Harry Tuttle of Tioga Co., N.Y., visited in Wysox in his lifetime. The children of John and Ellen R. (Brown) Tuttle were:

1. Mary Ellen, b. May 25, 1866: was residing in Tioga Co., N.Y., May 10, 1883, when F.E. Jayne of Towanda was renewed as guardian.

IV. Harry Tuttle.

HARRY TUTTLE was b. May 24, 1792, and m. Mch. 4, 1818, CHRISTINA MARVIN, b. Dec. 30, 1791, d. Feb. 19, 1843. He lived in the vicinity of Candor or Smithboro, N.Y., and had a brother living at Wysox, Pa., whom he used to visit. This writer believes that he may be identical with Henry, son of Henry and Mary (Strope) Tuttle of Wysox, who was very near the same age, and who was bp. in the Wysox Church, Dec. 15, 1793, as a small child. Harry is sometimes employed as a sobriquet for Henry, and we have already pointed out in the previous sketch that the children of John Tuttle, the possible brother, went to Tioga Co., N.Y., to live following the death of their father, perhaps because of having connexions thereabouts. We do not have the date of Harry's death. The following notes, with some additions by The Editor, were compiled by Clay F. Tuttle of Ulster, Pa., and submitted for inclusion in this record.

ALLEN WILLIAM TUTTLE (No. 1) son of Fleming and Cynthia (Allen) Tuttle, was b. Nov. 12, 1872, at Pugwash, Nova Scotia. He came to Towanda, Pa., as a young man, where he m. LILLIAN M. HARDEN, b. Dec. 21, 1875, in North Towanda, dau. of James and Anna (Rutty) Harden, and there they always made their home. Mr. Tuttle was a railroad engineer for the Lehigh Valley. The old Bradford County Directory, issued in 1900, shows Allen W. Tuttle, foreman for the Lehigh Valley railroad, residing at the corner of West James and Waverly Sts. as early as the turn of the present century, and that was ever after his home. He was very active in the civic and political affairs of that community. A staunch Republican, he was seen regularly at party meetings, and labored devotedly for the party's interests. He retired from the railroad in 1944. He was a member of the Brotherhood of Railroad Engineers and of the North Towanda Methodist Church. He d. Oct. 24, 1953, with burial in Oak Hill cemetery at Towanda. Mrs. Tuttle graduated from the old Susquehanna Collegiate Institute at Towanda, and was a member of the North Towanda Methodist Church and of its Womens Society of Christian Service. She also belonged to the Towanda Garden Club and of the Towanda Womens Christian Temperance Union. She passed away Jan. 30, 1963, only a month following the sudden death of her dau., Olive N. Tuttle. The whole family were highly regarded residents of that community, and their loss will long remain unfilled.

1. James Allen, d. young.

2. Olive May, b. May 12, 1902, at Towanda, grad. from Towanda high school in 1919 as salutarian of her class. In 1924 she grad. from Pennsylvania State College & soon after entered the service of General Electric Co. at Schenectady, N.Y., as a chemist. She was employed in this capacity for thirty-five years. She was regarded very highly at General Electric's Schenectady Laboratories, & was agiliated with all the professional societies pertaining to her work. Following her retirement in 1960 she returned to North Towanda, where she established her residence. Shortly afterward she entered the employ of the Towanda hospital as a chemist, with whom she remained until her sudden death, on Dec. 30, 1962. She was highly regarded by all who knew her. She was known in her profession as an outstanding chemist, being possessed of an excellent mind, and her many friends will long remember her for her many kindnesses she always extended to others. being most considerate and helpful in many ways. She was bur. with other members of the family in Oak Hill cemetery, Towanda. Since coming back to Towanda she had begun the erection of a new home for herself on West James St., adjoining her mother and brother. She was never married.

3. Harold Fleming, b. Jan. 17, 1906, m. Aytha Jackson, & always lived at North Towanda in his father's house. He grad. from Towanda high school in 1926. Tall, husky and aggressive of constitution, he gained considerable attention as an athlete during his high school days. He distinguished himself as a tackle on the football team, and as a shot-putter on the track & field squad. He was often called back from his tackle slot to kick field goals from placement, getting tremendous distance with a swing of his powerful right leg. He held the Susquehanna Valley Interscholastic Athletic Association record in the shot put for several years. He would amble up to the short put circle, take one toss & that was it. The rest of the athletes would try to beat his mark, taking three tries each. but none succeeded, & he graduated holding the record in his specialty. It stood for years. He entered the employ of the Pennsylvania Department of Highways, with whom he remained for thirty years, attaining the rank of Assistant Superintendent of Highways in Bradford county. Upon change of administrations he was relieved of this position in 1956, & at once obtained an advanced position with the Sylvania Electric Products Corp. at Towanda, which he continued to hold up until the time of his death. He was always somewhat interested in politics, & at one time was a candidate for the office of County Treasurer. He also possessed a fine tenor voice, & with Raymond Moore & LeRoy Robbins formed a trio that brought enjoyment to many. They sang together for over thirty years, the music creating a relationship that was splendid in many ways. He was also a veteran of World War II, serving with the Army's 533rd Ordnance Company. He was a member of the North Towanda Methodist Church; of the Towanda Post, No. 42, of the American Legion, & of Union Lodge, No. 108, F & M. He was also a charter member of Towanda Lodge of Elks, & a member of the Twenty-Five Year Club of the State Highway Department. He d. Apr. 22, 1964, with interment in Oak Hill cemetery. His wife also attended the Towanda schools, & was proprietress of the old Dickens Book Shop in Towanda, which she sold out following the death of her husband. There were no children.

XIV. John Webb.

JOHN WEBB m. ELIZABETH McDERMOTT, and came to Springfield, O., in 1821, settling on a farm one mile east of Magadore, which became the family homestead for succeeding generations. Mrs. Webb was acquainted with all the trials and hardships of early pioneer life. She often said the first three years of their life here they had never received one dollar in money, but managed to live by interchange of goods. She was very exclusive and retiring in her manners but was always glad to receive friends. Her generosity knew no bounds. She wielded a strong influence on those around her. She was a great reader and well versed in Biblical lore and was a strong politician. One of her children once fell into a well nineteen feet deep. No One being within call, she descended into the depths after little Milton, and scaled the walls with the rescued babe in her arms. Their family consisted of seven children, five of whom reached maturity.

II. John L. Webb.

JOHN L. WEBB, HEAD OF AN OUTSTANDING FAMILY WHO WERE EARLY COMERS TO RIDGEBURY TWP., BRADFORD CO., PA., WERE BRIEFLY REFERRED TO IN THE MISCELLANEOUS NOTES ABOUT SOME OF THE PIONEERS OF THAT AREA WHICH ACCOMPANIED THE CEMETERY INSCRIPTIONS OF RIDGEBURY TWP. (Vide p. 17 of That Article). WE ADD HERE A FEW MORE DETAILS ABOUT THE FAMILY.

JOHN L. WEBB was b. Feb. 25, 1794, in the State of New York. His parents were Connecticut people who had moved to the Empire State, but subsequently returned to what was in the earlier days known as "THE LAND OF STEADY HABITS." Among the shrewd and hardy Yankees he who was to play an active part in Bradford county's early political history, received his training and early education. In 1813 he came with a neighbor to adjoining Chemung Co., N.Y., and in 1819 was united in mge. with ANNIS HAMMOND. In 1823 he moved down over the State line into Ridgebury Twp., where his first political honor was the appointment as Justice of the Peace, an office he held about ten years. Becoming interested in public affairs, he soon took a hand in politics, espousing the principles of the Democratic party. In 1827 he was nominated and elected coroner, and in 1830 county commissioner. He performed his duties with ability, and having made friends in the county, and being a shrewd manager, in 1833 was nominated by his party and elected Sheriff. Up to 1836 he had been successful in all his political contests. But in that year he was the Democratic nominee for delegate to the Constitutional Convention, his opponent being Nathaniel Clapp, Whig, of Athens. The Whigs, making a determined effort to carry the county, succeeded, defeating Mr. Webb by 137 votes. Altho active in the councils of his party, he was not again a candidate for office until 1845, when he, with Victor E. Piollet of Wysox, was nominated by the Democrats for the Legislature. At that time Bradford county sent two men to the General Assembly, one from the western part and the other from the east. Both were elected, and the following year Mr. Webb was renominated. At the election, held Tuesday, Oct. 13, 1846, he was elected. But having been taken suddenly ill, he died on the Saturday following. He was in the prime of life and vigor of manhood. His worth and abilities were being appreciated. Had he lived he would have attained, undoubtedly, higher honors in the political arena. Natural shrewdness, and unimpeachable character, made him a leader among his fellows. Dr. Bullock, Gen. Samuel McKean, Jas. P. Bull, E.S. Goodrich, Wm. Elwell, David Cash and Hon. David Wilmot were his Democratic associates and warm personal friends. All his sons became political leaders and filled high positions of honor and trust. Mrs. Webb survived her husband 25 years. Letters of Administration were granted Oct. 26, 1846, to James H. Webb and David Bullock on the estate of John L. Webb; Renunciation of Annis Webb, widow, filed. Mr. Webb owned several thousand acres of land in Ridgebury and South Creek Twps., for sale of which Orphans Court permission was granted.

*1. James H., b. Dec. 4, 1820, m. Sally Chamberlin; 2d. Mrs. Mary M. Munson.

2. William C., the second son, starting out as a robust farmer boy in Ridgebury, he acquired a good education, studied law & engaged in the practice of his profession & in politics was a staunch Republican. He became a President Judge & also served as a member of the Legislature of both Wisconsin & Kansas.

3. Henry C., b. 1825, the third son, prepared himself for the legal profession & was admitted to the Bradford County Bar in 1849. He went to Wisconsin, where he was elected to the Legislature, serving in both House & Senate. He moved to Kansas & was chosen President Judge. In political affiliation he was a staunch Republican. His death occurred Sept. 28, 1910, in his 85th. yr.

4. Charles G., fourth son, also went to Wisconsin & engaged in the practice of law. He was twice a State Senator, two times President Judge, then elected to the Supreme Bench & finally became Chief Justice of Wisconsin.
5. Polly S., m. Virgil S. Vincent of Smithfield.

HON. JAMES H. WEBB (No. 1) eldest s. of John L. and Annis (Hammond) Webb, was b. Dec. 4, 1820 in Chemung Co., N.Y., then a part of Tioga county. He came to Ridgebury, west of Athens, with his parents, when three years of age. Having been of a strong personality, their father impressed upon his boys the lessons of an upright life and a vigorous brain and constitution. During his earlier years Mr. Webb belonged to the David Wilmot school of Democrats. But on the formation of the Republican party, he cast his fortunes with it. As in the case of his father, his first office was that of Justice of the Peace, to which he was elected in 1847. In 1854 he was nominated and elected on the Democratic ticket, Register & Recorder of Bradford county, and re-elected in 1857 to the same office by the Republicans. He was elected to the Legislature in 1866, and re-elected for four successive terms, and then again elected in 1873. During the session of 1871, he was chosen Speaker of the House of Representatives. His record as a lawmaker was a long and honorable one. He was at all times faithful in the performance of his duties, and looked well to the interests of his constituency. While some more brilliant fell, he scoffed the briber's gold, and was always true to the people of his county. In 1881 he was again elected Register & Recorder. At the conclusion of his official term, he retired from politics, and gave his attention to the practice of law, having been admitted to the Bar at the advanced age of 65 years. The death of this splendid man and citizen occurred at Towanda, Feb. 21, 1896. Mr. Webb seems to have been much interested in the welfare of the orphaned children of his day. He is of record as guardian or otherwise involved in no less than 37 guardian and other Orphans Court proceedings in which their interests were at stake, between 1861 and 1895. Mr. Webb had m. (1) SALLY CHAMBERLIN, who d. in 1879, leaving 4 ch. He m. (2) MRS. MARY M. MUNSON, wid. of JOSEPH MUNSON of Elmira, N.Y., and they had an adopted dau. Mary M. CAPT. JOSEPH EDWIN WEBB (No. 6) s. of Stephen and Olive (Shallor) Webb, was b. Oct. 22, 1817, in Bridgewater Twp. In early life he engaged in the mercantile business in Montrose, and also served as deputy postmaster at that place for three years. In 1842 he purchased the place in Franklin Twp. which became the permanent homestead of the family on the hill-top, containing 125 acres of wild land which he transformed into one of the most desirable farms of the locality. He was ever quite prominently identified with public affairs, especially with the State Militia, in which he served as First Lieutenant, and later as Captain. His political support was always given to the men and measures of the Democratic party, and he was a recognized leader of the party in his community. He held several township offices, such as school director, and gave a liberal support to all measures for the public good. He held membership in the Baptist Church at Montrose, and in all the relations of life was found true and faithful to every trust reposed in him. He passed away Mch. 4, 1882, and was bur. in Bridgewater cemetery. At Montrose Capt. Webb m. Sept. 29, 1841, by Elder Albert Post, a Baptist minister, to SUSANNAH POST HINDS, b. ATTY. THOMAS D. WEBB of Warren, Trumbull Co., O., was a lawyer, and as early as 1813 was the editor and proprietor of the Trump Of Fame, the first newspaper printed on the Western Reserve. It later became the Western Reserve Chronicle. In 1813 Mr. Webb m. Betsey Stanton, originally from Montville, Conn. When she was 18, her home had been broken up by the death of her mother. She accepted an invitation from Mr. And Mrs. Phineas Leffingwell, who were visiting in Connecticut, to accompany them to the Western Reserve in Ohio. They reached Leavittsburg on Dec. 1, 1810. In 1813 Mr. Webb purchased a frame house in Warren, built by John S. Edwards in 1807, on South St. In this house the Webbs spent 53 years of married life. Their children were b. in it, and grandchildren, and great-grandchildren, some of their descendants occupying it a century later. In 1823, Mrs. Webb, with three children, one of them a baby, and Miss Ann Adgate, made a journey to Connecticut in a sleigh, going thru New York State. Mr. Charles White, a cousin of Mrs. Webb, accompanied them to drive the team. They visited in Connecticut during the winter and returned in the spring, bringing back with them Lucinda Stanton, Mrs. Webb's sister. Miss Adgate remained in Connecticut until the following year, when she m. Edward Spear and returned to Warren to live. Mrs. Webb devoted much of her time to floriculture. Her garden was terraced, and on a side hill. It was 50 feet wide and 250 feet long, with a broad walk around it, and a broad walk thru the length of it. Ten cross walks divided it into squares of 20 feet each. Each square had a border of three feet devoted to flowers, while in the center of the squares vegetables were cultivated. Gooseberry and currant bushes formed a hedge for two sides of it, and Damask roses for the other two. Here were choice and rare flowers and common and old-fashioned ones which made a brilliant array of color from April until November. The petals of the Damask roses were gathered every year, and from them Mrs. Webb distilled rosewater, a favorite flavoring for cake. In every garden of any size in the town, Damask roses were cultivated for this purpose. Mrs. Webb was a charitable woman, self-reliant, of much dignity of manner, and great determination. She was a great reader, and after the circulating library was established in the thirties, one of the most frequent patrons. She d. in 1877. She was a cousin of Edwin M. XI. Elijah Young.

ELIJAH YOUNG and his wife CANDACE, with his son Warren and wife Mary Dean, came to Brooklyn, Ohio, as early as 1814. A covered wagon drawn by oxen brought them on their journey from Chatham, Conn.; in forty days. They settled on farms in fine locations and put up their log cabins, one a double one. Candace was a sprightly little lady, and always walked to the village, as she called what is now the city of Cleveland, even after it had grown to be one of good size.

•1. Warren, m. Mary Dean
°2. Sarah B., (prob. a dau.), m. Jonathan Fish. She was b. in East Haddam, Conn., & came to Brooklyn in 1819.

WARREN YOUNG (No. 1) son of Elijah and Candace, came to Brooklyn with his father from Chathan, Conn., as early as 1814. He settled on a fine farm and erected his log cabin. Either his, or that of his father, was a double one. Mr. Young was the first settler to construct a road thru Big Creek valley. This was a serious but very necessary undertaking, since the Leaf Hills in rainy seasons supplied mud of the most baffling nature. Also he started the first toll gate kept in the township.

The Seneca Indians were not infrequent callers. They were friendly, but too much inclined to beg. Flour for some time was $18 a barrel, and brave Mary Dean Young had to exercise much forethot in providing bread for her little flock until land could be cleared for a crop of wheat. Once she was forced to open the oven door and remove the top crust of a johnny cake she was baking to quiet the hungry crying of her children. One of their daughters recalled her alarm when a big Indian, standing in the doorway of the roadhouse uttered a warwhoop with all the power of his lungs. It was, however, only an expression of good feeling as he stalked away with the tobacco he had just begged.

Warren Young kept the first tavern in the settlement, which means that Mary had to prepare beds and meals at all hours of the day or night. For many years this place, under different managers, was a tavern site.

XXI. Silas Young.

SILAS YOUNG removed from Pennsylvania to Middlefield, Geauga Co., Ohio, with his wife, HANNAH CARROL, a Quakeress, soon after 1800. Mrs. Young rode on horseback with a baby in her arms and two little children on the horse beside her, jumping horse, babies and all, over the logs that frequently lay across her way. Not far from where they settled was an Indian camp, from which came occasional visitors. One brave, attracted by the Quakeress' charms, gravely proposed to her husband an exchange of squaws. Uncle Silas jestingly assented, and thot no more about it. Not so the Indian, who one day when Mrs. Young was all alone, appeared, accompanied by his squaw, and proposed to conclude the trade. The children, frightened in the belief their mother was to be torn from them, hid crying under the bed, but Mrs. Young told the Indian that as her husband was gone, she could do nothing about the matter, and he must come another day. Perhaps he became more reconciled to his dusky spouse, for tho he came to see the Youngs several times afterwards, he made no reference to the trading. Silas Young was a member of the 4th. Company, 2d. Battalion, 1st. Rgt., 4th. Brigade, 4th. Division, Ohio Militia. He was one of those who followed in the wake of the messenger who sped from one to another of the lonely homes with the cry that was also a warning, "Hull has surrendered!" It is said that Gen. Paine dashed from Painesville to Burton, leaving his hat in the brush, to give orders in person as to the gathering of the militia, who, quickly responding to the call, marched to the protection of Cleveland.

1. Betsy, m. Isaac Gates. She was one of the small children who came on the horse with their mother. She recalled that those were the days when little girls early became helpers. When too young to be trusted in any other way, she would be tied on a horse and sent on errands to Parkman, five miles distant. When she first went to school, her three-mile way passed a "bear wallow," and a close watch was needed to keep out of the way of the bears, while often she was chased home by the wolves—experiences shared by many of the other children of that day. Small were the fingers that had their daily stints of knitting or were set to wind quills for their mothers as they wove, or hand ends when a new piece was being warped in. So it was not strange that they should early learn the mysteries of wheel and loom themselves.

XXII. William Young.

WILLIAM YOUNG was a native of Connecticut, and is said to have been the descendant of an old English family of Scotch extraction whose representatives emigrated to this country at an early period of its history and settled in Connecticut, where they became identified with the pioneer development of that State. William left his native state and early established himself in Orange Co., N.Y.

*1. Isaac, m. Sarah Robbins.

ISAAC YOUNG (No. 1) son of William, lived near Mt. Hope, Orange Co., N.Y., and was a farmer by occupation. He was a man of excellent judgment and great force of character, and not only engaged in tilling the soil, but drew contracts and deeds, and acted as the adviser and business confident of many of his friends. He m. SARAH ROBBINS, a native of Orange county. They had seven children. The sixth one was:

*6. Coe F., b. May 15, 1824, m. Mary A. Cornell.

COE F. YOUNG (No. 16) son of Isaac and Sarah (Robbins) Young, was b. May 15, 1824 near Mt. Hope, Orange Co., N.Y. His early education was obtained at the district schools of his locality and was completed at the Kingston, N.Y., Academy, and the Seminary at Amenia, Duchess Co., N.Y. When only thirteen years of age he began the performance of the duties of life by driving on the tow-path of the Delaware & Hudson Canal Co., as so many other successful and prominent men of his day were wont to do. Before he attained his majority he served as a clerk in the store of Thomas W. Cornell & Co. at Eddyville, Ulster Co., N.Y., and subsequently with their successor, Martin J. Merchant. Soon after, the Delaware & Hudson Canal Co. began enlarging the canal, and the construction of the Erie railroad was undertaken. With the ambition of youth and the energy and business sagacity that subsequently characterized his life, he resolved to profit by the opening trade, and removed to Barryville, N.Y., where, in connexion with Calvin P. Fuller he established a store, the firm doing business under the name and style of Fuller & Young. In the spring of 1852 he bought of Major Cornell a half-interest in the canal freight line between New York and northeastern Pennsylvania. The firm of Thomas Cornell & Co. was organized, and Mr. Young removed to Honesdale, Pa. After five years he became, by purchase the sole proprietor of the line, and operated it alone for seven years longer. At that time the transportation facilities of the Delaware & Hudson Canal Co. included only the canal and gravity railroad, and the mines of the company were only being moderately worked. On Jan. 1, 1864, at the solicitation of George Talbot Oliphant, president of the company, and Thomas Dickson, general superintendent, Mr. Young entered the services of that company as superintendent of the canal department, and in 1865 the Rondout & Wechawken department was placed under his supervision. In 1869 Mr. Oliphant resigned as president, and was succeeded by Mr. Dickson. Mr. Young was then made general superintendent, and after three years, became general manager, a position which he served until the death of Mr. Dickson in July 1884, when he was elected vice-president and general manager of the company, Robert Olyphant being then the president. On Oct. 1, 1885, his son, Horace G. Young was made general manager

Besides his connexion with the affairs of the Delaware & Hudson Canal Co., Mr. Young sustained a very intimate relation to the general development and improvement of the locality in which he so early made his home. In 1863 he purchased nearly 10000 acres of land a few miles north of Honesdale, including the tannery property at Tanners Falls. He was the president of the Albany & Susquehanna railroad and vice-president of the Cherry Valley & Susquehanna railroad, and of the Schenectady & Waynesburg road, both of which were under lease to the Delaware & Hudson Coal Co. He was president of the Honesdale National Bank for several years. He was a man of strong convictions, positive in his nature, of rare executive ability, and of sterling integrity. It is not improper to say that the rapid development and successful manipulation of the affairs of the Delaware & Hudson Canal Co. in this section was due to his broad and comprehensive management, and was the result of his conscientious and intelligent performance of his official duties. During his management the productive coal capacity of the company increased from 800,000 tons annually to four and-a-half millions, and the railway appendages of the company were added. By close and attentive reading and study he acquired an education far in advance of what his school advantages afforded, and became a thoroly self-educated man. He entertained liberal views on religious subjects and supported with a free hand the schools, churches and other elevating institutions of his day, and was held in general respect and esteem by a large circle of friends

He m. Jan 17, 1849, MARY A. CORNELL, dau of Peter Cornell of Rondout, N.Y.

2. Horace G., b. Jan. 26, 1854, at Honesdale, received at the Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Troy N.Y., a thoro scientific course, and was graduated with honor. In 1879 he entered the Delaware & Hudson service as assistant to the general manager. Here he rapidly mastered the complicated details of railroad and canal operations. In July 1882 he was promoted to assistant general manager, and took in special charge the Northern railroad department. This embraced the Albany & Susquehanna road, the New York & Canada, the Rensselaer & Saratoga, the Duanesburg & Schenectady, the Utica, Clinton & Binghamton, and the Cherry Valley branch, with upward of 800 miles of track, and of these roads he was practically the superintendent. In this position he proved himself a thorolly practical railroad manager, of unusual energy, judgment and administrative ability. His success in the direction of this department was fully appreciated by the Delaware & Hudson directory, and the most conclusive proof of a practical recognition of his merits was seen in his appointment to the position so long and so ably filled by his father. He took up his residence in Albany, N.Y.

WILLIAM YOUNG of Beaver, Pa., m. SARAH McGEORGE, and the third day after their marriage set out on horseback for their new home in Jackson, Ohio. Mrs. Young became known as one of those kind, good neighbors whom one could depend upon in time of trouble or sorrow. They had eight children.

1. Robinson Young, who may have been son of William, m. Mary Ann Gault, who came there in 1808. The Gault family were originally from Ireland. Mary Ann came to Jackson at six years of age, riding on horseback behind her mother. It was a wearisome journey from Pennsylvania. Mrs. Young relates the solar eclipse of 1806, with strange yellow darkness enveloping everything. Men left their work, birds and chickens went to roost. The next summer her parents moved into Jackson, and her especial work was to drive the deer and wild turkeys from the young growing corn and at sunset to stand on a big stump to blow the horn to guide the men folk home from their work in the woods. By the time she was eighteen children had so increased in the settlement that a school fund was raised by subscription and her services were procured as teacher. The school house was a rude one with puncheon floor fitted against a stump that served as a dunce block, a form of early rural punishment. It goes without saying that the ventilation of the room was the poorest. It was the custom of the pupils to study their lessons audibly, and Miss Gault became convinced that less noise would give better results. Therefore, at the beginning of the second school term she consulted the school committee in regard to the plan of quiet study. It met with opposition, but finally permission was given to try the experiment. After trial, the old habit of study was never resumed. Mrs. Young's married life was happy. She ever sought the welfare of every one about her, and her memory was precious to many.

ANSEL YOUNG and his wife, ELIZABETH BRAINARD, came from Connecticut in 1818 with an ox team, and in 1836 removed from Brooklyn, Ohio, to Eaton, Ohio, settling in the east part of the town. They built a cabin, 18 X 24, put a loom in one corner, and commenced to live. Mrs. Young began to weave when she was seventeen years old, and wove for over seventy years. They had eight children.

ASENATH YOUNG, who belonged to the George and James Young families of Hiram, Ohio (qqv.) used to recall in her childhood seeing young Indians racing by her home on their ponies, and of seeing bears trotting across the stumpy fields near the house. The Indians frequenting the town were mostly Wyandots. The relations between them and the whites were friendly until after the War of 1812, when the few remaining were forced to leave.

B. F. YOUNG of Dorset, Ohio, m. MARY E. FARLEY, whose mother, Electa S. Farley, came from Lenox and made Millsford her home at an early day. Her dau. Elizabeth recalled that when she was a little girl in homespun dress, of peeking thru chinks in a loft of a log house when a mad dog passed, and herself and sisters were all saved by their mother's care.

BETSEY YOUNG HARRIS, member of the George and James Young families (qqv.) of Hiram, Ohio, happening on a rattlesnake in the road, got off her horse, killed a large one, then mounted and went her way. Rattlers were the greatest dread of anything to the pioneers. Richard Reddin was bitten by one while harvesting wheat. He was taken to the Indians for a remedy. A squaw gathered indigo weed and applied it and cured him.

BRIGHAM YOUNG. There was, in the 1830's a small Mormon community in Troy Twp., Bradford Co., Pa., on Porter Road, some two or three miles northwest of Troy Boro. Some of the Mormon families had come thither from Susquehannah county, where there had been a settlement of cult members shortly after Joseph Smith had organized it at Palmyra, N.Y. To the Porter Road place, in 1835, a young man had come from New England. He was Brigham Young, and he was baptized in Porter creek at a farmstead now destroyed, altho the place is well identified.

CLARISSA YOUNG of Warren, Ohio, was an inmate of the family of General Simon Perkins. Mrs. Perkins took great delight in cultivating fruits and choice flowers, and it was from her garden that Miss Young picked strawberries and sold them for several years, until she realized enough to purchase a solid mahogany communion table for the Presbyterian Church.

ELI YOUNG, with his wife, Catherine Bellows, came to Farmington, Ohio, from Pennsylvania in 1811. The family settled on the bank of the Grand river. High water made their house uninhabitable, and they then built a home farther up the bank. Mr. and Mrs. Young and their two children made one visit to their old home in Pennsylvania. They went on horseback, each carrying a child.

ELIZABETH YOUNG m. Joseph Caldwell of Edinburgh, Ohio, in 1820.

HANNAH YOUNG was b. in 1778 in Hebron, Conn. She m. a Lillie and came to Northfield, Portage Co., Ohio, to live with her son, George Lillie, Esq. She was a woman of great intelligence and decision of character. She was a favorite with the boys and girls, who were never happier than when in Grandma's room, as she was known, listening to her stories. She lived 86 years.

JAMES YOUNG, with wife Hannah, in the year 1811, with their family, made the journey from Connecticut to Hiram, Ohio, with an ox team and cart. George Young, prob. a brother, came at the same time.

JAMES YOUNG of Ripley, Ohio, m. SARAH FROST in 1846. She was the dau. of Curtis and Cordelia (Bierce) Frost.

JOHN YOUNG of Bedford, Ohio, m. BETSEY SMITH. Mrs. Young used to gather the neighborhood together Sunday afternoons and give them instructions in the Bible.

MARTIN YOUNG, ae. 36, (b. 1723) labourer, b. Germany, enlisted Apr. 19, 1759, in the New York Provincial troops.

MARTIN YOUNG, ae. 24, b. 1734) 5 ft., 6 in. tall, weavour, b. Germany, fair complexion, enlisted Apr. 18, 1758, in the New York Provincial troops.

MARTIN YOUNG was a resident of Erwin Town, Ontario Co., N.Y., in 1790, with 3 males over 16, including heads of families; two free white males under 16; and three free white females, including heads of families.

NICHOLAS YOUNG settled at Avon, Ohio, in 1814, and the first religious services in the town were held at his house.

ROBERT YOUNG m. LUCINDA S. DAY, who was b. in Maryland in 1791. They came to Youngstown, Ohio, in Oct. 1821 from Baltimore, bringing a young son with them. Mrs. Young was an active Christian woman, and many years attended the Presbyterian Church, but as the town increased in numbers she grew more active in her efforts to organize a Baptist Church, and succeeded a few years before her death, Dec. 20, 1863.

MRS. RUTH (PALMER) YOUNGS and her sister, Mrs. C.C. Harding of New Haven, Ohio, relate some of their experiences with the Indians. These were always of the pleasantest character, for they were her especial friends. The two girls would often, coming from school, see Indians approaching, and the children would get up on a stump and look for Chief Seneca John. If he were along they would wave their little hands and call to him, and he would come to them, and, putting a little girl on each of his shoulders, would carry them to where they were going. The children thot a great deal of him, and had no fear of him or his tribe.

THOMAS YOUNG came to Hiram, Ohio, from Connecticut in 1812. He m. LYDIA TILDEN, dau. of Col. Daniel Tilden, an officer under Gen. Washington. In 1816 the first Post Office was opened. Thomas Young was postmaster, and continued for thirty-six years until his death.

THOMAS YOUNG came from Virginia to Norton, Ohio, where he m. in 1835 ROWENA L. FRENCH, b. Woodstock, Vt., in 1813. She came to Ohio in 1831, making the trip alone. They located near Western Star in Norton Twp. Mrs. Young d. in Mar. 1864. They had seven children, including a son who filled a soldier's grave at Washington, D.C.

THOMAS YOUNG m. MIRANDA JOHNSON, dau. of Seth and Saloma (Curtis) Johnson of Newbury, Ohio.

ULYSSES YOUNG of Medina, Ohio, was one of those who instituted a graded school in Medina county.

WILLIAM YOUNG was a resident of Sheshequin Twp., Bradford Co., Pa., in 1840. Perhaps he was one of the eight brothers of Reuben Young (qv) and soon left the community.

VIII. BEST MAN.

"ONE THING THAT ALWAYS BOTHERS US A LITTLE, AS WE GO AROUND TO WEDDINGS," observes a reporter, "IS THAT THE BRIDE NEVER GETS THE BEST MAN."

IX. THE BIBLE.

I'D like to see the Bible placed
Where the Bible used to be—
Upon the top of the teacher's desk
For every child to see;
I'd like to hear the teacher say,
As my teacher used to do:
"Before we work or play, dear ones,
I want to read to you."

I'd like to see the teacher stand
Before the class again,
And lift with reverent care the Book
That makes God's purpose plain.
And e'er the youngsters went to work,
I'd like to hear her voice
Repeat those words of truth and faith
That makes one's soul rejoice.

I'd like to see her face light up
At each resplendent word,
And watch the children's souls shine out
At the message they had heard;
I'd like to see the sweet content
Fill that dear room, each nook,
And know that joy had come to each,
When teacher read the book.

Yes, I'd like to see the Bible placed
Where the Bible used to be;
I'd like to hear it read aloud
In the schoolroom of the free.
I want my children taught to know
God's matchless gift of love;
The Book of books is wisdom's gate
To that bright home above.

X. THE BRIDGE.

An old man traveling a lone highway
Came at the evening cold and gray
To a chasm deep and wide.
The old man crossed in the twilight dim,
For the golden stream had no fears for him.
But he turned when he reached the other side,
And builded a bridge to span the tide.
"OLD MAN," cried a pilgrim standing near,
"YOU ARE WASTING YOUR STRENGTH WITH BUILDING HERE;
YOUR JOURNEY WILL END WITH THE CLOSING DAY,
AND YOU NEVER AGAIN WILL PASS THIS WAY;
YOU HAVE CROSSED THE CHASM DEEP AND WIDE—
WHY BUILD YOU A BRIDGE AT EVENTIDE?"
And the builder raised his old gray head—
"GOOD FRIEND, IN THE PATH I HAVE COME," he said,
"THERE FOLLOWS AFTER ME TODAY
A YOUTH WHOSE FEET MUST PASS THIS WAY;
THIS STREAM WHICH HAS BEEN BUT NOUGHT TO ME,
TO THAT FAIR-HAIRED BOY MAY A PIT-FALL BE;—
HE, TOO, MUST CROSS IN THE TWILIGHT DIM;—
GOOD FRIEND, I AM BUILDING THE BRIDGE FOR HIM."

XI. BRIDGE.

TOWANDA COVERED BRIDGE was built in 1832 and then rebuilt in 1837-38, when the center span was burned. Five years later the same span was burned again, and was again replaced. In 1854-55 the height of the bridge was increased seven feet. Toll was taken until Sept. 16, 1879, when the bridge was purchased by the county. It has been a free bridge ever since.

The present steel bridge was built in 1914.

XXII. I AIN'T DEAD YET.

My hair is white, and I'm almost blind:
The days of my youth are far behind;
My neck's so stiff—can't turn my head;
Can't hear half that's being said;
My legs are wobbly—can't hardly walk—
But glory be, I still can talk!
And this is the message I want you to get:
I'm still kicking! I ain't dead yet!

My joints are stiff—wont move in their sockets;
And nary a dime is left in my pockets;
So maybe you think I'm a total wreck:
To tell you the truth, I look like heck!
But still I have just lots of fun:
And my heart with joy is overrun;
I've lots of friends, so kind and sweet,
And many more that I never meet.
Oh, this is a wonderful world of ours:
Shade, and sunshine, and beautiful flowers—
So you just take it from me, you bet—
I'm glad I'm livin', and I ain't dead yet!

I've got corns on my feet, and ingrown nails;
And do they hurt! here language fails;
To tell my troubles would take too long;
If I tried, you sure would give me the gong.
I go to Church, and S.S. too,
For I love that Story that is ever new;

And when I reach the end of my row,
To my Heavenly Home I hope to go;
Then when I leave this house of clay,
If you listen closely I'm apt to say,
"Well, folks, I've left you; But don't forget I've just passed on—I ain't dead yet!"

"So am I."
"Why, I thot you had one!"
"I do, and I spend most of my time looking for him!"

XXV. LAW.

A HEBREW Chaplain in the U.S. Army once pointed out that under the English code, all statutory law is based on common law; all common law is based on moral law; and all moral law is based on Divine Law.

XXVII. SHAKESPEARE.

Tomorrow, and tomorrow, and tomorrow
Creeps in this petty pace from day to day
To the last syllable of recorded time,
And all our yesterdays have lighted fools
The way to dusty death. Out, out, brief candle!
Life's but a walking shadow, a poor player
That struts and frets his hour upon the stage
And then is heard no more; it is a tale
Told by an idiot, full of sound and fury,
Signifying nothing.

XXXII. MOTHER.

ONE mother, whose children had grown to be stalwart Christians, was asked the secret of her success. She replied: "WHEN IN THE MORNING I WASHED MY CHILDREN, I PRAYED THAT THEY MIGHT BE CLEANSED BY THE SAVIOR'S PRECIOUS BLOOD. WHEN I PUT ON THEIR GARMENTS, I PRAYED THAT THEY MIGHT BE ARRAYED IN THE GARMENTS OF SALVATION AND IN THE ROBE OF GOD'S RIGHTEOUSNESS. WHEN I GAVE THEM FOOD, I PRAYED THAT THEY MIGHT BE FED WITH THE BREAD OF LIFE. WHEN I STARTED THEM ON THE FOAD TO SCHOOL, I PRAYED THAT THEIR FAITH MIGHT BE AS THE SHINING LIGHT THAT SHINES MORE AND MORE BRIGHTLY UNTIL THE PERFECT DAY IS COME. WHEN I PUT THEM TO SLEEP, I PRAYED THAT THEY MIGHT BE FOLDED IN THE SAVIOR'S EVERLASTING ARMS.

XXXV. MY PRESENCE.

Our hearts would ask a program, an outline sent from Heaven,
But no such chart is granted; a life-map is not given.
Instead, there comes a promise, a promise for each day:
"MY PRESENCE SHALL GO WITH THEE—MY PRESENCE ALL THE WAY!"

Our human hearts might urge us for person meek to ask;
Some kindred soul to join us in life's stupendous task.
This, too, may be ungranted; perchance, that we might know
The greatness of His Presence while toiling here below.

Provision and protection, we rightly seem to crave;
Were we of these quite certain, we think we could be brave
But greater than these portions can this word come to be:
"MY PRESENCE SHALL GO WITH THEE—MY PRESENCE—MINE—WITH THEE.."

Oh give us ears to listen! Oh, give us hearts to long
To hear Thy wondrous promise; to heed it and be strong!
To know Thy constant Presence, and all the promised rest;
To know it as sufficient—and knowing it, be blest.

XXXVI. NOT ALL FAMILY TREES!

The Binghamton, N.Y., PRESS inquires: "IF MONEY DOESN'T GROW ON THRRE, WHY DO BANDS HAVE SO MANY BRANCHES?"

XXXVII. PLEASING DAD.

When I was a little lad, not more than two or three,
I noticed in a general way my dad was proud of me;
Sometimes he gave me words of praise; sometimes he stroked my head;
And when I'd done a thing worthwhile, the thot that made me glad
Was always that I'd done my best, and that would please my dad.

I can look back today, and see how proud he used to be
When I'd come home from school and say they'd recommended me.
I didn't understand it then, for school boys never do,
But in a vague and general way, It seems to me I knew
That Father took great pride in me, and wanted me to shine,
And that it meant a lot to him when I'd do something fine.

Then one day out of school I went, amid the world's great hum,
An office boy, and Father watched each night to see me come;
And I recall how proud he was of me that wondrous day
When I could tell him that, unasked, the firm had raised my pay.
I still can feel that hug he gave—I understand the joy
It meant to him to learn that men were trusting in his boy.

I wonder will it please my dad? How oft the thot occurs,
When I am stumbling on the paths beset with briars and burrs;
He isn't here to see me now, alone my race I run,
And yet some day I'll go to him, and tell him all I've done.
And then I pray that when we meet beyond life's stormy sea
That he may claim the old-time joy of being proud of me.

XXXVIII. POLITICIANS.

EIGHT candidates, including all four incompetents, are seeking re-election this year.

XXXIX. PRIDE OF ANCESTRY.

I follow a famous father,
And never a day goes by

But I feel he looks down to me
To carry the standard high.
He stood to the stearnest trials
As only a brave man can;
Tho the way be long, I must never wrong
The name of so good a man.

I follow a famous father,
Not known to the printed page
Nor written down in the world's renown
As a prince of his little age
But never a stain attached to him,
And never he stooped to shame;
He was bold and brave, and to me he gave
The pride of an honest name.

I follow a famous father,
And him I must keep in mind;
Tho his form is gone I must carry on
The name that he left behind.

It was pure on the day he gave it;
It shown as a monarch's crown,
And as fair to see as it came to me,
It must be when I pass it down.

XLI. SAD TALE.

If we attend a meeting, we've been nosy;
If we don't, we're not interested.
If we write an in-depth story, it's too long;
If we condense one, it's incomplete.
If we take sides on an innue, we're prejudiced;
If we don't, we're cowards.
If our clothes are cleaned and pressed, we think we're big shots;
If they aren't, we look like movieland newspapermen.
If we've been around a while, it's time for a change;
If we don't stop and talk (DEADLINES, YOU KNOW) we're too big for our britches;
If we do, that's all we've got to do, anyway.
If we ask for advice, we're incompetent;
If we don't, we're know-it-alls.
If we make a mistake, we hear about it for weeks;
If we don't, we never hear about it.
If we express an opinion, we want to run the show;
If we don't, how were we ever raised?
If we misspell your name, you never forget it;
If we don't, you didn't read that story.

School days, school days,
Dear old prayer-banned school days;

I was your Draft-Card Burning Beau;
We learned of Karl Marx and loved him so,
When we were a couple of kids.

XLIII. SOLOMON.

MISS Blackman, Historian of Susquehanna CO., Pa., records that Hosea Tiffany, an old Revolutionary soldier, settled in Harford in that county, where he served as Justice of the Peace. He had married a couple, and, soon after, having suffered their first disillusionment, they came to him to inquire if he would unmarry them.

"OH, YES," said he, and invited them to step outside a moment. Taking his ax, and putting his foot on a log, he said,

"LET THE ONE WHO WANTS TO BE UNMARRIED First, LAY HIS HEAD there!"

□ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □

IN 1800 Squire Tiffany brought in a barrel of cider, the first in the town, for which he paid $8. Its sale netted him six cents profit. The apple tree at first did not thrive well, but in later years there was a good share of orcharding.

□ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □

YOUR Editor's Mother used to tell a story on her father, Squire E.A. Coolbaugh, similar to the above incident. Like Squire Tiffany, he officiated at a connubial alliance, and, as with the Harford couple, they, too, became "DISENCHANTED." The dispersed spell was plainly evident by the stride and demeanor of the young lady as she walked past the Squire's house. Glancing at the Squire, seated on the front porch, she ejaculated, "I FORBID YOU GIVING ISAAC KORNER A DIVORCE!"

"AND I SUPPOSE YOU BOTH LIVED HAPPILY EVER AFTER?" queried the young man.

"WELL, NOT EXACTLY," replied the other grimly, "WE'VE BEEN FIGHTING FOR THE WORLD'S CHAMPIONSHIP EVER SINCE."

XLVII. WOULD THEY?

THE ALDRICH.

Greetings To Our Subscribers & Friends Around The Country!

It has been some little time since we have sent out a mailing of New Twigs for Your Family Trees. This has not been because we ran out of materials. Rather, the exact opposite has been the case. This project, like so many others of its kind, has mushroomed out of all proportions, so that we find ourselves agreeing with the Great Apostle to the Gentiles when he admonished his Spiritual Son of so long ago to beware of ENDLESS GENEALOGIES! (I Tim. 1:4). Every day brings new requests to our desk, and new materials. The supply of many of the earliest articles have become exhausted, and must be re-issued, and will be revised and up-dated in the process. Some have already undergone this process. An Index for Vol. IV (Nos. 400—500) similar to that covering the first three volumes, has been compiled, but must be proof-read for errors and omissions before production can start.

AMONG THE SUBSCRIBERS.

[illegible]TTERLEE— Mrs. Goldie Satterlee Moffitt of Perris, Calif., announces that after many years of research, travel, and hard work, she is making preparations to release the fruits of her labors with the SATTERLEE-SATTERLEY— [illegible] families.

[illegible]— [illegible] Van [illegible] of Milwaukee keeps busy with his "WIS-[illegible]."

[illegible]STBROOK— Mr. [illegible] Westbrook of Gillett, Pa., keeps busy, as [illegible] allows, with the area branches of his family. He has made numerous [illegible] throughout Bradford, Tioga, Susquehanna, Lycoming and adjoining counties in Pennsylvania, and contiguous territory in Chemung, Tioga, and near-[illegible] counties in southern New York State. Mr. Westbrook has remained steadfast despite several discouraging set-backs. Several years ago his home, and all [illegible] contents, were destroyed by fire, in zero weather in the dead of winter, [illegible] he lived on Armenia mountain. His loss included his library of valuable [illegible] books, various treasured family heirlooms, and all the records which he had gathered up to that time on the Westbrook and related families. Fortunately he had shared much of his treasures with O.K. Westbrook of Buffalo, N.Y., who was then alive and collaborating with him; and with Your Editor. So some of them are retrievable. But many of the early ones he has never succeeded in retracing. Either those who contributed them the first time have failed to respond to a second appeal, or due to health reasons he has been unable to carry out a return visit. He has also suffered a heart attack since his other disaster, and is able to do very little writing or [illegible] about. And his good wife has also sustained a broken hip. Your Editor misses the friendly visits and the great sheaves of foolscap data which formerly graced his mailbox, of family, cemetery, and other records, from [illegible] source. The reader will note that a number of these contributions have have a fairly complete tabulation of the earlier gen[illegible]

POLITICIANS--There is perhaps one more item which [illegible] at this time. In, or soon after, the year 1020, Your Ed[illegible] secured from the then acting Board of County Commissioners, permission to go into an area in the Court House where some of the older county records are deposit[illegible]. It had become necessary to remove these from their original depositories because the space was needed for current and more recent files. After that, whenever he wished to go in there, he would secure the pass key from the janitor's office and go on in. About four years ago, a couple of times when he visited the place, there was a man in there working, straightening up the files, and generally cleaning up the place. This gentleman said that someone had gotten in there and had "THROWN THINGS AROUND." This seemed incredible, but we guess, since reports have come from several different sources, that there may have been an element of truth involved. Be that as it may, the next time we inquired for the pass key, we were informed that it was now kept at the Prothonotary's office. Upon inquiry there, we were advised that PERMISSION MUST BE SECURED. We replied that we already had permission, and had been going in there for the past thirty-five years. This was met by a flat "NO YOU HAVEN'T!" Leaving for the Commissioner's office, we met one of the gentlemen in the hall. But not anticipating any further difficulty, we did not mention the matter to him, and went on in the office. But the two who were in there said that the Prothonotary had said NO, so they did, too. We exhibited a letter from the office of the State's Attorney-General, indicating that those were Public Records, and that it was our privilege to examine them, and make whatever abstractions therefrom that we might wish. But the two Commissioners in the office replied THAT DIDN'T CUT NO ICE WITH THEM. Going on up to the Judge's Chambers, the then incumbent President Judge heard what we had to say, but took no action. There the matter rested until the past season, tho several interested persons to whom we had mentioned the matter, had told us that if we wished, they would PUT IN A WORD for us. However, it so happened that the originals of one of the desired files had been left in the main office, but the transcribed Liber Volumes had been relegated to the storage area. These original memoranda, tied in bundles according to date, were annoying to consult, because often the papers had not been replaced in proper sequence after being used, and so the desired Instrument could not be located at all; whereas in the Ledgers, they had been indexed according to volume and page, and all references were available at once. Also, these old papers, having been tied in bundles undisturbed for so many years, would tear and flake off at the seams and around the edges, the minute one attempted to open them out. But, wishing to refer to these files, we noted that they had been removed from their accustomed location. Upon inquiry, we were informed that they, too, had been transferred to the storage area. So then we asked if we might go in to look at them, and the Recorder said YES. So we asked the Prothonotary for the pass key. And she very reluctantly handed it to us. We have been back a second time, likewise without incident. So now we live in the hope that this barrier has once more been permanently breached.

A number of years ago, before the era of long week-ends became the fashion, it was the practice at the Court House to open up on Saturday mornings, but to close each day during the noon hour. The Register & Recorder at that time was the late WAYNE BENNETT. When it was about time to close up for the noon hour, Mr. Bennett came by the table where we were working, so we asked if there would be any objection to our leaving our [illegible] ment there over noon, as we planned to be back [illegible] OF A CLEAR SKY, AND TOTALLY UNEXPECTED, he said, that [illegible] we were, he was interested in our work; and that if we so desired, [illegible] would lock the outside door to the office, and we might remain inside and pursue our research over the noon-hour. Which we accordingly did.

Your Editor would like to chat with you longer, and present further previews of many other projects in the offing. But this must suffice for the time being, and these other projected activities may be disclosed in future issues of the TWIG NEWSLETTER.

YOURS FOR HAPPY TREE-CLIMBING,

GREETINGS:-

Having completed a Second Index, to Persons, and a Topographical Gazetteer, to the Fourth Volume, or Series, of TWIGS FROM FAMILY TREES, Nos. 400-700, and having already launched the FIFTH SERIES, being well on the way toward hitting the THOUSAND MARK in the number of articles, ranging in length from a single page, to upwards of a hundred or more pages for some of the longer ones, once again we pause for a little Chat with our Subscribers, and perhaps indulge another moment or two with the Muse's Art, by adding a few Tidbits of Satire, Humor, Philosophy, Poetry and What-Have-You. We have now reached the point where the Far Shore looms faintly on the Distant Horizon; and we hope to make available some of the records and materials on which a great deal of time has been spent over the years, and for which some of you may have been waiting a long time. When his activities were first commenced, Your Editor was one of the Pioneers in the field in this area. But the pursuit of the Elusive Ancestor has become quite the rage in more recent times.

FURTHER RUMINATIONS OF

Bibo Dolor.

LXV. Ancestors.

ANCESTORS are found along with old furniture and captive skeletons in all our best regulated families. Ancestors consist of forefathers and foremothers, to say nothing of forauncles and aunts, who have done something grand and noble, like being beheaded by a king, or having a relative who was Governor of a Colony. This enables them to be pointed out with pride by their descendants forever more.

Being an ancestor is one of the easiest and most attractive of jobs. It merely consists of being boasted by one's descendants. Thus many ancestors have been enabled to make good after they are dead. More than one ancestor who has gone out of this life a poor person, and only a few jumps ahead of the sheriff, has had the good fortune, a century later, to become the ancestor of some ambitious family with plenty of money, and has become so famous in consequence, that his tombstone has had to be greatly enlarged and improved. Ancestors are one of the most valuable and satisfactory of possessions. They are non-taxable and cannot be stolen. Their upkeep is practically nothing, and they do not deteriorate with age and neglect. In fact, they increase in value as they grow older. An ancestor 600 years old is worth a whole mass meeting of 56-year-old ancestors. Adam is the oldest ancestor. He is 6000 years old, and has a fine record. But he is a common possession, like education and liberty, so he is not valued very highly.

Almost all rich people own and operate ancestors. But the poorest men have them too. A man who hasn't two vests to his name, and cannot hold a job two minutes, has ancestors which are the envy of his two-automobile neighbors. We cannot buy ancestors if we do not have them, but we can buy them for our children by marrying discreetly. We should be proud of our ancestors, but not out loud. We can choose our friends, but not our ancestors. Kind hearts are more than coronets, and simple faith than Norman blood.

LXVI. Automation.

AUTOMATION doesn't cut red tape. It perforates it.

LXVII. BEHIND THE EIGHT BALL.

By CLAY F. TUTTLE, Ulster, Pa.

THE LATE CLAY F. TUTTLE OF ULSTER, PA., (Cf. Tuttle Fam., p. 33) POSSESSED CONSIDERABLE POETIC ABILITY, AND OFTEN COMPOSED CONTRIBUTIONS WHICH GRACED THE PAGES OF THE LOCAL PRESS. WE REPRODUCE HERE ONE OF HIS MORE OUTSTANDING PRODUCTIONS.

IT SEEMS SO GOSH DARNED FUNNY
HOW THINGS ARE TURNED 'ROUND:
HOW FOLKS A-LIVING ON A FARM
JUST ACHE TO GET TO TOWN;
WHILE CITY FOLKS VACATIONING,
TO WIDE OPEN SPACES GO
AND PICK THE BROWN-EYES SUSANS
THAT IN THE MEADOWS GROW.

IT SEEMS SO GOSH DARNED FUNNY,
WE WISH WE'RE WHAT WE AIN'T
(I WONDER IF OLD SATAN E'ER WISHED HE WERE A SAINT).
WHEN WE ARE KIDS A PLAYING,
WE WANT TO BE BIG MEN;
AND WHEN WE GROW TO MANHOOD, WOULD BE A CHILD AGAIN.

IT SEEMS SO GOSH DARNED FUNNY
WE'RE NOT SATISFIED AT ALL;
A TALL MAN WOULD BE SHORTER,
AND A SHORT MAN WOULD BE TALL;
A POOR MAN ENVIES RICHES, WHILE A RICH MAN ALL WOULD GIVE,
IF HE IN PEACE AND QUIET
LIKE HIS NEIGHBOR POOR COULD LIVE.

IT SEEMS SO GOSH DARNED FUNNY
BUT THEN, WHAT IS THE USE—
YOU CANNOT CHANGE THE TWO-SPOT—
IT STILL REMAINS THE DUCE.
NO MATTER AT WHAT AGE WE ARE,
IN EARLY LIFE OR LATE—
WE ALWAYS THINK THAT WE'RE BEHIND
THE BALL THAT'S NUMBERED EIGHT.

LXVIII. THE BOLSHEVIK.

THE Philosophy of taking "FROM EACH ACCORDING TO HIS ABILITY," and giving "TO EACH ACCORDING TO HIS NEED," sounds humane and altruistic, and has a substantial following among Socialist, Communist, and similarly idealized peoples,

A New York high school teacher conducted an interesting experiment with his students. He suggested to them that they take away twenty grade points from those who made a grade of 95 on a test, giving them to those who made only 55 on the same test. This way, both would receive a passing mark. The brighter or more diligent students would be contributing in accordance with their ability, while the lesser intelligent—or less diligent—students would receive in accordance with their need. The instructor then speculated with his students as to the probable results if he were to actually apply this Socialist-Communist Philosophy. The first result would be that the highly productive students would lose the incentive to work for higher grades. The second result would be that the less productive students would be relieved of any obligation to study or to produce. The teacher observed that "AT THAT POINT, IN ORDER FOR ANYONE TO SURVIVE, THE 'Authority' WOULD HAVE NO ALTERNATIVE BUT TO BEGIN A SYSTEM OF COMPULSORY LABOR AND PUNISHMENTS AGAINST EVEN THE LOW PRODUCERS..."

THIS is precisely what happens in an entire society when productive incentive is taxed to death and the non-producers ride on the backs of the producers.

LXIX. A BOY'S ESSAY ON ANATOMY.

Your head is kind of round and hard, and your brains are in it.
Your face is the front of your head where you eat and make faces.
Your neck is what keeps your head out of your collar. It's hard to keep clean.
Your shoulders are sort of shelfs where you hook your suspenders on them.
Your stummick is something that if you don't eat often enough it hurts, and spinnage don't help it none.
Your spine is the long bone in your back that keeps you from folding up.
Your back is always behind you no matter how quick you turn around!
Your arms you've got to have to pitch a ball with and also so you can reach the butter.
Your fingers stick out of your hand so you can throw a curve and hold a pencil when you add up 'rithmetic.
Your legs is what, if you have not got two of, you can't get to first base—neither can your sister.
And that is all there is of you. Except what's inside—and I never saw that.

But you can control its width and depth;
You can't control the contour of your face—
But you can control its expression;
You can't control the weather—
But you can control the atmosphere of your mind;
Why worry about things you can't control.
When you can keep yourself busy controlling the things that depend on you.

LXXVIII. THE FAMILY TREE.

I think that I shall never see
The finish of a Family Tree,
As it forever seems to grow
From roots that started very low;

Way back in ancient history times,
In foreign lands and distant climes—
From them grew trunk and branching limb,
That dated back from time so dim.
One seldom knows exactly when
The parents met and married then,
Nor when the twigs began to grow
With odd-named children, row on row.
Tho a verse like this is made by me,
And the end's in sight, as you can see;
Tis not the same with family trees
That grow and grow thru centuries.

—PORTLAND GENEALOGICAL FORUM.

LXXIX. FANATIC.

A FANATIC is a man who can't change his mind and won't change the subject.

—GETTYSBURG TIMES.

LXXXI. FIGURE THAT ONE.

TOO many girls have a shape like a figure ate.

LXXXI. FLATTERY.

FLATTERY is soft soap, and soft soap is ninety percent lye.

—LANCESTER NEW ERA.

LXXXII. GENEALOGY.

G enealogy, that interesting and time-consuming game.
E ncourages us to search out our family name;
N eedless to say, you'll add fuel to the fire
E very time you find a long-lost sire;
A nd when you finally hit dead-end,
L ook around for a distant friend;
O ne who may data to you send;
G ive freely of your family lore;
Y ou'll be repaid with a whole lot more!

—Wm. A. BURNS in GENEALOGICAL HELPER.

LXXXIII. GENTLEMAN FARMER.

EFFIE: "My uncle is what you call a "Gentleman Farmer?."
MUGGS: "What is that?"
EFFIE: "Oh, you know... He lives on a farm but he works in the city... He only oversees the farming that's done."
MUGGS: "Then tell it like it is... He's a moonlighting, semi-involved farmer, with a chauffeur-driven tractor!"

LXXXVI. GOLF.

GOLF was once a richman's sport—now it has millions of poor players.

—TODAY'S CHUCKLE.

LXXXV. GOVERNMENT SPENDING.

GOVERNMENT Spending gives you an idea why laws are called bills.

—TODAY'S CHUCKLE.

LXXXVI. GRANDMA.

A DOTING Grandmother said to her friend: "SAY, HAVE I EVER TOLD YOU ABOUT MY GRANDCHILDREN?" Her friend replied: "NO, AND I SURE DO APPRECIATE IT!"

—ABIGAIL VANBUREN.

LXXXVII. GRAVES.

GRAVES are but the prints of the footsteps of the Angel of Eternal Life. —EPITAPH ON MARKER OF CHRISTOFFEL HOOGHLANDT, 1699—1777, SON OF CHRISTOFFEL JR., SON OF CHRISTOFFEL THE EMIGRANT, LOCATED ON THEIR FARM IN RISCATAWAY, N.J., The farm was owned by four Christophers in succession.

LXXXVIII. GREAT REMOVAL.

AUNTS, uncles and grandparents ~~become~~ greater with each successive generation, but cousins get removed.

—LANCASTER NEW ERA.

LXXXIX. HAIR.

DON'T worry about your hair falling out. Just think how bad it would be if it ached and you had to have it pulled.

—PHILADELPHIA BULLETIN

XC. HISTORICAL LIVING.

LIVING in the past has one thing in its favor—it's cheaper.

XCI. HISTORY.

MUGGS: "Come on—Play me a game of checkers."
SKEETER: "Can't—Got to go up and study now."
MUGGS: "Study what?"
SKEETER: "History."
MUGGS: "Well, if history always repeats itself, why not just wait around down here 'n watch what happens."

— MUGGS & SKEETER.

XCII. INCOME TAX.

FIFTY percent of Americans file their income tax— the other fifty percent chisel it.

— TODAY'S CHUCKLE.

XCIII. INFLATION.

INFLATION is the system whereby if you save long enough to buy something, you can't afford it.

— ALLENTOWN EVENING CHRONICLE.

XCIV. KERSHNER'S LAW.

"WHEN a self-governing people confer upon their government the power to take money from some and give it to others, that process will go on until the last bone of the last taxpayer is picked bare."

—HOWARD E. KERSHNER in book, "DIVIDING THE WEALTH."

XCV. LABOR.

WHEN we lose the sense of vocation and the conviction that we are toiling "IN THE REGIMENT OF GOD," we blunder into what Charles Brower, advertising executive, calls, "THE AGE OF THE HALF-DONE JOB." "IT IS POPULATED," he says, "WITH LAUNDRY MEN WHO WON'T IRON SHIRTS; IT IS POPULATED WITH WAITERS WHO WON'T SERVE; IT IS POPULATED WITH CARPENTERS WHO WILL COME AROUND SOME DAY, MAYBE; IT IS POPULATED WITH EXECUTIVES WHOSE MIND IS ON THE GOLF COURSE; IT IS POPULATED WITH TEACHERS WHO DEMAND A SINGLE SALARY SCHEDULE, SO THAT ACHIEVEMENT CANNOT BE REWARDED; IT IS POPULATED WITH STUDENTS WHO TAKE CINCH COURSES."

—BOOKSTORE JOURNAL.

XCVI. LANING CREEK BRIDGE.

THE new iron bridge over Little Wysox or Laning creek was completed and the structure opened to the public on Sat. Nov. 19, 1898. It remained in use until the rebuilding of U.S. Route 6 between Wysox and Towanda recently.

XCVII. MANY WOULD AGREE.

THIS sign adorns the wall of a restaurant in Beaver Dam, Ky.: "MARRIAGE HAS A RING TO IT— ENGAGEMENT RING, WEDDING RING, AND SUFFERING."

XCVIII. MARRIAGE.

MARRIAGE is like the Army—Everyone complains, but you'd be surprised at how many re-enlist.

—NEW KENSINGTON DAILY DISPATCH.

XCIX. MARRIAGE.

MARRIAGE is a process for finding out what sort of a man your wife would have preferred.

—HARRISBURG PATRIOT.

C. MARRIAGE.

MARRIAGE isn't a word; it's a sentence.

CI. MIXED EMOTIONS.

DEFINITION of Mixed Emotions: WATCHING YOUR MOTHER-IN-LAW GO OVER A CLIFF IN YOUR NEW CADILLAC.

—TOWANDA DAILY REVIEW.

CII. NATURAL SELECTION?

IT is not observed in history that families improve with time. It is rather discovered that the whole matter is like a comet, of which the brightest part is the head, and the tail, altho long and luminous, is gradually shaded into obscurity.

—GEORGE WILLIAM CURTIS. Sent in by N.E.

Westbrook, San Francisco, Calif.

CIII. NEBULOUS.

A woman with horse sense never becomes a nag.

CIV NICKEL.

TODAY'S nickel is a dollar with the taxes taken out. A few years ago that was the definition of a dime.

CV. OH YEAH?

YOU shouldn't blame your wife when things go wrong. Just what can you expect from a woman who was raised by your mother-in-law?

CVI. OLD ENGLISH BURIAL CUSTOM.

AT Exford, near Minehead, Eng., it was formerly the custom for burials always to take place on a Sunday when possible, the burial service being dovetailed into the usual afternoon service. The corpse, being brought into the Church, was placed in front of the reading desk and remained there during the service. The funeral Psalms were read instead of the Psalms of the day, and the funeral lesson instead of the second lesson. The burial service was concluded after the sermon, and the entire congregation would generally remain until the end. The custom seems to have fallen into disuse about thirty years ago (as of 1893).

—WESTMINSTER GAZETTE.

CVII. ONE & TWO.

It takes two for a kiss; only one for a sigh;
Twain by twain we marry; one by one we die;
Joy is a partnership; grief weeps alone;
Many guests had Cana; Gethsemane had one.

—SWORD OF THE LORD.

CVIII. OUTLAWS.

WITH the passing of old-time Outlaws, people who lived in the country thot they were safe from unwelcome visitors. Then came the In-Laws.

CIX. PAY FOR THE SKILLET.

A STORY is told that about 1835, D. E. Merrill was the first landlord in Ripley, O. His tavern was in the center of town in a double log house. They had a small lad working for them, who was so unfortunate as to break a skillet. When they paid the lad, they deducted 25¢ for the skillet. In a short time the boy moved away, and Mr. Merrill received a letter, for which he had to pay 25¢ (the usual postage in those days). Instead of the letter being from a long-lost friend, as Mr. Merrill expected, it was from the boy, who wrote: "D. E. Merrill: Dear Sir: When you receive this letter, you will pay for the skillet."

CX PHILADELPHIA LAWYER.

WHEN a lawyer makes out a document, why does he always call it a brief?

CXI. POINT OF VIEW.

SOMEONE was riding thru London with John Ruskin, and, referring to the condition of the streets, said, "WHAT DISGUSTING STUFF THIS MUD IS." Ruskin replied, "IN THAT MUD ARE THE SAND, THE SOOT AND THE LIME OUT OF WHICH GOD MAKES DIAMONDS, SAPPHIRES AND OPALS."

—As quoted in sermon of BILLY SUNDAY.

CXII. POINTS OF VIEW.

By REV. E. R. CARNER, Missionary to India.

REV. CARNER SPENT HIS EARLIER YEARS ON THE MISSION FIELD IN INDIA. UPON HIS RETIREMENT FROM ACTIVE SERVICE, HE SERVED AS A MUCH-BELOVED INSTRUCTOR IN BIBLE AT THE OLD Missionary Training Institute, NOW CALLED Nyack College, AT NYACK N.Y. HE COMPOSED THE FOLLOWING POETIC LINES AS A TRIBUTE TO A FRIEND ON HIS SEVENTIETH BIRTHDAY. IT WAS PREMISED ON PSALM 39 AND OTHER PASSAGES INDICATIVE OF THE BREVITY AND FRAILTY OF LIFE. DR. CARNER WAS GREATLY ESTEEMED FOR HIS TRULY GRACIOUS AND HUMBLE SPIRIT.

YES, SEVENTY YEARS SEEM A VERY LONG TIME,
WHEN THE TIME HAS ONLY BEGUN—
WHEN THE MINUTES, AND HOURS, AND CYCLES OF DAYS, WITH THEIR MILLIONS OF SANDS MUST RUN.

AND SEVENTY YEARS SEEM A VERY LONG ROAD
TO THE CHILD WHO MUST TRAVEL IT O'ER;
OR, AN OCEAN SO WIDE THAT IT BAFFLES HIS MIND
TO ATTEMPT TO BEHOLD ITS FAR SHORE.

AND SEVENTY YEARS SEEM AN AMPLY LONG TIME
TO THE YOUTH WHO LOOKS OUT ON LIFE'S SCHOOL—
LONG ENOUGH TO IMBIBE ALL THE WISDOM AND LORE THAT WILL MAKE HIM A SAGE OR A FOOL.

AND SEVENTY YEARS ARE A FAR-AWAY GOAL—
AND BETWEEN THERE LIES MANY A PLAN
FOR HIMSELF AND HIS FRIENDS AND THE WHOLE NEEDY WORLD
TO THE STRONG AND AMBITIOUS YOUNG MAN.

AND SEVENTY YEARS SEEM A GENEROUS DAY—
AND ITS SUNSET A FAR-AWAY TIME—
WITH ITS HOURS OF TOIL AND SEASONS OF JOY
TO THE MIDDLE-AGED MAN IN HIS PRIME.

BUT THE SEVENTY YEARS TO THE ONE WHO IS OLD
SEEM A "span" THAT IS COMPASSED TOO SOON;
FOR IF WORK IS UNFINISHED AND PLANS INCOMPLETE,
IT IS NIGHT WHEN IT OUGHT TO BE NOON.

"And the days of the years" OF THE PILGRIMAGE LONG
ARE AS "yesterday" NOW AT THE LAST;
AS A "watch in the night," "as a sleep," "as a flood"—
WHEN THE DAYS, "few and evil," ARE PASSED.

OH, HAPPY FOR US IF FROM THAT POINT OF VIEW
WE BEHOLD THAT JEHOVAH WROUGHT
IN OUR LIVES THE LIFE THAT IS STEADFAST AND SURE—THAT ETERNITY COMPASSETH NOT.

CXIII. POLITICS.

POLITICS is the art of making yourself popular with people by giving them grants out of their own tax money.

CXIV. PRINTER'S INK.

IF all printers were determined not to print anything until they were sure it would offend nobody, there would be very little printed.

—BENJAMIN FRANKLIN.

CXV. REMEMBER.

IF you see but your shadow, remember, I pray,
That the sun is still shining, but you're in the way.
Don't grumble; don't bluster, don't dream, and don't shirk;
Don't think of your worries, but think of your work!
The worries will vanish, the work will be done;
No man sees the shadow who faces the sun!

—SWORD OF THE LORD.

CXVI. REPUTATION.

SOMEWHERE along the way I have picked up an odd reputation. I know all the obscure places and people. I am told... I am supposed to know all the answers. In some queer way I can't account for, I sometimes do... If people would only ask questions the way I have had to ask questions. Elaborate traps were laid for me and I fell into all of them.

CXVII. ROWBOAT.

WHEN you row the other fellow across the stream, you also get there.

CXVIII. SEEMS LOGICAL.

A boy was asked what he thot his mother's new baby would be.
"Chinese!"
"Why?"
"She always told me that every sixth child in the world is Chinese."

CXIX. SHADES OF DR. BEN.

EARLY to bed and early to rise, makes a man tired sooner the next afternoon.

CXX. SHE WEDDED THEM ALL.

HENGRAVE HALL, near Bury St. Edmunds, which has been sold for over £90,000, at one time belonged to Penelope, a dau. of Earl Rivers. Of this fair aristocrat an amusing story is told. She had three suiters at the same time, Sir George Trenchard, Sir John Gage, and Sir William Hervie, and to keep peace between the rivals she threatened the first aggressor with her perpetual displeasure, telling them that if they would wait, she would have them all in turns—a promise which she actually performed. The gentleman first favored was

Sir George Trenchard. He d. shortly afterward, and it was not long before she became Lady Gage. Sir John, by whom she had nine children, d. in the year 1633, and two years later his widow was led to the altar by Sir William Hervie. The lady survived all her husbands.

—LONDON TIT-BITS.

CXXI. STILL TRUE.

"HOSPITALS pauperize the community," declared a speaker at a meeting of the Bradford County, Pa., Medical Society in 1895.

CXXII. STYLES.

ONCE upon a time gals stayed home when they had nothing to wear.

—LOCK HAVEN EXPRESS.

CXXIII. TAKING IT EASY.

THOSE who truly wish to live to be 90 rarely drive over 60.

CXXIV. TAX.

A FINE is a tax for doing wrong—
A TAX is a find for doing all right.

—LEBANON DAILY NEWS.

CXXV. TAXES.

HIGHER taxes to keep the dollar from losing value is just another way of saying that the guy with the buck has two ways he can lost it.

—CAL CRAIG in the NORTH PENN REPORTER.

CXXVI. TAXPAYER'S PARADISE.

"I've saved the money to pay my income tax," said the harried taxpayer, "now all I have to do is borrow some to live on."

—TODAY'S CHUCKLE.

CXXVII. TIME.

TIME is TOO SLOW for those who wait;
TIME is TOO SWIFT for those who fear;
TIME is TOO LONG for those who grieve;
TIME is TOO SHORT for those who rejoice;
But for those who love,—TIME IS NOT.

—MOTTO.

CXXVIII. TODAY.

TODAY is the first day of the rest of your life.

—MOTTO.

CXXIX. TOLERANCE.

TOLERANCE is the ability to listen enthusiastically to someone telling your favorite story.

CXXX. THE TWO THINGS.

THERE are only two things a child will share willingly—communicable diseases and his mother's age.

CXXXI. WHEN THE BOYS IN BLUE ARE GONE.

WHEN THE COMRADES HAVE DEPARTED; WHEN THE VETERANS ARE NO MORE;
WHEN THE BUGLE CALL IS SOUNDED ON THAT EVERLASTING SHORE;
WHEN LIFE'S WEARY MARCH IS ENDED; WHEN THE CAMP FIRES SLUMBER LONG—
WHO WILL TELL THE WORLD THE STORY, WHEN THE BOYS IN BLUE ARE GONE?

WHO WILL TELL ABOUT THE MARCHING FROM ATLANTA TO THE SEA?—
WHO WILL HALT, AND WAIT, AND LISTEN, WHEN THEY HEAR THE REVILLE?—
WHO WILL JOIN TO SWELL THE CHORUS OF SOME OLD GRAND ARMY SONG?—
WHO WILL TELL THE WORLD THE STORY, WHEN THE BOYS IN BLUE ARE GONE?

SONS AND DAUGHTERS OF THIS NATION—YOU MUST TELL OF TRIUMPHS WON!
WHEN ON EARTH OUR WORK IS ENDED, AND THE VETERAN CLAIMS HIS OWN:
YOU MUST CHERISH DEAR "Old Glory" AND ITS TEACHINGS PASS ALONG;—
YOU MUST TELL THE WORLD THE STORY—WHEN THE BOYS IN BLUE ARE GONE!

TO THAT FLAG (OUR COUNTRY'S EMBLEM), YOU MUST PLEDGE ALLEGIANCE NOW;
TO THAT FLAG, OUR COUNTRY'S EMBLEM, YOUR HEARTS BE EVER TRUE; THAT THE NATION HE PROTECTED 'GAINST INJUSTICE AND ALL WRONG;
YOU MUST TELL THE WORLD THE STORY—WHEN THE BOYS IN BLUE ARE GONE.

YOU MUST KEEP YOUR COUNTRY'S HONOR, AND EACH STRIPE WITHOUT A STAIN;
YOU MUST TAKE THE VETERAN'S PLACES, AND REPEAT THE ROLL OF FAME;
YOU MUST KEEP YOUR COUNTRY'S HONOR, AND OUR FLAG ABOVE ALL WRONG;—
WE WILL TRUST YOU WITH THE STORY, WHEN THE BOYS IN BLUE ARE GONE!

CXXXII. THE WORD AT WORK.

WHATEVER you write on the heart of a child,
No water can wash it away;
The sands may be shifted; the billows be wild;
And the efforts of time may decay;
Some stories may perish, some songs be forgot;
But this graven record, Time changes it not.

CXXXIII. WRITING.

THERE ain't nothin' more to write about, and I am rotten glad of it, because if I'd a-knowed what a trouble it was to make a book I wouldn't a-tackled it, and ain't a-going to no more.

—HUCKLEBERRY FINN.
